Preface.

My original intention had been to limit this Work to two volumes, but owing to the great increase of material, and a desire not to omit anything which might be useful, I have been compelled to issue this Third and final Volume.

I wish to point out that owing to the shortness of my stay at Antigua in 1888-9, it was impossible for me to examine many of the later volumes of records—a matter for regret, as otherwise many pedigrees might have been more fully set out. In regard to marriage licences, which were formerly invariably granted by the Governor or his Deputy, present officials have no knowledge of their existence.

My thanks are due to the Publishers for the very able way in which they have carried out their difficult and troublesome work.

February, 1899.

1807, Aug. 1. Lord Lavington, governor of the West India Islands, and K.B.; of whom a more particular account in our next (p. 889).

Oct. Ralph Payne, Lord Lavington, K.B., Captain-general and Governor in Chief of his Majesty's Leeward Islands, and a Privy Counsellor, was born in 1738, and married Francoise Lambertine, Baroness de Kolbel, of a noble Saxon family, daughter of Frederick-Maximilian, Baron de Kolbel, a general in the Imperial Service, a lady eminently distinguished. Deceasing without issue, the barony of Lavington becomes extinct, making the sixth Irish peerage which has become extinct since the Union. Ralph Lord Lavington was a nobleman much endeared in private life; and in his public capacity esteemed and revered. He was descended from an antient family in Devonshire; and one of his ancestors eminently distinguished himself for his loyalty to Charles I.; but fled to the West Indies after the battle of Worcester. From a younger branch of this noble House descended the Baronet family of Payne of Tempsford-hall co. Bedford. At a very early age his Lordship discovered those shining talents which elevated him in life. After making the tour of Europe, on the General Election in 1768 he was chosen Representative for the borough of Shaftesbury; and served in the successive parliaments of 1774 and 1780 for Camelford and Plympton. In 1771, he was appointed Captain-general and Governor in Chief of the Leeward Islands; and continued in that station until 1775, when he returned to England, and was appointed Clerk of the Board of Green Cloth; in which department he continued during the existence of it. In 1772, his Lordship was invested with the military order of the Bath; and died the senior Knight of the Order. In 1795 he was returned to Parliament for Woodstock; and was advanced to the dignity of Baron Lavington in October in the same year; in 1801 he was again appointed Captain-general of the Leeward Islands, and sworn of his Majesty's most honourable Privy Council (p. 974).

1808, Sep. 21. At St Pancras, Thomas Swale, esq. of Little Barton-lodge Suffolk, to M^{rs} Sharpe, widow of George Sharpe esq. of the Views, Huntingdon, and one of the daughters of the late Sir Gillies Payne, bart. of Tempsford-hall, co. Bedford (p. 951).

1808, Sep. 22. At Tortola, Pickering Lettson, esq. (son of Dr Lettson) to M^{rs} Georges, widow of William Payne Georges esq. of Manchester-square, sister to Lord Lavington and Mother of M^{rs} Charles Combe (p. 1038).

1808, Sep. 29. At Tortola, Charles Combe, esq. youngest son of Dr Combe of Hart-street, Bloomsbury; a young gentleman whose untimely loss will long be regretted by many who well knew and justly estimated his merit (p. 1039).

1811, Feb. 20. J. F. Buckworth, esq. Lieut.-col. in the Royal Cheshire militia, to Lady Mary Payne, of Wootton, Bedford, widow of Sir John Payne, bt. of Timpford-hall (p. 288).

1812, March 31. In Montague-street, Portman-square, Stephen Payne Galwey, esq. of Thetford, Norfolk (p. 397).

1816, Jan. 25. Christiana, relict of the late T. Swale, esq. of the Views, Hunts, and of Mildenhall, Suffolk, youngest daughter of the late Sir Gillies Payne, bart. of Tempsford-hall, co. Bedford (p. 187).

1817, June 10. At the estate of her late father, Joseph Rawlins, esq. at St Christopher's, where she went for the recovery of her health, Frances George, wife of Lieut. J. Rawlins Thomas, R.N. great niece of Gen. Sir William Payne bart. and of the late Lord Lavington. And Sep. 7, at Stonehouse, Devon, aged 8 months, Frances Anne, infant daughter of the above.

1830, May 2. In Hampton Court Palace, the Right Hon. Frances Lady Lavington. She was a daughter of Frederick Maximilian Baron de Kolbel, a general in the Imperial service; and was left a widow by Ralph Lord Lavington, K.B. in 1807 (p. 477).

1831, May. Lately. Sir William Payne Gallwey, Bart. a General in the army, and Colonel of the 3^d dragoon guards, half brother to the late Lord Lavington, and brother-in-law to the Earl of Dunraven. Long obituary notice follows (p. 466).

1832, April 23. Warwick. At Leamington, Eliz-Sarah, wife of Sir Peter Payne, Bart. M.P. of Kunston-hall, Northamptonshire. She was the only dau. of Samuel Steward, esq. was married in 1789, and has left a numerous family (p. 478).

1841, Jan. At Feltham Hill, aged 47, "Sir" Charles Payne, formerly of Tempsford hall, Bedfordshire, and Captain of the 9th Lancers. This gentleman, as well as his uncle, "Sir" Peter Payne, claimed the title of Baronet, created in 1737; but their titles were equally defective. See Courthope's 'Extinct Baronetage' (p. 332).

1841, June 30. At Blunham House, Beds, the Rev. Peter Samuel Henry Payne, M.A. Fellow of Balliol college, Oxford. He was the youngest son of the soi-disant Sir Peter Payne, Bart. of Blunham House (pp. 215, 338).

1843, Jan. 23. At Blunham House Bedfordshire, in his 82nd year, Sir Peter Payne, Bart. formerly M.P. for that county. Sir Charles Payne, of St Christopher's, was created a Baronet in 1737; and his son Sir Gillies, the second Baronet, died 1801, when, says Courthope in his 'Extinct Baronetage, 1835,' the title became extinct. After a lapse of 27 years the title was assumed by Peter Payne, esq. claiming to be a legitimate son of the last Baronet. Burke in 'Peerage and Baronetage,' states that Sir Peter "succeeded to the title in 1828, in consequence of a decree of the Court of Chancery, confirming a report, finding him the eldest son born in wedlock of his late father Sir Gillies Payne, of Tempsford, in Bedfordshire." This was the cause Gascott v. Bridges. . . . Sir Peter Payne married in 1789, Elizabeth-Sarah, only daughter of Samuel Steward, esq. by whom he had issue three sons: 1, Charles Gillies, who succeeds; he married Mary, eldest daughter of the late Rev. Thelwall Salusbury, Rector of Graveley, Herts, and niece of Sir Robert Salusbury, Bart. and became a widower in 1840; 2, Robert Henley; and 3, the Rev. Peter Samuel Henry Payne, M.A. Fellow of Balliol college, Oxford, who died June 30, 1841; and four daughters: 1, Maria-Mary, married to Joseph Webster, esq. of Penns, in Warwickshire; 2, Laura-Janet; 3, Elizabeth, married to Charles Barnett, esq. of Stratton Park, Bedfordshire; and 4, Isabella-Emma (p. 94).

1844, Feb. 9. At Bedford, aged 84, Frances, widow of John Macartha Sharpe, esq. Solicitor-Gen. of the Island of Grenada, and sister of the late Sir Peter Payne, Bart. (p. 440).

1845, Dec. 16. In Eaton-sq. aged 61, the Lady Harriet Payne Gallwey, sister to the Earl of Dunraven. She was the daughter of Valentine-Richard the 1st Earl by Lady Frances Muriel Fox-Strangways, 6th dau. of Stephen 1st Earl of Ilchester; was married in 1804 to the late Sir William Payne Gallwey, Bart. and left his widow in 1831 (p. 216, 1846).

ST. JOHN'S CATHEDRAL.

On a white marble slab lying loose on the floor in north transept. It was formerly part of the base of a very handsome mural monument which was thrown down by the earthquake in 1843, since which time it appears to have been neglected. I even saw fragments of it in the fernery of Dr. Freeland at Parham :—

[He] was born [in the ISLAND] of Saint Christop[hers] of an English Family, distinguished for its Loyalty and Public-Spirit. His Education |

[h]e [received in England, and it prepared him [for the] Distinctions which awaited his Return to his native Island, when he was elected a Member | of the HOUSE of ASSEMBLY, and on its first Meeting, unanimously called to the CHAIR of the HOUSE, in which high Situation he gave an early |

Display of those superior Talents and eminent Qualifications, which afterwards secured to him the CONFIDENCE of his KING, and the |

ESTEEM of his COUNTRY. On his return to England, in 1762, he was elected a Member of the HOUSE of COMMONS for the Borough | of Plympton in Devonshire; and from his perfect knowledge of colonial Affairs, he was appointed, in the year 1771, a Period of great | national Interest, to be CAPTAIN-GENERAL and COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF of the Leeward Islands, at which time he was also invested with | the Most-honourable ORDER of the BATH. He remained in the Exercise of his Government until the year 1774, when he returned to England | and was appointed a Member of the BOARD of GREEN-CLOTH. During the Period of his Residence in England he sat in five different Parliaments | and in the Year 1795, HIS-MAJESTY was most graciously pleased to raise him to the Dignity of a PEER of Ireland, by the Style and Title | of BARON LAVINGTON of Lavington. In 1799, he was sworn of HIS-MAJESTY's Most-Honourable PRIVY-COUNCIL, and again appointed | to the CHIEF-COMMAND of the Leeward Iflands; in the wife and able Administration of which important Trust he passed his latter Years | and closed his venerable Life.

This NOBLEMAN

was as revered for his public Qualities as he was beloved for his private Virtues :

He blended the dignity of his high Office with the Affability of his Disposition and the Gracefulness of his Manners, | and at once commanded the Respect and conciliated the Affection of all Ranks of People | within the Circle of his Government.

As a sincere and lasting Testimony of their veneration and Regret, |

The LEGISLATURE of ANTIGUA have erected this Monument. |

He died at the Government-House of this Island, on the third Day of August, 1807, aged 68, and was interred at his Estate called Carliles.

N.B. There is a good account of this monument in 'Antigua and the Antiguan,' vol. i., p. 226, from which I copied the following M.I. :—

(son and heir of Robert Pearne, late of Antigua, Esq., deceased, grandson and heir male of Henry Pearne of Antigua, Esq., deceased), of the one part, and Drury Otley the younger and Charles Lavall Molineux of St. Kitts, Esquires, of the other part, witnesseth that Robert Pearne, in consideration of 5s., sells to Drury Otley and Charles Lavall Molineux all that plantation in the parish of St. Mary Cayon in St. Kitts, containing 120 acres, formerly the plantation of Robert Skerit, deceased, and afterwards by letters patent under the Great Seal of H.M.'s Charibee Islands duly recorded, etc., and in a special verdict found by the jury on the tryal of an action of ejectment brought against William Otley and Elizabeth Otley his wife, and Margaret Willet the younger, on the demand of Robert Pearne in the Court of King's Bench and Common Pleas, held at the town of Basseterre, granted by King William III. unto Henry Pearne therein mentioned, and to his heirs for evermore, and now in the tenure of Patrick Blake, Esq., and late in that of Martin Blake, Esq., and heretofore in that of Ralph Willet, Esq., and bounded at the foot with the common path, to the E. with the lands heretofore of Charles Nephew Francis Hickey and now of [blank], S. with the lands heretofore of Lewis and now of [blank], and W. with the lands of Clement Crook, Esq., and so to its extent to the mountains, and all other messuages and plantations, etc., whatsoever of Robert Pearne or of any person in trust for him in the said parish, and all messuages, pastures, feedings, mountain land, timber, trees, woods, underwoods, with the ground and soil of the same, waters, watercourses, etc., to have and to hold to Drury Otley and Charles Lavall Molineux for one whole year at the rent of a peppercorn, if demanded, to the intent and purpose only that they, by virtue of these presents and of the statute of transferring uses, may be in actual possession, and enabled to accept and take a grant and release of the reversion and inheritance to them and their heirs for ever. No. 4.

Indenture made 19th Dec. 1740 between Robert Pearne of the parish of Evenly, Northants, Esq. (son and heir, etc.), of the 1st part, William Otley and Elizabeth Otley his wife and Margaret Willet the younger of St. Kitts, singlewoman (which said Elizabeth and Margaret are the daughters and coheirs of John Willet, and cousins and coheirs of Ralph Willet, late of St. Kitts, Esq., deceased), of the 2nd part, and William Coleman of London, merchant, of the 3rd part, and Drury Otley the younger and Charles Lavall Molineux of St. Kitts, Esquires, of the 4th part. Whereas in the year 1736 an action of ejectment was brought against William and Elizabeth Otley and Margaret Willet on the demand of Robert Pearne in the Court of King's Bench and Common Pleas, etc., for the recovery from them of the possession of a messuage, 200 acres of land, 200 acres of cane land, and 100 acres of pasture, and 100 acres of wood in the parish of St. Mary Cayon, and the said William and Elizabeth Otley and Margaret Willet having appeared and pleaded the general issue of not guilty, the action came on to be tried the second Thursday in June 1736 when the jury returned a special verdict, and afterwards upon the 15th June 1736 upon arguing the said verdict the Court gave judgment that Robert Pearne the lessee should recover against the others his term in the said 200 acres, etc., but Robert Pearne having released to them his action as to the messuage, and also remitted to them all damages, costs, etc., by him sustained, and also all judgments and executions thereon had, they were acquitted by the Court as to the messuage; and whereas William and Elizabeth Otley and Margaret Willet afterwards brought a writ of error from the judgment before the Governor and Council, and assigned the general error, and Robert Pearne having filed a joinder in error, the writ of error on the 31st Aug. 1737 came on to be argued before the Governor and Council as a Court of Errors, when the former judgment was affirmed with costs on the writ; and whereas William and Elizabeth Otley and Margaret Willet prayed and were allowed an appeal to the King's Most Excellent Majesty which is still depending; and whereas by articles of agreement of the 21st May last past between Robert Pearne, late of St. Kitts, but then residing in London, of the one part, and William Coleman (on behalf of the others), of the other part, reciting as above, it was further recited that in order to prevent any further litigation it was agreed that Robert Pearne should release and confirm all his right, etc., to William and Elizabeth Otley and Margaret Willet in consideration of £1000 sterling, £100 to be paid on the enrolling, and £900 on the 5th Sep. next ensuing in case St. Kitts continues till then in the possession of the Crown of Great Britain, and shall not be before taken by the Spaniards or any other enemy to the Crown of Great Britain, it was witnessed that William Coleman has paid Robert Pearne £100, and on payment of the residue Robert Pearne agrees to make proper conveyances. Now this Indenture witnesseth that Robert Pearne has granted, etc., to Drury Otley the younger and Charles Lavall Molineux the 120 acres, formerly the plantation of Peter Skerit, deceased, etc., as to one moiety to the only use of Elizabeth Otley and her heirs, and the other moiety to the only use of Margaret Willet and her heirs for ever, and William Coleman transfers to Drury Otley and Charles Lavall Molineux and their Ex'ors the said judgments, etc., to the sole benefit of William Otley and Elizabeth his wife, and Margaret Willet.

John Martin, Tobias Lisle, Harry Webb, witnesses.

No. 1.

Indenture made the 20th March 1745 between the above (simply the reconveyance, with the same Attorneys and the same witnesses).

Close Roll, 29 Geo. II., Part 2, Nos. 1 and 2.

Indenture made the 3rd Dec. 1755 between Robert Pearne of Evenly, otherwise Imley, Northants, Esq. (only son and heir of Robert Pearne, heretofore of Antigua, Esq., deceased, who was only son and heir of Henry Pearne, heretofore likewise of Antigua, Esq., deceased), of the one part, and Robert Christian of Antigua, Esq., of the other part, witnesseth that in consideration of 5s. Indenture made the 4th Dec. 1755 as above. Whereas Articles of Agreement were made and concluded on the 20th May 1752 between the said Robert Pearne (only son and heir-at-law of Robert Pearne, deceased), of the one part, Robert Christian, of the other part, by which after reciting that Robert Pearne claimed to be seised of certain lands in the parish of St. Mary in Antigua called Shackerley's Plantation, containing 300 acres, mostly wood and coppice, then in the occupation of Charles Dunbar, Esq., or his tenants, and heretofore (as in No. 2), and also after reciting that Robert Christian had contracted and agreed for the absolute purchase upon the conditions hereinafter mentioned, it was witnessed that in consideration of £500 Robert Pearne did agree to forthwith produce all deeds, etc., whereby it might appear he was seised of a good estate in fee simple, and also that he would (so that he was not compelled to travel above 20 miles from his usual place of abode), at the costs and charges of Robert Christian, convey to him the said plantation, free from incumbrances whatsoever, and Robert Christian did covenant and agree that on the execution of the said conveyance he would pay a further sum of £500 in full satisfaction of the purchase money, and it was agreed that if Robert Christian should not approve of the title Robert Pearne should nevertheless retain the first-mentioned £500, which should be forfeited, and also reciting that Robert Pearne was seised of divers other plantations, etc., in Antigua, but no other lands than those on the 7th March then last in the tenure of Charles Dunbar should be taken as any part of the lands contracted for by Robert Christian; and whereas Charles Dunbar hath by his Attorneys William Dunbar and Thomas Warner, Esquires, by Indentures dated the 10th and 11th July last, conveyed to Robert Pearne the said lands and hereditaments called Shackerleys, to the only proper use of Robert Pearne and his heirs and assigns. 1753, Aug. 14. Micajah Perry, Esq., deceased. Limited admⁿ to Philip Perry of East Greenwich, Esq. It has been alleged by Sarah Heysham, widow, & Gyles Thornton Heysham, Esq., that by Indenture tripartite dated 11 April 1739 between Rob^t Thornton of East Greenwich, Esq., the surviving Ex^{or} of W^m Heysham, of the 1st part, Micajah Perry, then Lord Mayor of London, but late of Epsom, Esq., deceased, & the said Philip Perry of London, merch^t, but since of East Greenwich, Esq., of the 2^d part, & Gyles Thornton Heysham, then of Stagnoe, co. Herts, Esq., of the 3^d part, that in consideration of a marriage intended, & after solemnized, between W^m Heysham & Sarah Perry, one of the daus. of Rich^d Perry, Esq. (now the said Sarah Heysham, widow), £10,000 bank stock was assigned to Rob^t Heysham, Esq., Peter Godfrey, Esq., & Micajah Perry for her joynture, & if she died without issue for the use of her husband & his heirs, & this sum became eventually vested in Edw^d Turnour of Bloomsbury Square, Esq., Micajah Perry, & Philip Perry. W^m Heysham died s.p. & appointed Rob^t Thornton, Rob^t Heysham, Esq., & John Marsh (both since dead) his Ex^{ors}. The £10,000 was ordered by the Court of Chancery to be sold, & the reversion of it was purchased by Gyles Thornton for £6100. Micajah Perry died intestate within 12 months since. Admⁿ on Philip Perry concerning the £10,000 only. Limited admⁿ on of rest of goods passed Nov. 1757.

Close Roll, 20 Geo. II., Part 1, No. 25.

Indenture tripartite made the 1st Feb. 1745 between John Cleland, late of the parish of St. Peter Poor, London, but now of the province of South Carolina, Gent., and Mary his wife (one of the daughters and coheirs of John Perrie, late of St. James's, Westminster, Esq., deceased), of the 1st part, William Hamilton of Lincoln's Inn, Esq., George Barker of St. Paul's, Covent Garden, merchant, and Alexander Hamilton of Lincoln's Inn, Gent., of the 2nd part, and George Moncrieff of Antigua, Esq., of the 3rd part. Whereas by articles of agreement made previous to the marriage of the said Mary with John Cleland, dated the 14th Nov. 1728, between John Cleland, of the 1st part, Mary Perrie (one of the daughters of John Perrie, late of Antigua, merchant, deceased), of the 2nd part, and Richard Rigby, Esq., since deceased, and the said William Hamilton, George Barker, and Alexander Hamilton, of the 3rd part, Mary Perrie did covenant with Richard Rigby and the others that within six months after the solemnization of the marriage she would convey among other things the 3rd part of the messages and lands, etc., hereinafter mentioned to them in trust, and it was further agreed that the said intended settlement should contain a provision that the said trustees might sell, etc., with the consent of John and Mary Cleland; and whereas the marriage was soon after solemnized and Richard Rigby is since dead, but no settlement has been made, and George Moncrieff has agreed with John and Mary Cleland for the purchase of her 3rd part. Now this Indenture witnesseth that in consideration of £1200 sterling paid to William Hamilton, George Barker, and Alexander Hamilton, and of 5s. each to John and Mary Cleland, they grant, etc., to George Moncrieff all that one-third of all that plantation in the parish of St. Mary, Antigua, containing 286 acres, according to an actual survey there taken by John Teatte, Sworn Surveyor General of Antigua, the 25th Feb. 1722, bounded N. with the creek, S. with the lands of John Roe, deceased, now belonging to the heirs of George Jennings, Esq., deceased, and the lands heretofore of John Gamble, deceased, now belonging to Samuel Watkins, Esq., W. with the lands formerly of Charles Callahan, deceased, now in the possession of William Smith, Esq., and E. with the lands of Samuel Martin, Esq., as fully and largely as now claimed and enjoyed by the said John Cleland and Mary his wife, and Richard Rigby, Esq. (son of Richard Rigby, late of Misley, co. Essex, Esq., deceased, by Ann his wife, also deceased, who was another of the daughters and coheirs of John Perrie), and the said George Barker and Dorothy his wife (the other of the daughters and coheirs of John Perrie), their managers, overseers, etc., and all messages, etc., and all one-third part of the following slaves (names given), 25 negro men, 30 negro women, 11 negro boys, and 7 negro girls, and also one-third part of 2 bulls, 15 oxen, 15 cows, 8 bull calves, 3 cow calves, 5 mules, and 1 horse (all named), and of all hoies, etc., to George Moncrieff and his heirs and assigns for evermore; and whereas George Moncrieff hath not only agreed with them but with Richard Rigby and George and Dorothy Barker for the purchase of the remaining two thirds, but owing to the absence of John and Mary Cleland in South Carolina and the others in Great Britain it is not thought convenient to join them to this conveyance, etc., nevertheless for the better and more effectual conveyance, etc., it is hereby covenanted that John and Mary Cleland will at any time hereafter at the request of George Moncrieff join, etc. Peter Ham, J. Crosthwaite, William Stone, Archibald Liddell, Thomas Sumersett, Edward Hughes, Thurston Blackman, witnesses.

1667. Road. Mr. Alexander Pollington, 32 mens land bought of Gowin Hill; also 22½ mens land formerly John Collinson's, and by bill of sale granted by latter.

On 5 May 1685 was read: "The Humble Petition of Alexander Pollington for making out his title to lands in Antigua.

"Sheweth,

"That your Pet^r's ffather being one of the most antient Planters of the Island of Antigua in America, who did expend there at least 3000^l and lost 5 Sons—which all dyed in the said Island and being seized or possessed of a considerable Plantation with a good stock of Negroes and Cattle therein, and having a just Right to two other Plantations Known by the Name of The Body and Fig-Tree Plantation, dyed before he had settled the same: By means whereof the wrongful Possessors still unjustly detain the said Lands; and your Pet^r' very lately understanding that there is some Act of that Country sent over to be confirmed, which will defeat your Pet^r' of a very considerable Estate" prays his Title may be first made out. It further recites that:

"Henry Hunckes Gov^r of Antigua by a Com^a from the Earl of Carlile did by his patent da. 10 Sep. 1638 in the 4th year of that Colony grant to Row^ld Tompson Esq. a parcell of land at y^e Body 2400 paces wide & 1½ miles long & on the following day granted a warr^t for its survey. 400 acres were measured out & the s^d Row. Family of Poyntz.

From 'The Vindication of Collonel General Points, 1648,' it appears that while in command of the seven Northern Counties, as Major-General, he was by the orders of Cromwell and Fairfax forcibly seized on 25 July 1647 at York, where he was residing with his wife and family, and removed from his post.

1651-2, Jan. 12. Surrender of Barbados by the Royalists. Article XIII. That such particular persons as are in this island, together with Sir Sydenham Poyntz, who have estates in Antegoa, may peaceably return thither . . .

"About 5 Dec. 1658, I, Henry Nicoles Survey^r then bounded out for Cap^t W^m Poyntz 100 acres at Soldiers Gut at the sea side on west next to Edw^d Newman & John Cash, drawn from my old field book, 1 Mar. 1677—80."

1679, April 30. Cassava Garden of 1000 acres bounded West with Sir Sydenham Poincs.

1680, July 7. Samuel Hilder and Mary his wife and Henry Steenman and Abigail his wife re a plantation of 300 acres formerly belonging to Captain Robert Poyntz, deceased, who left the same to his said two daughters Mary and Abigail his coheirs. Estate to be equally divided. By the Hon. Valentine Russell, Governor, Lieut. Samuel Hilder and Mr. Henry Steenman, in right of their wives Mary and Abigail, have obtained judgment against Jonas Langford for a plantation called Soldiers Gutt of 100 acres. Warrant for possession. Witnessed by Robert Hamilton.

In 1681 James 4th Duke of Courland entered into a contract with Captain Poyntz, granting 12,000 acres of the Island of Tobago to him and company, upon very advantageous terms. ('Gent. Mag.,' 1781, p. 416.)

Capt. John Poyntz (of the Iron-Acton family) wrote and published: "The present Prospect of the famous and fertile Island of Tobago, etc., with Proposals for the Encouragement of all those that are minded to settle there." Lond., 1683, in 7 sh. in qu. (Wood's 'Athenæ Oxonienses,' vol. iii., p. 715.)

1730, Jan. 13. Samuel Malcher Esq; an eminent Portugal Merchant of London, marry'd to Mrs. Jane Poyntz, only Daughter of William Poyntz, Esq; Brother of Stephen Poyntz, Esq; his Majesty's third Plenipotentiary at the Congress of Soissons. ('Historical Register,' p. 8.)

1731, May 21. Stephen Poyntz, Esq; made Governor to his R. Highness the Duke. ('Gent. Mag.,' p. 222.)

1733, Feb. Stephen Poyntz, Esq; to Mrs. Anna-Maria Mordaunt, and receiv'd £3000 as of Royal Bounty, she having been Maid of Honour to her Majesty. (Ibid., p. 100.)

1735, Jan. William Poyntz, Esq; Brother to Stephen Poyntz, Esq; to the Relict of Sir Thomas Frederick, Bart. ('Historical Register,' p. 8.)

1735, June. The Lady of Stephen Poyntz, Esq; Preceptor to the Duke of Cumberland, deliver'd of a Son and Heir. (Ibid., p. 27.)

To M^r Rich, the second English Governor of S^t Christopher's, succeeded M^r Everard, who continued in the Government, several Years; and by what we can understand, was in that Office when the Rump usurped the supreme Power in England. The Leeward-Islands refusing to acknowledge their Sovereignty, King Charles the II^d. appointed Major General Poyntz to be Governor, and he was in Possession of S^t Christopher's when Sir George Ayscue arrived at Barbados and reduced that Island. After which he sailed to Nevis and S^t Christopher's; but Major General Poyntz not being strong enough to defend himself against the Power Sir George brought with him, withdrew before his Arrival, and ship'd himself for Virginia, the only Retreat for Cavaliers. (Oldmixon's 'British Empire in America, 1741.')

1748, Oct. 15. William Poyntz, Esq; treasurer to the excise and brother to the Hon. Stephen Poyntz, Esq; ('London Mag.')

1807, Nov. 12. At Antigua, Alexander Coates, esq; a gentleman who did as much good to that Island as any one had done for a century. Many individuals might have had their estates out of the possession of their families, had he not stepped forward and paid the mortgages, and allowed them the privilege of sending the produce of their Sugar Plantations where they pleased. The illiberal mind cannot say a word against such a character, as Mr Coates might have placed his money in the British Funds, which would have been of much greater advantage, particularly in the time of War. Money lent as his was worth twelve per cent.; but he had the lawful interest of the Country; and their consigning their crop to whom they chose was an incalculable advantage, and what is unusual on such loans. But the time when Mr Coates shewed himself was in the year 1805, when the Legislature, sanctioned by the late Lord Lavington, Captain-general of the Leeward Islands, etc. allowed the Treasurer a vote of credit for £5000. Mr Coates was applied to; but he did not at that moment think proper to lend it, that it might not be insinuated that he lent it, not by the way of doing good for the Government, but through fear of the Combined Fleets and Armies of France and Spain, who at that time threatened the Island with destruction, and which were making the greatest preparation at Martinique to attack Antigua. Those Combined Fleets and Armies sailed close to Antigua, June 7, 1805; but his Majesty's Troops, the Officers and Seamen of the Royal Navy, who were at that time on the Island, united by the unanimous wish of the Inhabitants, which was much to their honour, turned out, at 2 in the morning, to oppose the Enemy's landing, but they proceeded on Northward. On the 12th of the same month, the late Admiral Lord Viscount Nelson appeared off Antigua, with his gallant ten sail of the line, in pursuit of the 22 sail of the line of French and Spanish ships, besides frigates, etc. However, during the stay in the West Indies of so great a Naval Force of the Enemy, and of Troops to the number of 13,000, the Government of Antigua was under the necessity of incurring considerable expences, by a military encampment of all ranks of the Inhabitants, which lasted 40 days, when the Enemy made their appearance; which, when they did, their timidity was such that they passed by without an attempt to invade. The encampment broke up; Mr Coates then came forward; nor was it the first time that he had assisted the Government. He, now, under the sanction of the late Lord Lavington and the Legislature, lent £10,000, which was double the sum at first requested, and at a time when all danger had blown over. This may be much better seen and known by inspecting the Public Records of Antigua. His Majesty never had a more loyal subject than Mr Coates; and in this particular he set a most laudable example to his family. Until he was infirm with the gout, he was a tall, portly, and elegant person; his face was most manly, and very commanding. He was born April 16 (o.s.) 1734; and the Almighty, whom alone he feared, was pleased to take him from this life, after having sustained an untarnished reputation for 73 years. The great wealth of which he died possessed, except a few legacies, which were immediately paid, he nobly and equally bequeathed to his family. His funeral was numerous and respectfully attended. ('Gent. Mag.', p. 1188.)

1810, June. Lately. At Towcester, R. Coates, esq. of the island of Antigua; a son of the gentleman whose death is noticed in our vol. 68, p. 1188. (Ibid., p. 677.)

Close Roll, 28 Geo. III., Part 8.

Indenture made the 17th Nov. 1788 between George Redhead, late of Antigua, but now of Newman Street, Oxford Street, Esq., and Margaret his wife, of the one part, and James Trecothick, Francis Thwaites, and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright of Bucklersbury, merchants, of the other part. Whereas George Redhead now stands justly indebted unto James Trecothick, Francis Thwaites, and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright in the sum of £5500 sterling for money lent and paid for his use, and they have considerable transactions with him in the West India trade, and a current account is kept open between them; and whereas in the course of future transactions it may happen that George Redhead may have occasion for further sums, and on the balance of accounts may become further indebted, for securing the said £5500, and such further sums, with interest, George Redhead has agreed that he and his wife shall convey to the others by way of mortgage the several hereditaments hereafter described, i.e. a certain estate called Cusacks, and now known by the name of George Redhead's, in the parish of St. Philip in the division of Nonsuch or Willoughby Bay, of which George Redhead is seised in fee, together with the dwelling-house and all the slaves, cattle, sheep, and other stock thereon, and also all slaves belonging to a plantation called Fries in the parish of St. Philip and division of Willoughby Bay which George Redhead or Margaret his wife now are or at any time hereafter may be seised of, and also the crops of sugar and other produce (rum only excepted), both from Cusacks and Fries, and has agreed also to assign to them all his personal estate in Antigua and Great Britain, as hereinafter mentioned. Now this Indenture witnesseth that in pursuance of the agreement, and in consideration of the £5500 now justly due, and for securing the repayment, and for conveying and assigning the plantation, etc., and for barring and conveying the estate, right, interest, dower and thirds of Margaret Redhead, and in consideration of 10s., George Redhead and Margaret his wife convey to James Trecothick, Francis Thwaites, and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright all that plantation called Cusacks, but now George Redhead's, containing 320 acres, together with the dwelling-house and all the live and dead stock, and 87 slaves, now on the plantation called Fries, and all crops of sugar and produce (rum only excepted), and also all personal estate in Antigua and Great Britain, to the only use of James Trecothick, Francis Thwaites, and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright for ever, subject nevertheless to the proviso that if George Redhead do pay the said £5500, and all further sums, and all interest at 5 per cent., on the 17th May 1789, this Indenture shall be absolutely null and void; and lastly George Redhead and Margaret his wife nominate William Dickinson and Edward Rigge, Esquires, both of Antigua, their Attorneys. Philip Wyatt Crowther, Edward Peale, Guildhall, witnesses.

Close Roll, 35 Geo. III., Part 5, No. 7.

Indenture made the 30th July 1795 between Samuel Redhead of Antigua, and of Vere Street, Middlesex, Esq. (eldest son and heir-apparent of George Redhead of Antigua, Esq.), of the 1st part, George Redhead aforesaid of Antigua, but now of Bath, Esq., of the 2nd part, Anthony Munton of London, Esq., Samuel Athill, Esq., and the Hon. Rowland Burton, both of Antigua, and Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright, both of Bucklersbury, merchants, as trustees, of the 3rd part, and the said Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright (as creditors of George and Samuel Redhead), of the 4th part. Whereas the plantation called Fryes in the parish of St. Philip and division of Willoughby Bay in Antigua stands settled and limited to George Redhead for life, and after his decease to his son Samuel Redhead for life, and to his son, successively in tail male, with several remainders over ; and whereas by Indentures made the 16th and 17th Nov. 1788 between the said George Redhead and Margaret his wife, since deceased, of the one part, and James Trecothick, Esq., and the said Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright, of the other part, in consideration of £5500 then due from George Redhead to Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright, George Redhead and Margaret his wife granted to James Trecothick and to them a plantation called Cusacks, of which George Redhead was then seised in fee simple, with the live and dead stock thereon, and also 87 Negro and Mulatto slaves belonging to George Redhead and Margaret, or one of them, which were then on the plantation called Fryes, and did grant to them also the crops of sugars, etc., except as therein excepted, with provision of redemption on payment of the £5500 and all other sums ; and whereas soon after the execution of the Indentures the plantation, etc., became vested in Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright alone, absolutely discharged from the estate of James Trecothick ; and whereas George Redhead did some time since request and direct Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright to allow to Samuel Redhead £300 a year from the consignments of sugar, etc., to discharge certain debts contracted by Samuel Redhead in England, and they did so, although under the Indentures they were entitled to retain the whole amount of the produce towards the diminution of the debt due to themselves ; and whereas in January 1791 they lent to Samuel Redhead upon his own account £1198 18s. 8d., and some time after George Redhead, at the request of his son, directed them to charge the same to his account ; and whereas they have paid other debts on account of Samuel Redhead, and at his like request to his father they are charged to his account, and the sum amounted on the 30th April last to £4369 as Samuel Redhead acknowledges ; and whereas on an account between them and George Redhead on the said date George Redhead is indebted to them in the sum of £8731 11s. 1d., including the £4369, and they have agreed to pay for him several other sums amounting (inclusive of £2000 and upwards, for which they ? have provisionally given bills of exchange) to £4000 and upwards ; and whereas they did a short time since resolve to proceed against George Redhead and the mortgaged premises ; and whereas Samuel Redhead has contracted divers other debts in England amounting to £2000 and upwards, and his creditors have consented to discharge him on receiving bills of exchange, to be drawn by Samuel Redhead and accepted by George Redhead, payable at three years after date, with interest at 5 per cent., and meantime the payment to be guaranteed by Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright if Antigua continue under the Government of Great Britain ; and whereas George Redhead at the request of Samuel Redhead, and in consideration of the counter security and indemnity hereinafter given by him in respect of the money, George Redhead has engaged to pay, did agree to accept the bills, and to allow Samuel Redhead £120 a year for his support and maintenance during their joint lives, and also to concur with him in the arrangement for settling his affairs hereinafter mentioned to have been proposed to Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright ; and whereas to induce Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright to desist from putting into force their remedies for recovering the moneys due to them and to guarantee the bills of exchange, and to secure a provision both for Samuel Redhead during the joint lives of himself and his father, and for George Redhead during his life, Samuel Redhead and George Redhead did lately propose to Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright that if they would provisionally guarantee the bills of exchange, and from the consignments of sugar, subject to the interest of the money due to them, and to the necessary expenses of the plantations, pay unto Samuel Redhead £120 a year during the life of his father, and unto George Redhead £600 a year for life; in such case Samuel Redhead would assign to Anthony Munton, Samuel Athill, Rowland Burton, Francis Thwaites, and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright the said plantation and estate called Fries and the slaves, etc., and Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright have acceded, and George Redhead has agreed to pay £6369; and it was agreed between Samuel Redhead and his father that if the said sum was paid by the latter out of his own proper monies, or if he should die before it was paid, or if with interest it should amount in his lifetime to £12,000, in either case the plantation should be charged with the said sum for George Redhead and his Ex'ors, and in the meantime should be charged with the yearly sum of £600 for the younger children of George Redhead living at his death; and whereas in pursuance of the agreement Samuel Redhead has lately drawn several bills of exchange to the amount of £2000 and upwards upon George Redhead, payable at the end of three years from their dates, and George Redhead has accepted them, and Samuel Redhead by his bond dated the 25th May last is become bound to his father in £12,738 with a condition for making it void. Now this Indenture witnesseth that in further pursuance of the agreement Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright agree from the residue of the consignments to pay to Samuel Redhead £120 a year and to George Redhead £600 a year, but if there is any deficiency in the amount of residue the annuities to be proportionably abated, and if any surplus it is to be retained by them towards the diminution of the money due to them; and further witnesseth that in further pursuance Samuel Redhead in consideration of the premises and of 10s. conveys to Anthony Munton, Samuel Athill, Rowland Burton, Francis Thwaites, and Charles Apthorpe

Wheelwright all that plantation called Fries for 99 years from the decease of George Redhead in trust, immediately after his decease to enter in and take possession and to pay to Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright 5 per cent. on all sums of money not exceeding £12,000, and to Samuel Redhead during the continuance of the trusts £500 a year, and amongst all younger children of George Redhead now born or hereafter to be born £600 a year, as George Redhead shall by deed appoint, and if no other child living than Samuel Redhead, to pay the £600 a year to the Ex'ors of George Redhead during the continuance of the trusts, and lastly they constitute and appoint John Athill and Robert Clogstones, both of Antigua, Esquires, their Attorneys. John Peale, John Inskip, Thomas Hewson, John Coleman, witnesses.

Close Roll, 37 Geo. III., Part 5, No. 2.

Indenture made the 20th July 1797 between George Redhead of Antigua, and of Burton House in the parish of Ringwood, Hants, Esq., of the one part, and Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright of Bucklesbury, London, merchants and copartners, of the other part. Whereas the plantation called Fries in the parish of St. Philip and division of Willoughby Bay stands limited to George Redhead party hereto for life, and after his decease to George Redhead, Esq., his eldest son, a Captain in H.M.'s 18th Regiment of Foot, for life, and to his sons successively in tail male with several remainders over; and whereas by Indentures made the 16th and 17th Nov. 1789, between George Redhead and Margaret his wife, since deceased, of the one part, and James Trecothick, Francis Thwaites, and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright, of the other part, for the considerations therein mentioned a certain plantation called Cusacks was conveyed to the latter in trust; and whereas by Articles of Agreement dated the 1st of May last past between George Redhead, party hereto, and George Redhead the younger, of the one part, and Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright, of the other part, reciting as before recited, and that Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright had from time to time lent to George Redhead divers considerable sums of money, and on making up their account to the 30th April it appeared that the sum due to them was £7216 5s. 7d., independently of divers other sums they had made themselves liable to pay, and reciting that George Redhead, party hereto, had requested them from the consignments of the produce of the said plantation to pay to him £60 per month, and also from time to time to allow for the use of his children so long as he should think proper the following sums, that is to say, for Miss Redhead £30 a year, for Miss Eliza Redhead £30 a year, for the said George Redhead the younger £120 a year, for Lieut. Byam Crump Redhead £40 a year, and for Cusack Redhead £60 a year, and in case it should happen that on the 30th April 1798 the balance due to them should be less than £5000, then George Redhead, party hereto, might be at liberty to draw on them for what sum the said balance should be short of the £5000, provided the accounts of the then ensuing crop should appear to them adequate to the outgoings of the year, and when the debt should be reduced to £4000 George Redhead might be permitted to draw for £80 per month, to be reduced again to £60 when the debt should exceed £4000; and George Redhead had also requested them to discharge a debt due from him in respect of the said estate to the Ex'ors of Charles Kerr, Esq., deceased, as follows, £1000 in Oct. 1797, £1000 in Oct. 1798, and the balance in Oct. 1799 if not more than £1000 sterling; and also reciting that, instead of making further advances, Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright had a right to retain all consignments in satisfaction of their debt, and that having some little time previous resolved to proceed against George Redhead and the mortgaged premises which would have materially injured him, George Redhead, party hereto, and George Redhead the younger, to induce them to desist had proposed that four-fifths of the crops should be consigned to them till the whole debt was paid, and that in the event of the death of George Redhead the younger they should insure the life of George Redhead, party hereto, for the whole amount; and George Redhead the younger had consented to the consignment of the crop in the event of his coming into possession, but with such allowance made to him as is therein expressed, and he had proposed that when the whole debt should not exceed £3000 he should be allowed £20 per month instead of £10 if his father agreed and authorized them to pay it; and it is by the said Articles witnessed that George Redhead and his son, to effectuate the said purposes and in consideration of the premises, covenant to convey, etc.; and whereas in pursuance of the covenant George Redhead the younger, by Indenture bearing even date with these presents, has granted to Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright all that plantation called Fryes, etc., in trust for 99 years from the decease of his father. Now this Indenture witnesseth that for confirming the said Articles of Agreement, with respect to the debt due to the Ex'ors of Charles Kerr and the other considerations Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright agree to pay £1000 in October yearly till the said debt is paid, and to pay to George Redhead the younger £10 per month, to Ann Redhead the eldest daughter £30 a year, to Eliza Redhead £30 a year, to Byam Crump Redhead the second son £40 a year, and to Cusack Redhead the third son £60 a year; and George Redhead, party hereto, in consideration of the premises grants and confirms to Francis Thwaites and Charles Apthorpe Wheelwright all those plantations called Fryes and Cusacks; and lastly George Redhead constitutes the Hon.

Whereas Robert Burnthorn and Abigail his wife are now seised of the said Abigail in their demesne as of fee in right of Abigail Burnthorn, and it has been agreed between Robert Burnthorn, with the consent of his wife, and Anne Goolsby that in consideration of £66 currency to be paid by Anne Goolsby to Robert Burnthorn, they shall manumit the said Abigail and also all her present and future issue. Now this Indenture witnesseth that in consideration of £66 Robert Burnthorn and Abigail his wife manumit, etc., and they appoint William Burnthorn, Esq., and John Harris, Esq., now resident in Antigua, their Attorneys. Close Roll, 50 Geo. III., Part 26, Nos. 8 and 9.

Indenture made the 15th Feb. 1810 between Robert Burnthorn,* late of Antigua, but now or late of the colony of Demerara, Esq. No. 8.

Indenture made the 16th Feb. 1810 as above. Whereas Robert Burnthorn is seised in his demesne as of fee in certain lands, etc., in Antigua, and on the 1st Aug. 1806 did agree to sell them to John Ronan the younger and Richard Garland of Antigua, Esq., for the price of £33,000 currency, and John Ronan and Richard Garland in pursuance of the agreement were then let into the possession and still continue in the possession thereof; and whereas the said lands, etc., are encumbered by mortgages in several considerable sums, amounting to or nearly to their value, and no part of the principal of the purchase hath been paid, nor hath any part of the moneys due on the mortgages been paid by John Ronan and Richard Garland or either of them. consideration of 10s., and also in consideration of £250 sterling, Robert Burnthorn and Abigail his wife convey to Robert Hyndman all that plantation (as in No. 9) to the use of John Ronan and Richard Garland if they pay, and to pay the moneys arising from the same to the discharge of a mortgage made by Robert Burnthorn on the 18th Dec. 1802 to James Donovan, for the payment of £10,000 currency, and a mortgage of the said premises made by Robert Burnthorn to Daniel Sharry on the 29th April 1809 for £5000 currency, and a mortgage made by Robert Burnthorn the 30th April 1805 for £6320 sterling to Warwick Pearson and Robert Hyndman, and a mortgage made the 11th April 1799 by John Elliott the elder and Catharine his wife unto John Duberry, deceased, affecting and being an encumbrance on part of the plantation for securing the payment of £6000 currency, upon which mortgage is only now due £2000 or thereabouts with interest, and upon trust to pay any surplus to Robert Burnthorn and his Ex'ors, but if the said purchase money shall not be paid or accounted for in trust to sell the said lands, etc., and to apply the moneys as before.

The following description of the Royall mansion (Hobgoblin Hall) at Medford, Mass., has been taken from 'Our Colonial Homes,' by Samuel Adams Drake. This house stands at the left side of the old Boston road not half a mile out of the village. "The grounds, once laid out in most correct taste, were separated from the highway by a low brick wall. From the gateway, flanked by tall wooden columns, a broad avenue, bordered with aromatic box, led straight up to the house, situated at some seventy paces back from the road. The space between was embellished with shrubbery, fruit, and shade trees. To the right as you looked toward the mansion was the driveway, with a massive stone gatepost of imposing size standing at either side. . . . Imagine a very large, three-story brick house, sheathed entirely in wood, except at one end, and having, as is customary when the upper story is lower studded, the upper tier of windows smaller than those underneath them. All the spaces below the windows of the east front, toward which I was looking, were filled in with panels, so that from ground to cornice the windows rose in the form of columns. . . . Sufficient unto himself, no doubt, with his gardens, his slaves, and his rich wines, was the old Antigua merchant, Isaac Royall, who came in 1737 from his tropical home, bringing his tropical habits with him, to rear what passed for a palace in his day, in the country village, for such he found it. Isaac Royall the first, the author of this charming country-seat, soon died, and was succeeded by Isaac the second, who inherited the five hundred paternal acres, "turf and twig," with the mansion, human chattels, and other worldly possessions of his deceased sire.

"The carriage-drive terminated at the back of the mansion in a court-yard paved with small, smooth beach stones, through the interstices of which the grass grew thickly. To the right of the drive were the stables, while just beyond the house were the slave-quarters, fronting on the court-yard, which was thus enclosed upon three of its sides. The two-story brick building occupied by the negroes was still remaining, the last visible relic of slavery in New England. The deep fire-place in which the blacks had prepared their food was still there. . . . On the fourth side of the court-yard there rose a high brick wall, similar to that already mentioned, which opened by an arched gate-way into another beautiful garden, in which some of the old box-trees and clumps of lilacs were still growing here and there. A gravelled walk led to the farther end of the garden, where an artificial mound with two terraces had been raised to make a base for a summer-house on which a dilapidated figure of Mercury, minus wings and arms, was poised, unable to fly, unwilling to fall. The garden front of the house overlooked this enclosure, evidently the favorite resort of the family in the cool of the evening. The summer house, a veritable curiosity, displayed much beauty of design, with its panels, its fluted pilasters, and its bell-shaped roof. An artist made the plan for this little structure, now so delightfully ruinous and picturesque. There was a trap-door in the floor, which, when raised, disclosed a cellar, formerly used for the storage of ice, so that beauty and utility were here combined.

"The Royall mansion was modelled after that of a nobleman at Antigua. . . ."

After the battle of Lexington Isaac Royall retired to Boston, and later he "seems to have fully made up his mind to go back to Antigua, but had too long delayed. He now took passage for Halifax; and finally, when Howe, with his long train of refugees, arrived from Boston, he also departed for England, and there died, sighing for his beautiful home in America, and striving to the last, though always unsuccessfully, to avert the forfeiture of his estate

.... Lingering in the entrance hall only long enough to admire the elaborately carved balusters and the panelled wainscot, I first passed into the suite of apartments at the right, the reception-rooms proper of the house. These rooms were separated by an arch, in which sliding doors were concealed; and from floor to ceiling the walls were panelled in wood, the panells being of single pieces, some of which were a full yard in breadth. In the rear of these apartments, and opening to the north, were two alcoves, each flanked by fluted pilasters, on which rested an arch set off with mouldings and carved ornaments....

"The second floor was furnished with four chambers, all opening on one spacious and airy hall. Of these, the north-west room only demands special description, because it was the best. It had alcoves similar to those already mentioned in the apartments below; only, instead of panelling, the walls were covered over above the wainscot with hangings of leather, stamped in gorgeous colors of red, green, and bright gold, with flowers, birds and beasts of Chinese creation. On this side only were seen the original windows, with their heavy frames and small panes, the kitchen, with its enormous brick oven, still in perfect repair, and its iron chimney-back, handsomely embossed with the Royall arms."

In the same book is an illustration of the Pepperell mansion at Kittery on the sea coast of Maine, where Sir William Pepperell, 1st Bart., the conqueror of Louisburg, lived and died. Until the death of the elder Pepperell in 1734 this house was occupied by his own and his son's families. The lawn in front reached quite down to the water, and an avenue of $\frac{1}{2}$ mile in length skirted by trees led all the way to the house of Colonel Sparhawk, a little east of the village church. It used to be said that Sir William could ride to the Saco, 30 miles distant, without going off his own possessions. By his will he made the son of his daughter Elizabeth and Colonel Sparhawk his residuary legatee. The latter took the name of Pepperell, and was created a Baronet; as a loyalist he went to England in 1775, and had his estates confiscated. In Longfellow's Cambridge mansion there is, or was, a portrait of two children, William and Elizabeth Royall Pepperell, by Copley. A picture of the victor of Louisburg, painted by Smeibert in 1751, is in the Essex Institute at Salem. His tomb is at Kittery.

ST. JAMES'S CHURCH, BRISTOL.

On the north side of the altar, beneath a fractured entablature, supported on two Corinthian columns, is this inscription:—

Here lyeth the body of James Russell, Knt., late of Nevis, one of the first settlers in that Island, who was y^e first mayor and colonel there, and after, by commission of King Charles 2nd (bearing date ye 12th day of Sepr. in ye 13th yeere of his reign), appointed governo^r of y^e said Island, and so continued till 1671; by whose wisdom and valo^r (unser God) it was preserved, when that and y^e rest of those islands were endangered by the French and Dutch, in 1666; who, after obtaining leave of His Majesty to come for England, here departed this life y^e 15th day of November, 1674, aged 74 years.

No mention is here made of Lady Russell, but an entry in the church accounts shews that she was interred in the same tomb with her husband:—1677, September 13th. “Received for breaking ground in the chancel for y^e Lady Russell, £1.”

(‘Bristol Past and Present,’ vol. ii., p. 44.)

N.B. The author visited St. James's Church in Aug. 1891, and found that this monumental tablet was placed so high up on the north side of the nave wall, first bay, near the altar, that without the help of a long ladder the inscription was invisible.

KENSINGTON.

Rev. Martin Madan, buried May 8, 1790. Son of Martin Madan, Esq., of Hertingfordbury, near Hertford, member of parliament for Woottonbasset, and Groom of the bedchamber to Frederick, Prince of Wales. His mother was daughter of Spencer Cowper, Esq., and niece of the Lord Chancellor, an accomplished lady, and author of several poems of considerable merit.* Mr. Madan was originally bred to the law, and had been called to the bar; but afterwards quitted that profession, entered into holy orders, became chaplain at the Lock hospital, and a popular preacher. In the year 1780 he published a book called Thelyphthora, which from the singularity of its doctrines, being a defence of polygamy, was much read and talked of when it first came out. It is somewhat remarkable that Mrs. Manley in the Atlantis speaks of Lord Chancellor Cowper as maintaining the same tenets. Mr. Madan published also a literal translation of Juvenal and Persius; Thoughts on executive Justice with respect to the Criminal Law; and some single Sermons. He died at Epsom in the 64th year of his age.

AMORY FAMILY.

Copy of a letter written to Captain Jack Hardtman Berkeley of St. Kitts:—

Dear Sir,—I hope you will pardon a stranger for making some inquiries about my progenitors; I have from circumstances in a measure had imposed upon me the collection of material for the history of my name and family. Captain Train tells my nephew Arthur Amory that you possibly can give me some information about Robert, brother of my grt. grt. gr'dfather Mr Jonathan Amory, who died in Carolina about 1698. They were sons of Robert Amory of Somersetshire, England, & of the sister of Eliot; & their father Robert, we have reason to believe, was the son of the Rev. Anthony Amory or d'Amorie, who died rector of Ashott in Somerset 1620, where he had been rector of the manor of white Chapelle in Bishops . . . in Devon, which estate & other manors went to his gr'ddan. Frances Amory, who mar. Edward Gibbon 1675. Gibbon—who after her death mar. the dau. of Sir Courtenay Pole, at which time he is called "of white Chapell, the paternal inheritance of Frances"—died c. 1709 & was bur. at Tiverton where his monument stands . . . see vol. 7 Collins' 'Peerage,' "Damer," & see Dr Rob. Amory in 'Gent. Mag.,' 1788. My grt. grt. gr'dfather who d. in Carolina 1698 mar. thrice, 1st Rebecca Cunningham of Craighends who d. in Barbados, & was Mother of my grt. gr'df. whose portrait is over my mantel, & whose half-brother thro' her was Alex^r Hamilton of Grange in Renfrew in Scotland, & whose half-sister, by my grt. grt. gr'dfather's 2^d wife Martha, was Sarah who mar. Gov. Arthur Middleton of South Carolina in 1706, from whom all the best people in S. Carolina seem to have descended. The 1st brother of Jonathan & Robert of Antigua—Thomas,* mar. Eliz. Fitzmaurice, dan. of the 19th Lord Kerry, 1667, ancestor of the Gov^t Gen^l of Canada.† He died 1667, leaving an only son Thos. Amory of Bunratty Castle in Clare who died in 1728. Their brother John died in 1733 at the age of 94 in that county. In one of the family letters from Julia O'Connor she says that Robert of Antigua left her brother Tho. Amory of Bunratty Castle £800 a year rental. From this I had inferred that Robert left no Son, but he may have had daus., or the £800 rental may have reverted on Robert's death about 1710 to the main stem, & not passed by inheritance to his children . . . In the family is an old silver pitcher with arms like the Ludwells, left in 1698 by M^{re} Martha, Mother of this Gov. Arthur Middleton, to my grt. gr'df. Thos. Amory . . . Gov^r Clarke was Gov^r of Antigua & had mar. a dau. of Gov^r Ludwell whose 2^d Wife was the Widow of Gov^r Sir W^m Berkeley of Virginia. ? was she Martha Ellis . . .

* Described in Burke as one of the victuallers of the Navy.

† The Marquess of Lansdowne.

‡ I do not think that he could have been Governor.

Robert Ffrench Sheriff, Q.C., Barrister of Inner Temple Nov. 1862; Attorney-General of Leeward Islands 1874, and of Gibraltar 1877—1892.

* This gentleman wrote to me from Barbados 29 March 1895: "I beg to state that I take no interest whatever in my ancestors, and consequently your work is one with which I have no sympathy."

1749-50. From a letter: "As for Billie Sheriffe . . . he lived some time with Mr. Watkins to settle Coll^d Martin's accounts . . . Mr. Watkins thought him honest and sober, but inclined to be idle, he proposes doing business as a town agent."

1866, March 9. At Nevis, West Indies, from the effects of a severe carriage accident, James Watson Sheriff, esq. President administering the Government of that island. The deceased was the representative of an old English colonial family in Antigua, W.I., in which island he had inherited considerable property. He was called to the bar by the society of the Inner Temple in 1838, and soon after his call commenced practice in Antigua, where he speedily became the recognised leader of the bar, and acquired a reputation as a lawyer that was by no means confined to his native island. Mr. Sheriff was elected Speaker of the House of Assembly in 1845, and upon his retirement from that post was voted an address and a donation of 200 guineas; Mr. Sheriff had been previously distinguished for his eloquence as a member of the Assembly. In 1846 Mr. Sheriff was appointed Solicitor-General and in 1848 Attorney-General, in which office he shewed great ability in framing and passing several most important measures of financial and legal reform, for which he several times received the thanks of the Home Government. Upon the retirement in 1856 of Sir Robert Horsford, Chief Justice of Antigua, the greatest dissatisfaction was felt, both by the bar and the public, that Mr. Sheriff was not appointed his successor; and in consequence of this slight, Mr. Sheriff then resigned the Attorney-Generalship and retired from the bar. In 1860 Mr. Sheriff became a member of the Executive Council of Antigua, and in 1864 he accepted the presidentship of Nevis, in the administration of which island he made himself universally beloved. Mr. Sheriff's acquirements as a lawyer were of the first class; as a speaker, he had a commanding presence, a pleasing voice, and considerable eloquence; and he brought the most indefatigable zeal and energy to bear upon whatever he undertook, whether as a lawyer, politician, or administrator of public affairs. Family of Shirley.

Memorial of Major-General Thomas Shirley, Governor-in-Chief of the Leeward Islands, that your petitioner is lineally descended from, and is heir male of, Thomas Shirley of Preston, co. Sussex, Esq. (as appears by annexed pedigree* from the College of Arms), whose 1st son Anthony was created a baronet 6 March 1665. In 1705 Sir Richard Shirley, grandson of the said Anthony Shirley, ob. s.p., and though William Shirley, petitioner's father, became heir male of the said Sir Anthony Shirley as grandson of his brother William, he could not succeed to the title as it was limited to the heirs male of Sir Anthony. Lieut.-General William Shirley, petitioner's father, was appointed Govern^r of Massachusetts in 1741, and in 1745 planned the expedition against Cape Breton under the command of Mr. Pepperell, * Pedigree missing from the Memorial.

† Governor Shirley was superseded in 1756 (Hutchinson's 'History of Mass.', p. 48), but some time after obtained the small government of the Bahamas.

For further information see 'Stemmata Shirleiana,' Horsfield's 'Sussex,' vol. i., p. 171, Berry, and the Visitation of 1634.

a provincial General, and Admiral Sir Peter Warren. They were both made Colonels in the Army and General Pepperell a baronet, but William Shirley declined that title. William Shirley was appointed Commander-in-Chief in North America in 1755 and there lost two sons; one was secretary to, and fell with, Major-General Braddock at Ohio in 1755; the other, a Captain in the Army, died near Oswego; and William Shirley died in 1771 after 40 years' service, leaving petitioner his only surviving son. Petitioner has served in the Army since 1745 at Louisbourg, Minorca, Belle Isle, and as Lieut.-Colonel in Portugal. Petitioner married Anne the granddaughter of Mary sister and coheir of Sir Richard Shirley, in whom the title became extinct in 1705. Asks for the revival of the title in himself.

In a letter of 19 Nov. 1783 he says William Hutchinson, Esq., was his A.D.C. and served as Lieut.-Colonel at Brimstone Hill, St. Kitts.

1786, Oct. 3. Governor Shirley writes that he has heard from his nephew Hutchinson that his name has been put on Lord Sidney's List, and that he has been created a baronet.

1670. Major Smith of Nevis named as a proper person to serve as a Commissioner.

1671, July. Lieut.-Colonel Michael Smith a Commissioner for Sir Charles Wheeler.

1672, July. John Smith then a Member of the Nevis Assembly.

1673, June 11. Petition of John Smith, junr., son of English Smith, deceased, to the King and Council. Petitioner's father possessed two plantations called the Sadhill and Bath Plantations, stocked with sugar canes, cattle, and servants, and a parcel of pasture in Nevis, and died leaving by Will the Bath Plantation to his eldest son Thomas, and 700*l.* to his wife and children, and petitioner sole executor. That said Thomas having set up a Deed of Gift which his father made to him in the usurper's time to keep his estate from being sequestered. His Majesty on petitioner's petition ordered the Governor to enquire into the state of the case, and relieve the parties injured, upon which the Deed of Gift was laid aside and the will proved in 1664. But said Governor being removed Thomas pretended the pasture belonged to the Bath Plantation, and petitioner for the sake of concord permitted him to enjoy it; but not content therewith, on a suggestion that there were several cattle on that ground, he sued for 11 cattle, 2 colts, and a negro boy, and obtained judgment against petitioner in his absence for 25,000 lbs. sugar, though neither ground nor cattle belonged to the Bath Plantation. Prays his Majesty to order the Governor of Nevis to stay execution or award restitution, and that the said Thomas may be sent for over, that both parties may be heard before his Majesty in Council, petitioner being willing to pay cost if judgment be given against him. In margin: "Rec^d June 11, read 12, 1673. Rec^d & read 23 June, '73." Annexed: Order of the King in Council referring above petition to the Council for Trade and Plantations to examine and report to his Majesty what is fit to be done for Petitioner's relief. Whitehall, 1673, June 20.

1673, Aug. 29. Petition of John Smith, son and executor of English Smith, late planter in Nevis, to the King. Recites his former petition. Prays an order to the Governor of Nevis to award restitution to petitioner for the present, and that said Thomas, being now in England and about to transplant himself to New England, may be summoned to appear before his Majesty to make good his title to said cattle if he can, petitioner being ready to put in security as his Majesty shall think fit, to abide judgment and answer all costs. In margin: "Rec^d and read in Council, Aug. 29, '73."

A second petition was presented on 24 Sep. and a third one on 24 Oct., which was followed by—

Order of the King in Council on above petition. That Thomas Smith be required to attend the Board on 21st Nov. to answer petitioner's complaint, whereof he is not to fail at his peril, and that petitioner give 500*l.* security to answer said Thomas Smith's damage by the delay of his voyage, if it be found petitioner had no just cause of complaint. Oct. 31, 1673.

Costs and charges sustained by Thomas Smith, planter, of Nevis, by reason of a petition preferred against him by John Smith to the King, and an order obtained whereby said Thomas was required to attend the Council Board, total 35*l.* 1*s.* 7*d.* besides 100*l.* damage sustained by being stopped of his voyage. In margin: "Rec^d. Dec. 10, '73." (Colonial Calendar, America and West Indies.)

EXTRACTS FROM THE JEAFFRESON PAPERS.

1679, Sep. 9. By the death of Colonel Stapleton (His Excellency's brother) Mountserratt, as well as Antigua, is without a governor. (Vol. i., p. 243.)

1683, Sep. 25. Sir William Stapleton is expected here (London) the next Spring, having obtained leave to come home for a tyme. (Vol. ii., p. 83.)

1683-4, Feb. 12. Sir Nathaniell Johnson is the person that will succeed Sir William Stapleton. (Ibid., p. 99.)

1683-4, March 10. Sir William Stapleton is returning to Europe, of his own free will. (Ibid., p. 111.)

1684, July 1. Mr Blackburne shewed me a letter of your Excellency's wherein I was mentioned, as one of the persons he was to advise with about removing the young gentlemen, your sons, from Camberwell to Westminster Schoole; but I understand the Lady Marsh is too tender of them to part with them to such harsh masters, as the masters of that schoole are reputed to be. (Ibid., p. 118.)

1684, Dec. 6. Sir Nathaniell Johnson makes preparations, as if he designed still for the Generallship; but I am persuaded he will not go till our Generall comes over, and not then, if Sir William Stapleton desires to retourne. (Ibid., p. 157.)

1685, June 6. Sir William Stapleton and all our friends, that were the companions of his voyage, are in good health at present. Our General is very well received by the King, and will probably make his enemies ashamed of the injustice they have done him in his absence. (Vol. ii., p. 202.)

1685-6, Jan. 28. Sir William Stapleton designs to try if the French air will recover his health, and Ensign William Matthews accompanies him into France, and Lady Stapleton goes also, which voyage is intended in the month of March. (Ibid., p. 265.)

1686, Aug. 3. I just now received a letter which brings me the sad intelligence of the death of our Generall, Sir William Stapleton. He dyed and was buried at Paris, to the great loss and grief of all under his government.

1686, Sep. 8. By my last I gave you the sad news of Sir William Stapleton's death, whose lady is now at Camberwell with Lady Marsh. The French priests were very unkind to her, and still detain her sons out of some religious pretence, with no small addition to the grief of her ladyship, who is deprived at once of a husband and her sons. The General was so sensible before he died of the designs of some, that he had entrusted with the execution of his will, that it much discomposed him in his extremity, and he endeavoured to make some alterations, and would have done more, if death had not prevented him. (Ibid., p. 315.)

1686, Sep. 11. The Lady Stapleton is returned; but to add to her sorrow, the French detain her three sons; and unless our King will be pleased to demand them, they will not be permitted to come from the collidge where they are in the custody of men barbarously devout; who were so bloudy zealous, as to send the lady word they had rather stick a dagger to her sons' hearts, and see the blood of them, than that they should go with her to be bred heretics (as they term it), but the young baronet has the courage, that he tells them to their faces, if they keep him for eleven years there, he will never depart from his faith, which is great resolution for one of his age. (Ibid., p. 321.)

Mr. Charles Worthy of Exeter wrote me on 18 Sep. 1888: The Swetes succeeded to Trayne or Traîne in succession to the "Scoos" family, now spelt "Skews," circa 1550. John, who died in 1690, gave a house and land to poor of Modbury by deed dated Dec. 10th, 1684. The Tripes were an old Dawlish family who ultimately settled at Ashburton and built the large Inn there known as the "Golden Inn" for a residence. They represented the Martins, Barons of Barnstaple, as you will see from the enclosed extract of Pedigree which I compiled from Martin de Turon 1666, some time since for my late friend the Rev. H. Ellicombe of Clist St. George. The Swetes also owned an estate called Preston in Ermington Parish.

In 1696 Adrian Swete (Ex'or of Rev. John Swete) was patron of St. Keverne, Cornwall. John Swete was Vicar of this parish 1664 to 1696. In the Registers is recorded the marriage "1621, June 1, Samuel Sweete, Vicar of Rennar (?), to Alice the daughter of Richard Downynge, Vicar of St Keverne." ('Western Antiquary,' 1888, pp. 52 and 88.)

A. S. 27 Sept., 1733.

M. S. 5 July, 1735.

P. S. 15 Feb., 1747.

Near the last, another monument records Mrs. Esther Swete of Train, in the parish of Modbury, who died in January 1781, aged 68, to whose memory this tablet was erected by her only son Adrian Swete, Esq., who died aged 24 years. "Jo^a Swete de Oxton." Arms, as on the last. Crest, A mullet argent pierced, between two lilies (or iris) of the last, stalked and leaved vert.

Close to the above tablets is a hatchment, the field all sable : Arms, SWETE as before, the crest being the same, except that the mullet is gules, pierced or. Motto, In cælo quies. By the side of this is an iron spike, on which a helmet was hung, part of a gauntlet, and the staff to which was fixed the bannerole, which at the time these notes were taken was lying rolled up on the Strachleigh tomb. The bannerole was of canvas, painted black, with on one side the arms of Swete as already given, with the motto "Festinat Lethum," while on the other side is displayed this crest, A mullet or, pierced gules, between two lilies (or iris) argent, stalked and leaved vert. Also the motto "Memento Mori." The helmet was a funeral one, which had found a resting-place, together with a spur, and an actual helmet which may have seen service in the Wars of the Roses, on the tomb with the bannerole.

In the north aisle of Modbury Church are two memorials to this family—one a mural monument for John son of John Swete of Train and Loveday his wife. He was of Exeter College, Oxford, and died 22 August 1690, aged 25 years. Arms, Swete as above. The other is a floorslab commemorating the Rev. Mr. John Swete, late of Train, who died 2nd August 1695. On this stone is cut a shield with these arms: two chevronells between in chief two mullets, and in base a rose; impaling, Per fess, in chief, three towers (Argent, three towers azure, HAVILAND; Argent, three towers gules, CASTELL), in base, on a cross five pheons (Or, on a cross azure five pheons of the first, HARRISON).

Parry alias Syms v. Foy.

Emendat p. Ordin. Cur. Gerend. dat. 18 Feb. 1712.

23 June 1712. Humbly complaining Syms Parry al's Parry Symes of Antegoa, an Infant of about 5 years of age, by Samuel Parry of Antegoa his Father, Nathaniel Carpenter the elder, and Nathaniel Carpenter the younger, both of London, Merchants, his Prochein Amys, that Thomas Symes, late of Winterbourne, co. Gloucester, Esq., your Orator's great-grandfather, deceased, being seised in his demesne as of fee and in the Manor (obliterated) Defford (?) and Hundred of Berwick, co. Somerset, and also of the right of presentation to the Rectory, together with other lands, etc., in Berwick, and also of several other Messuages in the Parishes of Yarcombe and Membury, co. Gloucester, by Indenture dated the 6th Oct. 1666 between the said Thomas Symes of Winterbourne, Esq., of the one part, and Thomas Symes the younger, his Sonne and Heire apparent, and Meriell Horner, Spinster, of the other part, in consideration of the marriage then shortly to be had, did convey the said Manors to the use of Thomas Symes the elder for life, and after his death to Thomas Symes the younger and Meriell, and to their heirs, in Trust for 1000 years to pay £1000 to the younger Brothers of Thomas Symes the younger, and by Indenture tripartite dated 23rd Aug. 1667 between Thomas Symes the younger, of the 1st part, Sir Thomas Bridges of Ravisham, co. Somerset, K^t, of the 2nd part, and Thomas Symes the elder, of the 3rd, reciting as before recited, and by Indentures dated the 19th and 20th June 1669 between Thomas Symes the younger and Meriell his wife, of the 1st part, John Symes their Son and Heir apparent, of the 2nd part, and James Hayes, Esq., afterwards Sir James Hayes, K^t, Thomas Fountaine, Esq., and Walter Foy, Gentleman, of the 3rd part, Thomas Symes and Meriell his Wife in consideration of their natural love and affection for John Symes their Son, and for settling the said Manors, etc., to come and remain in the blood and family of Thomas Symes the Son, and for divers other considerations, did grant and convey the said Manors, etc., to the said Trustees to the use of John Symes and his Heirs male lawfal, and for default to the Heirs of Thomas Symes for ever (will of Thomas Symes recited), and Thomas Symes had issue at his death 14th Jan^y 1681 the said John Symes, an Infant, to whom all the said Manors, etc., descended, but Meriell entered on all and received the Rents in her own right and that of the Infant, who happened to die in 1687 before he attained to 21, upon whose death all descended to John Symes, your Orator's Uncle, as only Son of John Symes of Montserrat, 2nd Son of Thomas Symes the elder, as Heir-at-Law to Thomas Symes the younger, and John Symes the Infant who died without Heirs, and therefore John Symes, your Orator's Uncle, ought to have received the Rents from the death of the Infant, save what was settled on Meriell for jointure, but the said John Symes living beyond the Seas and being a stranger to the said Settlement and Conveyances and the other Transactions aforesaid, which were kept secret from him, nor was he informed thereof till many years after the Infant's death, being himself an Infant at the time, but soon after he had information he came into England and acquainted Meriell that he was Heir-at-Law to the said Thomas Symes the elder, Thomas Symes her late Husband, and John Symes her Son, then all deceased, who did acknowledge him to be the Heir-at-Law, but pretended she had a right to the said Manors for life, but would not discover her title; and your Orator further sheweth that John Symes his Uncle being a Captain in the Army was soon after such discourse obliged to go with his Regiment to Port Mahon, where he died without leaving any issue living, having before he went from Great Britain made his Will (Will recited), soon after making which Will, viz., on the 9th Oct. 1710, he died, and your Orator hoped that the said Will being made when John Symes was of sound mind he should be let in at once to the Manors, but so it is Meriell Syms having got possession of the Deeds, etc., pretendeth sometimes that she is entitled to the whole estate for life and no longer, and sometimes that she hath a conveyance of some part in fee, but refuseth to discover, and insisteth she is at liberty to dispose of the same, humbly prayeth.

Answer of Edward Symes, 3rd Son of Thomas Symes the Father.

Answer of Meriell Syms, Widow, one of the Daughters of Sir John Horner of Mells, K^t. Indenture as in the Bill of Complaint between Thomas Symes and herself, of the 1st part, Sir James Hayes of Beckington, co. Somerset, of the 2nd part, and Thomas Fountaine of Lincoln's Inn, Esq., and Walter Foy of Yeovill, of the 3rd part, and she is seised for life in the said Manors, and saith further she was in her own right till very lately seised of an Estate and inheritance in a part of Norwood Park, co. Somerset, which she no ways settled on her Husband in marriage or otherwise, and which she hath lately conveyed to the Rector and Scholars of Exeter College, Oxon, for a Charity, and hath no other Lands from her late Husband, deceased. Sir Thomas Bridges is dead, and his Ex'ors Harry Bridges and George Radney Bridges have assigned the Trust to Anthony Guidott, and Sir James Hayes and Thomas Fountaine are dead, and she believeth Walter Foy is living, and she doth deny all combination with Edward Symes, or that the Settlement, etc., were kept secret from John Symes, and believeth John Symes may be the Heir-at-Law.

Answer of Anthony Guidott.

Answer of Walter Foy. He was Steward to Thomas Symes the elder and Thomas Symes the younger.

EXTRACT FROM 'BARWICK AND ITS CHURCH,'
BY JOHN BATTEN, F.S.A.

The family of Roger, or Rogers, whose chief seat was at Bryanston, Dorset (see Hutchins's 'Dorset,' i., 250), held Barwick for six generations, extending to the latter part of the reign of Queen Elizabeth, when Sir Richard Rogers, knight, sold the manor and advowson to William Symes, of Chard, merchant.

This gentleman married Elizabeth, daughter of Robert Hill of Poundisford, near Taunton, a very old Somersetshire family, and he was succeeded at his death by his son and heir, John Symes, who at the close of his life left Poundisford for the residence of his son, at Winterborne, in the parish of Frampton Cotterell, Gloucestershire, where he died, and was buried. The remarkable career of this "Somersetshire worthy" is minutely detailed in the monumental inscription to his memory in Frampton Church. It is engraved on a brass plate surmounted with the arms of Symes: Azure, three escallops in pale or; impaling those of Horner: Sable, three talbots passant argent, two and one.

"Here lyeth the body of John Symes of Poundisford, in the Parish of Pitminster in the county of Somerset, Esquire, he was born on the 4th day of March, 1572 (in the 12th year of Queen Elizabeth). He lived soberly, righteously, and godly, and died on the 21st day of October, 1661.

"Reader, thou treadest on the sacred ashes of John Symes, Esq., who in the late unhappy times of rebellion, was forced (for his signal loyalty to his Prince) to leave his former habitation at Poundisford, in the parish of Pitminster, in the county of Somerset, and to seek a repose for his old age in this parish. He was a man greatly renowned for wisdom, justice, integrity, and sobriety, which talents he did not hide in a napkin, but religiously exercised in the whole conduct of his life, especially in the government of that county, wherein he bore all the honourable offices incident to a country gentleman (as Knight of the shire, elected nem. con.), for the Parliaments held at Westminster in the 21st year of King James, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenant for many years, and Justice of the Peace for 40 years and upwards, and as he was careful and solicitous to discharge his duties to God, his sovereign, and his country, so God was pleased to bestow on him several badges (also) of his special favour, as length of days, accompanied with a most healthy constitution of body for above 80 years, and of his mind to the last, as also a numerous posterity even of children and children's children, to the number of 100 and upwards, descended from his loynes (by his only wife Amy, the daughter of Thomas Horner, of Cloford, in the county of Somerset, Esquire).

"And when he was full of days and honor, having lived 88 years 7 months and 17 days, and seen the safe return of his Prince to his crown and kingdom, after a long and horrible exile, and thereby the flourishing condition both of Church and State. Having finished his work on earth, he cheerfully resigned his soul to God that gave it, the 21st day of October, anno domini 1661, in full assurance of a joyful resurrection."

The grandson of this extraordinary old gentleman was Thomas Symes, who resided at Barwick, and obtained, 23 Charles II., a Charter for a second fair, to be held on the 17th of September. He renewed the alliance with the Horner family by his marriage with Merilla, younger daughter of Sir John Horner, of Mells, and died at Barwick A.D. 1681, leaving his wife and only son, John Symes, surviving. There stood against the west end of the north aisle of the church a mural monument to his memory, surmounted with the arms of Symes and Horner as above. On it is the following inscription (Coll. Som., ii., 338):—

"Hic subter sepultus jacet Thomas Symes armiger annos natus 46 a febr. ereptus 22 die Novembris anno Verbi Incarnati 1681; moestissimam reliquit viduam Merillam, filiam natu minorem Johannis Horner de Mells in Agro Somersetsensi equitis auro per quam filium unicum Johanneum et unicam filiam habuit quorum hec infans 6 die Septembris 1671, occubuit, heic etiam sepulta ille, una cum matre supertite monumentum hoc posuit; pietissima conjux, memoriam mariti sui pie colens hunc etiam sui locum sepulchri statuens cum Deo. opt. Max. visum fuerit."

The remains of the mourning widow were, in accordance with her wish so pathetically expressed, deposited by the side of her husband in the vault immediately beneath this monument, but we regret to say that, during the recent restoration, the monument itself has been unceremoniously taken down and shifted to the opposite side of the church, where—the opening words of the inscription being no longer applicable—like another more celebrated one, it "lifts its head and lies." The only extenuation for the offenders probably is that they did not understand Latin.

We cannot refrain from observing that this removal was a clear violation of the law. Whatever may be done by the Bishop, in the exercise of a wise discretion with regard to a monument recently erected without his licence, the law will presume an ancient one to have been lawfully set up, and (subject to rare exceptions) no authority, civil or ecclesiastical, can justify its removal or disturbance, without the consent of the family of the deceased (in this case by no means extinct), to whom it absolutely belongs.

John Symes, only son of the above Thomas, survived his father but a few years. He was intended for the Bar, but was carried off by small-pox, A.D. 1687, when only 20 years of age, and his fond mother recorded his many virtues and talents on a monument erected by her to his memory in Exeter College Chapel. A copy of the Latin inscription will be found in Le Neve's 'Mon. Angl.' vol. iii., p. 91. As this young man died unmarried, Barwick, under a family settlement, devolved, first, on his cousin, John Symes, of Mount Serrat, in the West Indies, and then on his nephew, Samuel Parry, who assumed the name of Symes. His co-heiresses sold it in 1750 to John Newman, father of the worthy gentleman of that name, who enjoyed it for his long life, respected by all who had the good fortune to know him.

As to the registers, the earliest commences in 1560, thirteen years after Edward VI. ordered parish registers to be kept. The following entries occur in one of them:—"Memorandum a pulpit cloak, a cushion, and carpet, given by Merril Symes, lady of the manor, in the year 1708, and a Communion table, bought in the year 1708, likewise. Item: A large silver flagon, given to ye Church of Barwick by Mrs. Merrill Symes, lady of the manor, ye 25th of December, in ye year 1709, having her cress engraved thereon. Memorandum: A gallery set up in the year 1709, at the charge of the singers, with consent of Merril Symes, lady of the manor of Barwick, and Mr. Sydenham Burch, Mr. William Pearse, rector, and George William, churchwarden, and on consideration of its being an ornament to the Church they do agree and own it to be their own as land for them for ever, and their heirs after them without obstruction."

Several entries relate to the family of Horners, whose chief seat was at Mells, in this county, and who, as we have seen, became connected with Barwick by the marriage of Merilla, daughter of Sir John Horner, Knight, with Thomas Symes, of Barwick, Esquire, who died 1681. John Horner, a nephew of Merilla, married Ann, one of the two daughters and co-heiresses of Edward Phelps, of Preston Plucknett, Esquire, and took up his residence at Barwick.

Indenture made the 19th Jan. 1802 between Richard Tyrrell Barnes of Crown Court, Princes Street, Soho Square, Esq., of the one part, and David Sands of Winch (?) Street, Pall Mall, Esq., and Richard England of Leicester Square, Esq., of the other part, witnesses that in consideration of 5s. Richard Tyrrell Barnes sells to David Sands and Richard England all that plantation called Tyrrells or Orleans in Antigua, and all slaves, cattle, and stock which were devised to Richard Tyrrell Barnes by the will of Richard Tyrrell, Admiral of the White, for one whole year. Harry Thomas King and Jonathan Lodge, clerks to Messrs. Shawe, New Bridge Street, witnesses.

No. 14.

Indenture made the 20th Jan. 1802 between Richard Tyrrell Barnes, of the one part, and David Sands and Richard England, assignees of his estate and effects by virtue of an Act of Parliament passed in the 38th year of his present Majesty for the relief of certain insolvent debtors, of the other part. Whereas by virtue of the last will of Richard Tyrrell, late of Antigua, Rear-Admiral of the White, dated the 20th Feb. 1765, Richard Tyrrell Barnes is entitled to an estate tail in the plantation called Tyrrells or Orleans; and whereas Richard Tyrrell Barnes in October 1797 obtained his discharge under the said Act, and David Sands and Richard England were appointed assignees of his estate for the purposes of the Act; and whereas Richard Tyrrell Barnes is indebted to David Sands £200 for money advanced since the passing of the Act, with some arrears of interest thereon; and whereas Richard Tyrrell Barnes has agreed to convey the said plantation late of Richard Tyrrell, deceased, to David Sands and Richard England for the purposes hereinafter mentioned, the same not having effectually passed to them under the Act. Now this Indenture witnesses that for docking and destroying the estate tail of Richard Tyrrell Barnes and all remainders, and for vesting the same in fee simple in David Sands and Richard England, and in consideration of 10s. Richard Tyrrell Barnes sells to David Sands and Richard England in their actual possession being all the said plantation, slaves, cattle, horses, mares, and mules, and to their heirs for ever, subject only to such claims as may be made against the plantation under the will of Richard Tyrrell, deceased, in trust nevertheless to cultivate and manage the plantation and slaves as they shall think most advantageous, and to employ Attorneys in Antigua, and to consign and dispose of the crops, and from the moneys received in the first place to pay all expenses connected with the plantation, and subject thereto to divide the residue amongst the persons entitled to receive a dividend and distribution of the effects of Richard Tyrrell Barnes already vested in David Sands and Richard England, and especially to deduct the money owing to David Sands, and after full payment of all in trust to convey the plantation to the use of Richard Tyrrell Barnes, his heirs, Ex^{ors}, etc. for ever; and lastly Richard Tyrrell Barnes, David Sands, and Richard England constitute Rowland Burton, Samuel Athill, John Athill, and Richard Oliver Athill of Antigua, Esquires, their Attorneys.

Close Roll, 55 Geo. III., Part 7, No. 11.

Indenture made the 11th May 1815 between Sir John Tyrrell of Boreham House near Chelmsford, Essex, Bart., and Dame Sarah his wife, of the one part, and Charles Cheshire of Antigua, Esq., Master Attendant of H.M.'s Naval Yard in Antigua, of the other part. Whereas by Articles of Agreement made at Antigua the 6th Oct. 1814 between Sir John Tyrrell and Dame Sarah his wife (by the Hon. Samuel Athill of Antigua, Esq., their Attorney), of the 1st part, the said Hon. Samuel Athill, of the 2nd part, and Charles Cheshire, of the 3rd part, Sir John Tyrrell and Dame Sarah did agree to sell to Charles Cheshire absolutely in fee simple a piece of land in the parish of St. Paul and division of Falmouth called Buckshornes, and formerly cultivated as a sugar plantation, containing 200 acres, bounded N. with land heretofore of Admiral Richard Tyrrell, deceased, E. by land late of Captain Grant Gordon but now of Margaret Harcum, S. by the lands of the said Samuel Athill and the devisees of Mary Willis, deceased, and W. by the lands then or late of William Maxwell, and all buildings, etc., thereon, and also three negroes, for the sum of £1500, to be paid by one bill of exchange of £600 drawn by Charles Cheshire on Messrs. Cook and Halford of Norfolk Street, London, merchants, and payable at thirty days sight to Alexander Bolt of Antigua, Esq., or his order, to be indorsed by him, and another bill of exchange of £900 drawn as above and payable at eight months to Alexander Bolt, Charles Cheshire having on the 6th Oct. delivered to Samuel Athill the two bills. This Indenture witnesseth that for the above considerations Sir John Tyrrell and Dame Sarah his wife grant to Charles Cheshire the piece of land aforesaid, and to his heirs for ever, and they appoint Alexander Bolt, Esq., and the Hon. Samuel Athill, Esq., their Attorneys. John Jessopp of Clifford's Inn, William Lyddon, Carey Street, Lincoln's Inn, witnesses.

Tankard Esq. who

the 10 Day of July Anno Domini
1726 Aged 58 years.

WESTMINSTER ABBEY.

Arms (sculptured and painted): Ermine, on three bars gules seven crosses palee, three, three, and one, in chief a demi-lion issuant out of the second. (Neale's 'History of Westminster Abbey,' vol. ii, p. 236.)

Sacred to the Memory of RICHARD TYRRELL, Esq. who | was descended from an Ancient Family in Ireland, and died Rear | Admiral of the White, on the 26th day of June, 1766, in the | 50th year of his Age. Devoted from his Youth to the Naval | Service of his Country, and being formed under the Discipline, | and animated by the Example of his renown'd Uncle St Peter | Warren, He distinguished himself as an able and Experienced | Officer, in many Gallant Actions; particularly on the 3^d of | Nov^r 1758, when commanding the Buckingham of 66 Guns | and 472 Men, he attacked and defeated three French Ships of | War, one of which was the Florissant of 74 Guns and 700 | Men: but the Buckingham being too much disabled to take | possession of her, after she had Struck, the Enemy, under | cover of the Night, escaped. In this Action he received several | Wounds, and lost three Fingers of his Right Hand. Dying | on his return to England from the Leeward Islands, where he | had for three Years commanded a Squadron of his Majesty's | Ships, his Body according to his own desire was committed to | the Sea, with the proper Honours and Ceremonies.

One of the most curious monuments, perhaps, in the Abbey is that near the cloister door, in the south aisle of the nave. It commemorates Vice-Admiral Richard Tyrrell, commander of the Buckingham, who died in 1766, whilst on his return to England from the Leeward Islands, after an engagement with the French. His body, the inscription informs us, "according to his own desire, was committed to the sea, with proper honours and ceremonies." "To comprehend this monument," says Mr. Malcolm, "the spectator must suppose himself in a diving-bell at the bottom of the sea. When he has shaken off the terrors of his situation he will find on his right hand the Buckingham, of sixty-six guns, jammed in a bed of coral. Directly before him he will perceive a figure pointing to a spot on a globe, either intending to shew where the deceased body was committed to the deep, or the latitude where an action mentioned in the inscription was fought." The figures introduced into this piece of monumental composition are History, Navigation, and Hibernia; they are represented among the rocks, with the sea above their heads; above all is the Admiral himself, ascending amidst heavy clouds—the latter being highly suggestive of ill-made pancakes. ('Old and New London,' by E. Walford, vol. iii., p. 417.)

Whereas Jacob Thibou the elder made his last will the 28th Nov. 1741 and did give to Jacob Thibou his son all residue of his real and personal estate, but if Jacob died before 21 or having attained to 21 without issue, testator gave all to his daughter Rachel, now wife of Thomas Jarvis, and to her heirs for ever; and whereas Jacob Thibou intermarried with Esther, and after the marriage attained to 21 and became seised in tail general of the real estate devised subject to the dower of his mother, widow and relict of Jacob Thibou his father, now wife of Francis Delap of Antigua, Esq.; and whereas Esther Thibou on the death of her husband became dowable in $\frac{2}{3}$ of the said real estate; and whereas Stephen Blizard of Antigua, Esq., hath in pursuance of authority given him by George Blount come to an agreement with Thomas Jarvis to lease the dower of Esther to him for her life at the rate of £580 currency a year. JOHN TOBIN.

Born in the house now occupied by Mr. Foot, solicitor, in Endless Street, January 26, 1770. His father had been destined for one of the liberal professions, and his mother was the daughter of Mr. Webb, an opulent West Indian, who then resided in the Manor House at Stratford. At the commencement of the American war Mr. Tobin repaired to Nevis, to take charge of an estate in that island, which had been resigned to him on his marriage by his father. He left the subject of this article, and two brothers, under the care of their maternal grandfather, Mr. Webb, by whom they were placed in the school of Dr. Mant, at Southampton. Even at this early period young Tobin evinced a decided taste for dramatic representations.

On the conclusion of peace in 1783, Mr. Tobin returned to England, and settled in a mercantile business at Bristol; and his father-in-law in consequence removed to Redland in the neighbourhood. In the ensuing year John Tobin was articled to Mr. Wildman, an eminent solicitor in Lincoln's Inn. He passed through his clerkship, without acquiring a partiality for his profession, and devoted his leisure to the cultivation of literature, especially poetry.

On the expiration of his term he was admitted into partnership with his late master. His inclination for the drama became, however, still more decided. He composed several pieces, and was subjected to all the mortifications, difficulties, and disappointments, which generally await the early efforts of a writer for the stage. At length, in 1803, he obtained for a farce entitled "All's fair in Love," the honour of a representation; but it was coldly received. He however persevered, and, by the influence of Mr. Wroughton, procured the acceptance of "The Honey Moon," to which he owes his reputation. At this period his constitution suffered from the effects of his studious and sedentary habits. He spent the winter in Cornwall, for a change of air and scene; but the appearances of consumption becoming more marked and alarming, he was induced to undertake a voyage to the West Indies. He embarked at Bristol, with aggravated symptoms, in the latter end of 1804, and sailed to Cork. From thence he took his departure on the 7th of December; and the first night proving boisterous, exhausted the sinking powers of his enfeebled frame. On the ensuing morning he was found dead in his bed, and his remains were carried back for interment at Cork.

"The Honey Moon" was represented at Drury Lane on the 31st of January following, and received with that applause, which it has never since failed to call forth. Subsequently his other productions were offered to public notice. "The Curfew," was acted in 1806; "The School for Authors," in 1808; and "The Faro Table," in 1816; but all without attaining that rank which was at once assigned to his principal composition.

(Miss Benger's Memoirs of Tobin in Hoare's 'History of Wilts,' vol. vi., p. 653.)

Mr. Fitzgibbon Trant of Dovea, co. Tipperary, informs me that: "Sir Patrick Trant having left Ireland with James II. his estates were confiscated and all records lost. We believe he was one of a very large family located in the County Kerry. My great-grandfather Dominick Trant mentions in one of his letters the amount of income he received from his 'cozen' in the West Indies—some £700 a year, and he also mentions meeting his relation Mr. Trant of Montserrat during a tour on the Continent about 1759.

"There is still an estate in St. Kitts called Trant's Estate, now held by the Rev. William R. C. Adamson, but by a deed dated 6 Oct. 1775 Dominique Henry Trant and Sarah Blake conveyed this estate in trust to Sir Richard Neave, Bart., and John Willet. In the 'Last Colonel of the Irish Brigade,' by Mr. M. J. O'Connell, are to be found some notes and a pedigree of the Trants prior to Sir Patrick Trant, and in King James II. army list (infantry) are to be found some more particulars."

Close Roll, 11 Geo. IV., Part 10, No. 11.

Indenture made the 21st April 1830 between John Paine Tudway of Wells, co. Somerset, Esq., of the 1st part, Robert Charles Tudway, Esq., of the same place, his son and heir apparent, of the 2nd part, the Rev. Richard Thomas Whalley, late of Henstridge, but now of Yeovilton in the said county, Clerk, of the 3rd part, William Wilkins Dyne of 61 Lincoln's Inn Fields, Gentleman, of the 4th part, and the Hon. Samuel Athill, the Hon. Nicholas Nugent, M.D., George Weatherill Ottley, Esq., and John Freeland, Esq., all of Antigua, of the 5th part. Whereas Clement Tudway, late of Wells, Esq., duly made his will, dated the 22nd Dec. 1814, will recited, and the will was duly proved by Edward Foster and Richard Thomas Whalley; and whereas Edward Foster and John Holloway have departed this life; and whereas Robert Charles Tudway is the eldest son of John Paine Tudway and was born at his house in Wells on the 4th July 1808 and was baptized in the parish church of St. Cuthbert in Wells on the 20th Sep. 1808; and whereas by virtue of an Indenture dated the 6th July 1829 and of a common recovery suffered in performance thereof in Trinity Term now last past, wherein William Wilkins Dyne was tenant, Edwin Lovell demandant, John Paine Tudway first vouchee, and Robert Charles Tudway second vouchee, it was witnessed that by force thereof certain farms, etc., were assigned to the use of the persons mentioned and to such uses as John Paine Tudway and Robert Charles Tudway should appoint, with power of revocation and new appointment by them during their joint lives, and by the said Indenture it was witnessed that for barring and destroying all estates tail and remainders and for the nominal considerations mentioned Richard Thomas Whalley and John Paine Tudway and his son did grant and convey to William Wilkins Dyne all those plantations to the like uses and trusts; and whereas it is apprehended that some difficulty may hereafter arise in proving the time of birth of Robert Charles Tudway and that he was of age at the time of the hereinbefore recited Indenture, the persons who can testify to such facts being few in number and of advanced ages, it has therefore been agreed that a new bargain and sale of the said plantations shall be executed. Now this Indenture witnesseth that in conformity with an Act of the Leeward Charibbee Islands, and in consideration of 5s. each, John Paine Tudway, Robert Charles Tudway, and Richard Thomas Whalley convey to William Wilkins Dyne all that plantation in the division of Old North Sound and parish of St. Peter, Parham, called Parham Hill Plantation, and all those slaves as by three schedules annexed, and lastly they constitute Samuel Athill, Nicholas Nugent, George Weatherill Ottley, and John Freeland their Attorneys. Of the musical composers living in Anne's reign . . . there was Tudway, who composed an anthem ("Thou, O God, hast heard my Vows") on the occasion of Queen Anne visiting the University of Cambridge in 1705, which gained him his doctor's degree, and he was afterwards made public Professor of Music to that university, where he was longer remembered for his punning proclivities than for his musical talents. (Ashton's 'Social Life in the Reign of Queen Anne,' vol. ii., p. 35.)

From the Royal African Accounts it appears that Richard Tudway was in 1700 Master of the ship "Codrington."

Close Roll, 5 Geo. II., Part 7, No. 21.

Indenture made the 16th Nov. 1730 between Frederick Voguell of London, merchant, and Frances Voguell his wife, of the one part, and Richard Oliver of Antigua, Esq., of the other part. Whereas by Indentures of Lease of 4th Nov. 1730 tripartite between Frederick Voguell and Frances Voguell his wife (daughter and only child of Thomas Vaughan, late of Mills, Berks, Esq., deceased, who was son and heir of James Vaughan, Esq., deceased, formerly Lieut.-Governor of Antigua), of the 1st part, Richard Oliver, Esq., of the 2nd part, Gilbert Fleming of St. Kitts, formerly of Antigua, Esq., of the 3rd part, Frederick Voguell and Frances his wife demised to Richard Oliver, among other lands, all that Roger Williams's plantation, containing 470 or 500 acres, in St. John's and New Divisions in Antigua, bounded N. with the lands formerly sold by James Vaughan to Thomas Duncombe, S. with the lands formerly belonging to Luke Child and John Coker, now or late in the possession of William Horne, W. with the lands formerly of one Fletcher, now or late possessed by Samuel Martin, Esq., E. with the lands formerly of John Lucas and John Traverse, but now or late in the possession of Edward Byam, jun., Esq., and the heirs of one Penny, deceased, to hold from the 17th Aug. then last past for 21 years, with a covenant to leave on the premises all works, buildings, etc., mentioned in a schedule annexed to the Indenture, valued at £111 currency; and whereas the title of the said demised plantation has been but lately recovered at law in Antigua by Frederick Voguell and Frances his wife from William Gregson of London, Gentleman, under an intail thereof created by the last will of James Vaughan aforesaid, deceased, dated 14th Oct. 1681, and on which recovery William Gregson has brought a writ of error before the Commander-in-Chief of the Leeward Islands and the Council of Antigua, upon which writ of error and the judgment to be given an appeal is intended to be brought to the King in Council by either party against whom the Commander-in-Chief and Council shall give judgment; and whereas it is agreed by the Indenture of Lease that if it is finally determined on the appeal that the title is not in Frederick Voguell and Frances his wife (in right of Frances) but in William Gregson and his heirs, who claim the same under Roger Williams, formerly of Antigua, planter, that the intail created by James Vaughan's will is sufficiently docked and barred, then the said lease shall be void from the beginning; and whereas Richard Oliver is minded to build a windmill and also, if he shall then proceed, to erect a convenient and necessary small dwelling-house, which will be to the advantage of Frederick and Frances Voguell, but it is not provided for by the lease. Now this Indenture witnesseth that in consideration of the said Indenture of Demise and of 5s. Frederick Voguell and Frances his wife agree to pay to Richard Oliver the half part of the full value of such erections, the value to be settled by four indifferent men which shall be then inhabitants of Antigua, and if the appeal confirms the right of Frederick and Frances Voguell, then the lease to Richard Oliver to remain in force.

[A copy of above deed was recorded at Antigua in Libro Y, and it is therein stated that the estate was leased for £200 sterling a year.]

Indenture made the 3rd July 1755 between Richard Cleeve of Cornhill, London, merchant, Citizen and Freeman, and Elizabeth his wife, of the one part, and Anthony Furstenuau and George Edward Pakenham, both of London, merchants, of the other part, witnesseth that in consideration of 5s. Richard and Elizabeth Cleeve grant, etc., to Anthony Furstenuau and George Edward Pakenham all those three undivided sixth parts, making one full moiety, of Roger Williams's plantation, containing 470 or 500 acres, for one whole year. Indenture made the 4th July 1755 between the above. Whereas by articles tripartite made the 2nd June 1752 between Richard Cleeve, of the 1st part, Elizabeth Voguell of London, spinster (one of the children of Frederick Voguell, late of London, merchant, by Frances his wife, both then deceased), of the 2nd part, and Anthony Furstenuau and George Edward Pakenham, of the 3rd part, reciting that a marriage was then intended to be had and solemnized between Richard Cleeve and Elizabeth Voguell, and that Frederick Voguell in his life-time had by Indentures of Lease and Release made the 7th and 8th June 1734 granted and conveyed to Henry Voguell, deceased, among other things, the several freehold plantations, etc., therein mentioned, in Antigua to him and his heirs, upon the several trusts therein mentioned, and particularly upon the trust, either by sale or from the rents and profits, to raise and pay two third parts of a debt of £15,700 then due from him and his then late partner Frances Strongfellow,* widow, since deceased, to whom, as therein mentioned, he demised the said premises for 1000 years for securing repayment with interest at 4 per cent., and Henry Voguell had become bound to Frances Strongfellow for the payment, and also reciting that Henry Voguell did make his last will dated the 12th June 1746 (recited), and also reciting that the money advanced by Henry Voguell in his life-time and by his Ex'ors since his death amounted to £21,000, and that Elizabeth Voguell had then attained to 21 and was thereupon become seised of three-sixths of the said several freehold plantations, etc. (subject to such right and equity of redemption as Henry Voguell (son and heir of Frederick) might possess), and in consideration of the marriage she agreed to convey to Anthony Furstenuau and George Edward Pakenham all those her three-sixth parts in trust; and whereas the marriage soon after took effect, and the said recited articles were sent to Antigua to be recorded, but being delayed in the passage did not arrive within the time prescribed by the Acts for Registering Deeds after the execution thereof; and whereas it is necessary that the articles should be carried into execution by a proper conveyance. Mr. Cornelius Vaughan is named in a will of 1703.

1728, Sep. 17. Dy'd Thomas Vaughan, Esq.; of — near Windsor in the County of Berks, formerly a Turkey Merchant. ('Historical Register,' p. 51.)

Francis Fane, Esq., reports on 16 Oct. 1780 re an Act concerning Vaughan's estate of which he strongly disapproves, * St. Mary Aldermary. Mar. 1707, Oct. 28, William Strengfellow, Rector of St. Dunstan's in the East, single man, & Frances Bodington of the same parish, single woman, by Licence.

because the plantation was sold without the sanction of the mortgagor. He recites the will of James Vaughan, Esq., and goes on to say that his widow married William Williams and by deed quadruplicate of 10 and 11 Feb. 1696 between Thomas Vaughan, son and heir of James Vaughan, Esq., William Williamson and Elizabeth his wife, of the 2nd part, Roger Williams, of the 3rd part, and Joseph French, of the 4th part, Thomas Vaughan and William Williamson and Elizabeth his wife for £500 conveyed to Roger Williams the said plantation. (This was a mortgage.) Roger Williams in 1713 owed £1200 to William Gregson, and mortgaged the estate to him. Roger Williams by will left it to Allen Smith and William Gregson. (B. T. Leeward Islands, vol. 21.)

[The Act for the sale of these lands was evidently negated by the King, as Mrs. Frances Voguell in 1730 stated that she had just succeeded in recovering possession of them. Francis Fane was the legal adviser to the Privy Council and all Acts, etc., passed through his hands, the King and Council acting on his written report.—V. L. O.]

THE VERNON FAMILY.

Mr. Urban,—I should be much obliged to any of your correspondents who may be able to give me some particulars respecting the family of Vernon of Antigua, formerly of Egham, Surrey, St. James's, Westminster, and Lombard Street. My father (whose eldest son I am) is the present representative of this family. The Antigua estate was a grant, made in 1664-5, by Lord Willoughby of Parham, and Sir W. Stapleton, Captain-General of the Leeward Islands, to my ancestor Colonel John Vernon, an officer in the Royalist Army. The chief matters concerning which I desire information are:—1. The Christian name of this Colonel Vernon's father. 2. The name of Colonel Vernon's first wife. 3. The name of his eldest son's wife. From what I gather from family records I think these two latter names are two of the following: Boyle, Carew, Clifford, Moore, Phipps, Duncombe, Robartes, Hedges, Berkeley. Manning and Bray in their 'History of Surrey,' mention the old mansion of this family, Little Foster Hall, now called Egham Lodge, as "belonging to the Vernons formerly." Little Foster Hall or Egham Lodge was in the possession of my great uncle, James Vernon, at the time of his death, and soon after my grandfather came into the property in the West Indies, Little Foster Hall seems to have ceased to belong to the Vernons; it subsequently became the property of a Mr. Blythwayte. The arms of this family are, Or; on a fesse azure, three garbs or; crest, on a wreath or, a demi-figure of Ceres, habited azure, crined or, holding a garb or in the sinister arm, and a reaping-hook in the dexter hand. Motto "Ver non semper vires." The above-named Colonel John Vernon was born about 1610, and died in 1689 (I think in the West Indies, for I cannot find his will at Doctors' Commons). His second wife was Elizabeth Everard, widow of Thomas Everard, Governort of the Leeward Islands. His eldest son by his first wife (whose name

* If I recollect rightly this Map was shewn to me by the Hon. Thomas D. Foote at Parham Hill.—V. L. O.

† This is incorrect. A Colonel Clement Everard, perhaps father of Thomas, was Lieut.-Governor of St. Kitts in 1659.

I wish to discover) was John Vernon, born 1650, died 1704, concerning whom I find the following among family records:—John Vernon, Esq., of Golden Square and Antigua, died at his house in Golden Square, 1704. Will in Doctors' Commons, proved in November 1705. The Antigua estate is therein devised to his eldest son John, a third of the nett profits being left annually to his wife Elizabeth (who died in 1737). The said John Vernon was a cousin of Mr. James Vernon, Secretary of State to King William III., and father to Admiral Vernon,—and his funeral was attended by Lord Radnor, Mr. Secretary Vernon, Mr. Vernon of the Exchequer, Sir Charles Hedges, and Mr. Constantine Phipps of the Temple. A list of the same, in the handwriting of the said John Vernon, is in the hands of a Mr. Martin of the Heralds' Office. The Executors of this John Vernon were Sir William Mathew, K.B., Colonel Rowland Williams, Colonel Edward Byam, Major Edmund Nott, Archibald Hutchinson,* and Nathaniel Carpenter. This John Vernon had by his wife Elizabeth (whose surname I wish to ascertain) three sons and two daughters. The eldest son, John Vernon, born in 1696, died 1765, was I believe a colonel in the army, and was a privy councillor for Antigua. He married (1) Anne Lyons, only daughter and heiress of George Lyons, of Lincoln's Inn, and of Gloucestershire, by Magdalene, daughter of Sir Marmaduke Rawdon of Hoddesdon, Herts. Their four sons and three daughters all died s.p. One of the sons, James Vernon, succeeded to the estate in 1765, but died s.p. in 1769, having married Margaret Gascoyne, daughter of Sir Crisp Gascoyne of London, and sister of Bamber Gascoyne, M.P. for Truro, and high steward of Southwark, etc. John Vernon (1696—1765) married (2) Elizabeth Weston, who died in 1760, and was buried at Paddington Church. They had two sons and two daughters. The eldest son, Robert, died s.p. The second John Joseph James Vernon, born 1744, died 1823, succeeded in 1769 to the estates. He was a captain in the 4th Dragoons. He married (1) Mary only dau. and heiress of the Rev. Randal Andrews, vicar of Preston, Lancashire, and by her had nine children, who all died s.p. except the eldest son, John Vernon, born 1773, died 1859, a lieutenant-colonel in the army (23rd Fusiliers, and subsequently 18th Hussars). He married (2) Hannah, daughter of Miles Mason, Esq., of Westhouse, Dent, Yorkshire, and by her had thirteen children, of whom the eldest son, William Vernon, M.A. in holy orders, and formerly Vicar of Littlehampton, and of Patcham, Sussex, is now the head of the family. Lieutenant-Colonel John Vernon, married Elizabeth Grace Casamajor, daughter of Justinian Casamajor, Esq., of Potterells, Herts; but their three sons, John, Justinian (a captain in the 15th Hussars), and George James (a captain in the 8th Hussars), all died s.p. The executors of John Vernon (1696—1765) were Sir Edmund Thomas, Bart., of Wenvoe Castle, Glamorganshire, Charles Spooner, and the Rev. Martin Madan of St. Christopher's, West Indies, and W. Brown, of Cursor Street, Middlesex. The two sisters of this John Vernon married respectively, Thos. Hurst, Esq., of Stamford, and William Oxenden, Esq., of Kent. I have found among the family papers various deeds and other MSS. relating to the families of Boyle, Carew, Clifford, etc., but none of these enable me positively to determine the points I have above indicated as the objects of my inquiry. The peerage of the late Francis Vernon, Baron Orwell of Newry, co. Down, Ireland, Viscount Orwell, and Earl of Shipbrooke, who died in 1783, was considered on his death to be only dormant; and my grandfather (the late Captain Vernon, of Antigua, Egham, and White Hall, near Clitheroe, Lancashire) was considered as having a claim to it, but he did not take his claim to the House of Lords; and my uncle, the late Lieutenant-Colonel Vernon, has frequently asserted that he had in his possession all the documents necessary to substantiate his claim, but where all these are I cannot discover, for he left most of his papers I believe to a stranger. Lord Shipbrooke was the nephew and heir of the celebrated Admiral Vernon, and I believe he claimed the barony of Orwell in right of his mother Lady Arethusa Boyle, daughter of Charles Boyle, Baron Clifford, of Lanesborough, eldest son of Richard Boyle, 2nd Earl of Cork and 1st Earl of Burlington.—

I am, etc.

In 1664 Humphrey Walrond appeared before the Privy Council and complained that Lord Willoughby had unjustly deprived him and his son of their estates in Barbados. The petitioner was however committed to the Fleet Prison, as he had quitted Barbados without the Governor's permission.

In B. T. Leeward Islands, vol. 5, are several original letters written to the Lords of the Plantations by Mr. Edward Walrond, making various charges against General Codrington the Governor; some are sealed with his arms . . . three bulls' heads . . .

In 1696 there had been some complaints made against Captain Robert Arthur, R.N., and the deposition is recorded of Henry Walrond, æt. 22, who was at his cozen Walrond's house at Antigua, sworn 19 Feb. 1696.

On 2 Aug. 1697 Edward Walrond, Esq., writes to their Lordships and says Colonel Charles Pym of Nevis, a great friend of the General's, is a Jacobite. Henry Walrond is later ordered into custody. On 1 Sep. 1697 was signed by John Perrie the Provost-Marshal the warrant for arresting Edward Walrond, Esq. In another deposition Henry Walrond, æt. 22, states that in 1697 he was a volunteer on H.M.S. Jersey. Edward Walrond escaped to England after having given £500 bail, and on 6 July 1698 writes from Islington to their Lordships on behalf of his friend Mr. John Lucas, who was being cruelly illused by the Governor, and he renews all his charges against the latter. The death of the General on 20 July 1698 seems to have put an end to the matter. John Lucas writes from prison in Antigua to his friend Edward Walrond and says, "There is an Execution against your estate for £500 st.; they wd have taken 20 of your negroes, but your attorneys objected & raised the money. Your brother Pern," dated 28 May 1698, and later mentions the illness of "your brother Burgis."

Close Roll, 25 Geo. II., Part 4, No. 7.

Indenture made the 1st Nov. 1751 between John Watkins of Brampton, near Huntingdon, Esq. (son of the Hon. Samuel Watkins, formerly Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, Antigua, deceased), of the one part, and Walter Tulideph of Antigua, Esq., Practiser in Physic, and Charles Alexander, now of Great Britain, but late of Antigua, Esq., Captain in H.M.'s Regiment of Foot quartered in the Leeward Islands, of the other part. Whereas Samuel Watkins by his last will, dated the 4th April 1743, did devise to John Watkins his son, party hereto, all his estate called Monteyros and all negro slaves, and for default of issue devised the same to Thomas Watkins his son; and whereas the said plantation so devised to John Watkins, party hereto, was by Samuel Watkins in his lifetime let on lease to John Watkins of Antigua, Esq., which lease will expire in October 1752, and it is imagined that John Watkins, party hereto, may become indebted to John Watkins of Antigua in a considerable sum of money upon a reappraisement of the slaves, works, buildings, cattle and horses, which he may be obliged to borrow; and whereas John Watkins, party hereto, hath already gotten 2 sons. Now this Indenture witnesseth that in consideration of 10s., and also in consideration of the natural love he beareth to his youngest son already born and may bear to other children to be born, and for making a reasonable provision for such younger children, and to the intent to barr and destroy all estates tail and remainders, John Watkins conveys to Walter Tulideph and Charles Alexander all that plantation called Monteyros and all negroes, which said plantation is in the parish of St. Mary and in New Division in Antigua, and contains 250 acres, in trust to repay to themselves all moneys advanced, then to the use of John Watkins for life, and after his death to pay £40 sterling yearly for the maintenance and education of his eldest son till 14, and from 14 till of age £60 yearly, and £60 per annum for the maintenance and education of younger children, and as to the residue of the produce after payment of the dower of Margaret Watkins (mother of John Watkins) to keep the same in their hands till £2000 sterling shall be raised for younger children, if there shall be 3 or more, to be equally divided at 21 and not sooner, and if not more than one younger child, or two, then £1500 and no more to the said one younger child, or equally divided between the 2 at 21 and not sooner, and after raising the said sum to the use of the heirs of the body of John Watkins, and for default to his right heirs for ever, and John Watkins nominates James Doig, Joseph Dewberry, and George Lucas, all of Antigua, Esquires, his Attorneys. James Davis, Robert Merryfield, witnesses.

Close Roll, 29 Geo. II., Part 13, Nos. 2 and 3.

Indenture made the 12th June 1755 between John Watkins of Bampton, near Huntingdon in Huntingdonshire, Esq. (son of the Hon. Samuel Watkins, formerly Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, Antigua, deceased), of the one part, and Walter Tullideph of Antigua, Esq., and Christopher Baldwin of Antigua, merchant, of the other part, witnesseth that in consideration of 5s. John Watkins grants, etc., to Walter Tullideph and Christopher Baldwin all that plantation called Monteyros, containing 250 acres, in the parish of St. Mary and in New Division, Antigua, and all negro and other slaves, horses, mares, mules, horned and other cattle, and stock live and dead for one whole year. Fras. Eyre, Richard Tompkins, witnesses.

No. 2.

Indenture tripartite made the 13th June 1755 between John Watkins of Bampton, near Huntingdon, of the 1st part, Charles Alexander of Antigua, Esq., of the 2nd part, and Walter Tullideph and Christopher Baldwin of the 3rd part. Whereas Samuel Watkins by his last will in 1743 (recited); and whereas by an Indenture made the 1st Nov. 1751 (recited); and whereas in pursuance of the said recited Indenture Charles Alexander, soon after the expiration of the lease in October 1752, did pay on such reappraisement several hundred pounds, and hath advanced several other considerable sums; and whereas since the execution of the said recited Indenture John Watkins hath contracted considerable debts in Great Britain, and the several creditors have threatened to distress John Watkins, who hath proposed to them to barr all estates tail and other uses created or limited by the said Indenture, and to secure such new contracted debts by the said plantation when so barred, if he may by law be enabled; and whereas on advising with Counsel from the inaccuracies of penning the above-mentioned Indenture it is apprehended that John Watkins may be enabled to barr all or some of the estates, particularly the estate tail whereby the provision for his family may be defeated; and whereas Charles Alexander is desirous to preserve the plantation for the benefit of the family, subject to the charges hereinafter mentioned, and hath agreed to pay off all the creditors. Now therefore this Indenture witnesseth that in consideration of the several sums already advanced and of a further sum of £400 sterling paid by Charles Alexander, and in consideration of a provision for the children of John Watkins, and all other premises hereinbefore recited, John Watkins grants, etc., to Walter Tullideph and Christopher Baldwin, in their possession now being, all that plantation called Monteyros in trust to the use of Charles

Alexander for 100 years, and on the determination of that term to the use of John Watkins for life, and to preserve the contingent remainders to his heirs for 500 years, to his first son and his heirs male, whom failing to the heirs of the body of John Watkins, whom failing to the heirs of John Watkins for ever, and as to the 100 years that Charles Alexander may enter in and receive the rents without rendering any account until all money advanced by him is repaid, and as to the 500 years to raise portions for younger children, if only one £1500, if two or more £2000 to be divided amongst them, to sons at 21, if John Watkins is then dead and the rents sufficient, and daughters at 21 or marriage, all portions to be considered vested interests at 21, and to raise money for the maintenance and education of an eldest or only son, and of all other children, for the eldest son till 14 not over £40 a year, and from then not over £60, and the maintenance for the younger children not to exceed in the whole £60 a year, and the said sums to be raised without prejudice to the money due to Charles Alexander, and the dower of Margaret Watkins, mother of John, and John Watkins constitutes James Doig, Werge Lucas, and Henry Alexander, all of Antigua, his Attorneys.

Close Roll, 3 Geo. III., Part 12, Nos. 11 and 12.

Indenture made the 10th June 1763 between Charles Alexander of London, merchant, and Margaret his wife (late Margaret Watkins, widow and relict of the Hon. Samuel Watkins, Esq., heretofore Chief Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, Antigua), of the one part, and Harry Alexander of Antigua and William Colcraft of London, merchant, of the other part, witnesseth that in consideration of 5s. the former grant, etc., to the latter all that plantation called Dunnings, containing 140 acres, lying in or near the parish of St. Mary, Antigua, and all negro and other slaves, horses, mares, mules, horned and other cattle, and stock live or dead whatsoever to have and to hold for one whole year, yielding therefore one peppercorn, to the intent that by virtue of these presents and by force of the statute for transferring uses into possession in that behalf made and provided, they may be in actual possession and enabled to accept a grant and release of the reversion and inheritance upon the several uses to be mentioned. John Alexander, Grocers' Hall, Samuel Tatlocke, his clerk, witnesses.

No. 11.

Indenture made the 11th June 1763 between Charles Alexander and Margaret his wife, etc., of the one part, and Harry Alexander and William Colcraft, etc., of the other part, witnesseth that in consideration of 10s. and for settling and assuring the plantation, etc., hereinafter described (purchased by Margaret Alexander during her widowhood), the former grant, etc., to the latter, all that plantation called Dunnings (as in No. 12), to have and to hold to the use of Charles Alexander and his assigns, for the joint lives of him and Margaret, and at his decease to her use and behoof for life, and then in trust for 500 years, out of the rents, etc., to pay to Lucy James, a black servant, now living with Margaret Alexander, £5 sterling a year for life, clear of all taxes, and to raise such sums of money for the portions of the 3 younger children of John Watkins (son of Margaret) as follows, that is to say, for John Watkin the younger £1000 at 21 or so soon after as it can be raised, Margaret Watkins only daughter £500 at 21 or marriage, George Watkins her younger brother £500 at 21 or so soon after, and in case John or George die before 21 the portion equally between the 2 survivors, and if 2 of the younger children die to the survivor, and if the 3 die the term of 500 years to be void on the decease of Lucy James, and immediately after the determination of the said term, and subject thereto, the plantation to the only use of Samuel Watkins (eldest son of John and grandson of Margaret Alexander) and to his heirs for ever, and Charles and Margaret Alexander reserve to themselves power by will or deed to revoke, and lastly they appoint John Lyons, Esq., and Edward Gamble, and William Alexander, Gentlemen, all of Antigua, their Attorneys.

My Dear Sir,

I have copied the letter which my cousin Miss Dalzell sent me some time since containing her grandmother's recollections; from the way they are jotted down they are evidently the recollection of an old lady, and she may have made some mistake in certain names, but the main facts seem correct. The Judge had two wives you will see, but she says the second wife was Miss Morgan. As you have made researches I have no doubt you are correct . . . I have a Griffin pedigree, but could find no trace of any niece of Lord Griffin of Braybrooke. As regards the Mayers I may mention that my cousin told me that many years ago Mr. Owen Pell purchased the Mayer estate, and with it he found a chest of old papers and MSS. which he kept . . . I remember my brother, when he was Fort Adjutant of Antigua in 1847, telling me he had met a Mr. Lydiatt who had claimed him as a cousin, his father having married Mrs. Mayer . . . My nephew John Grant Birch and my niece Ann Mayer Birch were both born in Antigua, and that is the last we have had to do with the Island.

"Copy of a letter written by M^{rs} Dalzell, dau. of John & Esther Mayer. Arrived in the reign of Queen Anne. Samuel Watkins appointed Chief Judge of Antigua W. L., he married Miss Griffin, niece of Lord Braybrooke, by whom he had one son Thomas and 3 girls.

"The eldest, Ann Watkins, married M^r Elliott of Antigua and had 3 or 4 children, the eldest, Samuel, married Miss Yeamans and had a son Samuel with others.

"The second daughter Elizabeth (Watkins) married Col. Kerr, 38th Reg^t, & had 5 children, Sarah (Kerr), the second married Joseph Wickham & had one daughter, Esther, who married John Mayer, Eleanor (Kerr), the second, married M^r Simon Farley & had 3 daughters & two sons, the eldest, Elizabeth,* married 1 Captain Archbold in the army, 2 Sir James Laroche, Bart.

"Thomas Watkins, the Judge's son, married in Antigua & left 3 daughters. The eldest, Eleanor, married Dunbar, no issue. The second married M^r John (William) Gunthorpe & had 2 sons John & George, the eldest married Miss Christian; his 3 daughters, one married M^r Byam & then M^r Stevens; the second married M^r —, then Admiral Cosbie, no issue; Mary remained single.

"The Chief Judge married secondly Miss Morgan,† by whom he had 2 sons, one Samuel, one daughter married M^r Christopher Baldwin, the other died unmarried.

* This must be wrong. See the Laroche Pedigree, Vol. II., p. 161.

† It was the Judge's son Thomas who married Miss Morgan.

"Eleanor Watkins, by his 1st wife, married M^r Parke, nephew of General Park, her daughter married M^r Wallace, no issue; 2nd Colonel Farley & had 2 sons & 2 daughters, the eldest, James, married Miss Bird, dan. of Colonel Bird of Virginia, the other son died single. The eldest daughter Eleanor Farley, married Sir John Laforey, Bart., & had one son & one daughter, the present Sir Francis Laforey;* the daughter married Capt. Molloy, R.N., they had 3 children, the daughter married Sir John Beresford & had one son.

"Rebecca Farley, died single. James Farley, by Miss Bird, had 4 daughters, M^{rs} Izard, M^{rs} Corbet, M^{rs} Lightfoot, & M^{rs} Banister. Grandmother Kerr had 2 sons Samuel Watkins Kerr who married Miss Furlong, ? issue, 2 sons who died single & one daughter who married M^r Thomas Montgomery, an Irish Gentleman, no issue."

So far my great-aunt Mrs. Dalzell. I may add that my mother used to speak of her mother's cousins, the Laforeys, and that Mrs. Montgomery was her grandmother and curiously enough mine, hence my second name. She died an old lady when I was very young.

Close Roll, 20 Geo. II., Part 18, Nos. 15 and 16.

Indenture made the 20th Jan. 1746 between Michael Lambert Weatherill, late of Antigua, but now of St. Martin's in the Fields, Esq. (eldest son and heir of James Weatherill, late of Antigua, Esq., deceased), of the one part, and Richard Oliver of East Greenwich, Esq., of the other part, witnesseth that in consideration of 5s. Michael Lambert Weatherill grants, etc., to Richard Oliver all that Popeshead Plantation, containing 350 acres, in the parish of St. John, Antigua, bounded E. with the lands of Jonas Langford, N. with the sea, S. with the lands of Samuel Nibbs, and W. with the sea, and also all slaves, horses, cows, oxen, sheep, and other cattle whatsoever, for one whole year, and he appoints Rowland Oliver, Michael Lovell, John Wise, and John Murray, all of Antigua, Esquires, his Attorneys. Matthew Christian, Charles W. Man, William Johnson, witnesses.

No. 15.

Indenture made the 21st Jan. 1746 between the above. Whereas Michael Lambert Weatherill is well entitled to an estate in fee tail in all that Popeshead Plantation, now in the possession of Margaret Weatherill his mother, widow and relict of James Weatherill, deceased, or of Stephen Blizard, John Douglas, Thomas Warner, and Drury Ottley, Esquires, trustees appointed by the last will of James Weatherill, all which plantation, together with another one called Duncombe's Folly in Antigua, are subject to dower during the life of Margaret Weatherill under her husband's will, and charged with his debts and divers legacies and annuities to the amount of very considerable sums of money; and whereas Michael Lambert Weatherill has agreed to bar all estates tail and remainders in the plantation, etc., hereinafter mentioned, and Richard Oliver has therefore contracted for the absolute purchase of all Michael Lambert Weatherill's interest for £500 sterling, and, in lieu of an annuity of £400 currency given him by his father's will, to pay him £100 sterling a year for life, in consideration whereof Michael Lambert Weatherill has agreed to assign the annuity, the full payment whereof is rendered doubtful by the many other incumbrances affecting the estate, to Richard Oliver. Now this Indenture witnesseth that in pursuance of the agreement, and in consideration of £500 and £100 sterling a year for life, and to the intent all estates tail and remainders may be effectually barred and destroyed, according to the laws of the Leeward Islands, Michael Lambert Weatherill grants to Richard Oliver all that Popeshead Plantation charged with the dower of Margaret Weatherill and the debts and legacies of James Weatherill, and further witnesseth that in consideration of the further sum of 10s. Michael Lambert Weatherill assigns to Richard Oliver the annuity of £400 currency.

Close Roll, 21 Geo. II., Part 9, Nos. 13 and 14.

Indenture made the 19th Jan. 1747 between Richard Oliver, heretofore of Antigua, now of East Greenwich, Esq., of the one part, and Michael Lovell and John Wise of Antigua, merchants, of the other part, witnesseth that in consideration of 5s. Richard Oliver grants, etc., to Michael Lovell and John Wise all that Popeshead Plantation, containing 350 acres, in the parish of St. John, Antigua, and 170 slaves, and all horses, cows, oxen, sheep, and other cattle whatsoever, for one whole year, and Richard Oliver appoints John Murray, Rowland Oliver, and Ashton Warner, all of Antigua, Esquires, his Attorneys.

No. 13.

Indenture tripartite made the 20th Jan. 1747 between Richard Oliver and Mary his wife, of the 1st part, Michael Lovell and John Wise (trustees named by Margaret Weatherill party hereto), of the 2nd part, and Margaret Weatherill of Antigua, widow, of the 3rd part, witnesseth that in consideration of £1000 sterling paid by Margaret Weatherill to Richard Oliver, Richard Oliver and Mary his wife grant, etc., to Michael Lovell and John Wise, in their actual possession being, all that Popeshead Plantation and the 170 negros, which were part of the estate of James Weatherill, deceased, husband of Margaret, and father of Michael Lambert Weatherill, and by Indentures of the 20th and 21st Jan. 1746 granted by Michael Lambert Weatherill to Richard Oliver, subject to the debts of James Weatherill, and also to diverse legacies and annuities in his will given, in trust that the said lands shall stand charged as by the will of James Weatherill, dated the 6th Jan. 1745, and duly proved and recorded, since his death, in Antigua, but not to ease or discharge any other estate of James Weatherill, particularly the plantation called Duncombe's Folly, or the reversion of it after the death of Margaret Weatherill, but all the said estates to be liable as if those Indentures had never been made; and whereas James Weatherill by his will gave to Margaret the property of all his plate, watches, jewels, furniture, pictures, etc., and all his dwelling houses in Popeshead for life and no longer, and gave all residue to John Douglas of St. Kitts, Stephen Blizard, Drewry Ottley, jun., and Thomas Warner of Antigua, Esquires, in trust to pay one third of his real estate to his wife for life in lieu and barr of dower, and diverse other trusts, and empowered them to allow to Lambert Weatherill his son £400 a year currency till the trusts should be performed, and then to convey to him all estate real and personal; and whereas by the said recited Indentures Michael Lambert Weatherill did grant the said £400 currency a year to Richard Oliver, who for securing the payment of £100 sterling a year entered into a penal bond of £500 sterling bearing even date; whereas it is agreed that Richard Oliver shall continue to pay the said annuity, and that as a compensation the premises shall stand charged with the payment to him of £100 a year during the life of Michael Lambert Weatherill, and Margaret Weatherill has given a bond for £1000 to Richard Oliver; now this Indenture further witnesseth that in consideration of all the premises and of 5s. Richard Oliver and Mary his wife grant to Margaret Weatherill all that annuity of £400 currency, subject to the trust following, and constitute Michael Lovell and John Wise their Attorneys in trust, to pay to them from the said annuity £100 sterling a year for the life of Michael Lambert Weatherill and then in trust for Margaret Weatherill and her heirs for ever.

Close Roll, 22 Geo. II., Part 19, Nos. 10 and 11.

Indenture made the 27th Sep. 1748 between Michael Lambert Weatherill, late of Antigua, but now of the parish of St. George, Southwark, Esq., of the one part, and Richard Holmes of May Fair, St. George's, Hanover Square, Esq., and George Weatherill of Antigua, Esq., of the other part, witnesseth that in consideration of 10s. Michael Lambert Weatherill grants, etc., to Richard Holmes and George Weatherill all that plantation or sugarwork called Duncombe's Folly, containing 575 acres, in the parish of St. John, Antigua, bounded E. with lands belonging to Edward Williams, Esq., S. with lands belonging to Richard Oliver, Esq., W. with lands belonging to Peter Thibou, Esq., and Samuel Martin, Esq., and N. by lands formerly belonging to and in the possession of Robert Chester, Esq., but now or late held by Colonel George Lucas, and those 107 negroes and all cattle, horses, as such are or lately were in the possession or occupation of Michael Lambert Weatherill, subject to the estate for life of Margaret Weatherill, widow, his mother, for one whole year to the uses of an Indenture to be made. William George Douglas, Hugh Hamersley, witnesses.

No. 10.

Indenture tripartite made the 28th Sep. 1748 between Michael Lambert Weatherill, of the 1st part, Richard Holmes and George Weatherill, of the 2nd part, and Charles Pym Burt of Gray's Inn, Gentleman, of the 3rd part. Whereas by Articles of Agreement of the 1st Nov. 1746 between Michael Lambert Weatherill, late of Antigua, but then of St. Martin's in the Fields, Esq., of the one part, and Richard Holmes, then of Brook Street, Hanover Square, Esq., and George Weatherill of Antigua, Esq., of the other part, reciting that Michael Lambert Weatherill was entitled either in tail general or some other good estate, subject to the life estate of his mother of and in the plantation called Duncombe's Folly, as the same was then in the possession of Margaret Weatherill, and that Richard Holmes and George Weatherill had agreed for the absolute purchase of his interest for the price of £500 sterling and an annuity of £200 sterling to be effectually secured to him by them and charged on the plantation, but the annuity not to take effect till after the death of Margaret Weatherill; it was witnessed that in consideration thereof Michael Lambert Weatherill did agree to grant to Richard Holmes and George Weatherill, and to vest the said premises in them as tenants in common and not joint tenants, and give them a good estate of inheritance in fee simple; and whereas by an Indenture of Assignment made the 4th Sep. 1747 between Michael Lambert Weatherill, of the one part, and Charles Pym Burt of Southampton Buildings, of the other part, reciting as above, it was witnessed that Richard Lambert Weatherill had sold to Charles Pym Burt the said annuity of £200 for the price of £500; and whereas the said sums of £500 and £500 were paid, and Richard Holmes and George Weatherill have applied for the absolute conveyance of the said plantation, charged with the £200 a year to Charles Pym Burt for the life of Michael Lambert Weatherill. Now this Indenture witnesseth that for the above considerations Michael Lambert Weatherill grants to Richard Holmes and George Weatherill, in their actual possession being, all that plantation called Duncombe's Folly, subject to the life estate of Margaret Weatherill, and to their heirs for ever, and Michael Lambert Weatherill appoints, etc., Thomas Warner, Edward Warner, and John Banister, Esquires, all of Antigua, his Attorneys.

No. 5.

Weatherill v. Holmes, as recited in Close Roll, 22 Geo. II., Part 19, No. 10, but Richard Holmes described as of Gaddesdon, Herts, and George Weatherill as of the Inner Temple.

Close Roll, 7 Geo. III., Part 14, No. 8.

Indenture made 24th March 1767 between Michael Lambert Weatherill, formerly of Antigua, but now of the parish of St. John, Westminster, Gentleman (brother and heir-at-law and also one of the next of kin to George Weatherill, late of Antigua, Esq., deceased), and Elizabeth Weatherill his wife, of the one part, and Stephen Blizard of Antigua, Esq., and William Warner of Antigua, Esq., of the other part (which said Stephen Blizard and William Warner are two of the Ex'ors of the said George Weatherill), witnesseth that in consideration of 5s. Michael Lambert Weatherill and Elizabeth his wife have bargained, etc., to Stephen Blizard and William Warner all that plantation in the parish of St. John, Antigua, called Duncombe's Folly, containing 574 acres, late in the possession of George Weatherill, deceased, and all negroes and slaves now used on the plantation, and all horses, cows, oxen, sheep, and other cattle whatsoever, for one whole year, that they may be in actual possession, to the uses of an Indenture to be made. Michael Lambert Weatherill and Elizabeth his wife appoint, etc., Thomas Warner, Ashton Warner Byam, and Thomas Kidder, Esquires, all of Antigua, their Attorneys. Sherland Swanston, Thomas Berry, witnesses.

No. 7.

Indenture made 25th March 1767 between Michael Lambert Weatherill, etc., and Elizabeth Weatherill his wife, of the one part, and Stephen Blizard and William Warner, of the other part. Whereas George Weatherill died the 14th Nov. 1765 seised in fee simple of the plantation hereinafter described; and whereas a short time before his death he gave instructions to Thomas Warner and Edward Byam the younger to draw his will, by which he gave to Louisa Weatherill his wife all his estate for life and at her death to the child she went with in fee, or if more than one, equally, and if they died under age he gave his estate to Charles Weatherill his brother and his heirs, and appointed Stephen Blizard, Thomas Warner, William Warner, and Edward Byam his Ex'ors, and the said instructions were proved as his will before Sir George Thomas as he died before they were reduced to writing, and he left Louisa Weatherill his widow then with child; and whereas Charles Pym Weatherill (brother of George) soon after died, having duly made his last will 9th Dec. 1765, and thereby gave one undivided moiety of his estate to Thomas Ottley, Esq., in tail general, and the other moiety to Martha Ottley, spinster, in tail general, with cross remainders in tail, with a remainder in fee to James Ottley of St. Kitts, Esq., which will was duly proved; and whereas Louisa Weatherill was on the 11th Jan. 1766 delivered of a daughter, who died on the 27th of the same month, leaving Michael Lambert Weatherill her heir-at-law, who is also heir-at-law of George Weatherill, and on the death of the said daughter the remainder in fee of the estate of George Weatherill would have become vested in Charles Pym Weatherill, expectant on the death of Louisa had Charles Pym Weatherill survived the daughter of Louisa, and is now vested in Thomas Ottley and Martha Ottley according to the will of Charles Pym Weatherill; and whereas Louisa Weatherill by the marriage settlement, dated 27th Feb. 1765, made on her intermarriage with George Weatherill, is entitled to a jointure of £200 currency a year for life from a plantation of his called Duncombe's Folly, but in case she should elect dower out of his estate she is to be dowable thereof and has a right to waive the jointure; and whereas soon after the death of her husband Louisa Weatherill filed a Bill of Complaint in the Court of Chancery, Antigua, against the Ex'ors of George Weatherill and the devisees and Ex'ors of Charles Pym Weatherill, and against Michael Lambert Weatherill, as brother of the whole blood and heir-at-law of George, for an account and discovery of the estate real and personal of George Weatherill, that she may be capable of judging whether she shall adhere to the jointure or elect dower of her husband's manors; and whereas the Statute of Fraud is not in force in Antigua, and Louisa Weatherill and the devisees of Charles Pym Weatherill filed their Bill of Complaint against Michael Lambert Weatherill; and whereas William Ottley, Esq., and Richard Ottley, Esq., have, as creditors of George Weatherill, filed a Bill on behalf of themselves and of such other creditors as would contribute to the expense of a suit against Louisa Weatherill and Michael Lambert Weatherill and the Ex'ors of George Weatherill and the devisees and Ex'ors of Charles Pym Weatherill, and against Thomas Mills and John Mills of London, merchants, for an account and discovery, and in order that the creditors may be paid from the personal estate of George Weatherill, and subpoenas have been served on Michael Lambert Weatherill and Thomas and John Mills, but Michael Lambert Weatherill has not appeared; and whereas George Weatherill died in debt to divers persons to the amount of £57,000 currency of Antigua; and whereas Louisa Weatherill, Thomas Ottley, Martha Ottley, and James Ottley, and the creditors have for facilitating the sale of the real and personal estate of George Weatherill empowered Stephen Blizard and William Warner to treat with Michael Lambert Weatherill for the purchase of his right to all estate real, personal, and mixed of George Weatherill; and whereas it is doubtful whether the whole will be sufficient to pay all just debts, and if these shall be more than sufficient, yet if the instructions are established as the will of George Weatherill then Michael Lambert Weatherill can receive no benefit, therefore Michael Lambert Weatherill has proposed, as heir-at-law, to convey to Stephen Blizard and William Warner the said plantation and negroes, and also as one of the next-of-kin all his right to the personal estate of George Weatherill, on the payment to him of £54 12s. a year for life, and Stephen Blizard and William Warner have agreed, and for securing the payment thereof Thomas Truman, Richard Neave, and John Willett of London, merchants and co-partners, have at the request of Stephen Blizard and William Warner executed a bond, bearing even date with these presents, and have become bound to Michael Lambert Weatherill in the penal sum of £1000. Now this Indenture witnesseth that in consideration of the said annuity Michael Lambert Weatherill and Elizabeth Weatherill his wife grant, etc., to Stephen Blizard and William Warner all that plantation to the only proper use of Stephen Blizard and William Warner; and by an Indenture of 26th Feb. 1767 between Louisa Weatherill, Thomas, Martha, and James Ottley, of the 1st part, the creditors of George Weatherill, of the 2nd part, Stephen Blizard and William Warner, of the 3rd part, and Michael Lambert Weatherill, of the 4th part. It was witnessed as above.

Edward Walrond, Esq., writes in 1697-8 that "James Weatherill, now an Inhabitant of Antigua, about four years since being Com'ander of a Privateer Sloop called y^e Charles of Jamaica," captured a large and valuable Spanish ship, but the Court refused to put him on trial for piracy. "Weatherills" is in St. John's Parish. In 1852 it contained 300 acres, and was owned by John Tollemache, Esq. (formerly Delap-Halliday). It is now (1892) owned by Mr. Lane, who has rebuilt the dwelling-house and effected other improvements. There is an old family burial-ground here containing several brick vaults, but the top slabs with the M.I. were lost or destroyed before Mr. Lane's time. This burial-ground and the one at Mount Jarvis are the only two of all the plantation family burial-places that are still kept clean and cared for. Nearly all the others have been desecrated, and are used for mule-pens or dust-heaps. Langfords was full of old iron and other rubbish.

* This M.I. was copied some years ago and sent to me by Mr. N. Darnell Davis.

1771, May 18. Nathaniel Webb of Bristol, widower, deceased. Admⁿon to David Webb and Nathaniel Webb, uncles and guardians of Richard Webb the son, a minor.

Harry Webb, Esq. Will dated 12 Dec. 1783 ; proved 30 March 1786 by Philip Nathaniel de Visme and Harry Smith, Esquires. (199 Norfolk.) His body to be carried to Taunton & deposited in the Family Vault, pursuant to the Inscription on the marble part of a Stone Monument erected by him. Whereas his Annuity of £200 a year (charged on all the real Estate of Nathaniel Gilbert the elder, Esq., late of Antigua, dec^d, estimated at £30,000 ster. a few years ago), will end with his life, Ex'ors are to demand & receive all arrears then due, as was done in like case on his wife's Annuity of £200 a year charged on the said Estate. Whereas he is possessed of a joint Bond from John Halliday, Esq., since dec^d, & John Delap Halliday, Esq., his eldest son & heir, for payment of £6500 to his Ex'ors within 6 months after his decease, with interest at 5 per cent., & meantime for payment to himself of £162 10s. every 29th May & every 29th January (the original Bond is in a tin case with other original papers, & a duplicate of his will & an attested copy thereof by the Clerks of M^r Wilmot, who drew the Bond for the sale of the Antigua Estate, is in another tin case in the hands of Henry Smith, nephew, one of his Ex'ors), gives the £6500 as follows : Anne Stone, sister, £600, but if she dies first Anne Dunsford her daughter £200 of it, & the remainder to Robert Stone & William Stone her sons equally. Ex'ors £600 in trust to pay the interest to William Webb, nephew, for life, & at his death the principal to Harry Webb & Mary Webb his 2 children equally. Nephews Francis Webb, Joseph Jeffries, Robert Smith, & Henry Smith £600 apiece. Nieces Anne Tuckwell, Bethia Webb, Anne Dunsford, Sarah Stone, Anne Boon, & Jane Toulmin £300 apiece. Mary Arabella French, late wife's sister, £300. Elizabeth Whyte, late wife's half sister, £100. Elizabeth Anne Stone (daughter of George Stone, eldest son of sister Anne) £100. If any of these die in his life the Legacies void. Whereas he is possessed of another Bond from Robert Gray, late of Antigua, Esq., dec., for £1000, with interest at 6 per cent., which Testator lent him to complete the purchase of a settled Plantation in Antigua when Testator resided there (the original Bond is in the hands of George Savage, Esq., Testator's Attorney), & they are also to attend to the Letters between John Grey of Antigua, Esq., son & heir of the said Obligor, & Testator touching the said Bond, & to the case & opinion thereon by Mr Glanville that "the Father's Bond has a legal & adjudge of priority to any Mortgage by the Son or by the Trustees under the Father's Will," & that on the Sale of the said Plantation the Bond must be first paid, which Testator stated in writing to Messrs Boddington the Mortgagees of the said John Gray the son, which Mr Smith delivered to them with a copy of the said case & opinion, which Testator likewise sent to his said Attorney in Antigua for his direction. Whereas by the non-payment of Testator's said Annuity of £200 a year for $\frac{4}{5}$ years the 5th of the present month of December 1788, amounting with interest & penalties to £1200 or thereabouts, as stated in the accounts in the said tin cases, & by non-payment of the interest on the last recited Bond due 20th May now last past, & several losses by Colepeper & Gines (?), Testator has been obliged to sell out of the Government Annuities for 30 years, whereby he is now possessed of £100 per an. only therein & may probably be obliged to sell out more to supply further defaults. Ex'ors are to sell all his remaining property therein as soon as conveniently may be & apply the produce as follows: first, to pay all his debts & funeral expenses, then to retain £200 for their own care & trouble in keeping the accounts touching the Executorship, which are to be kept in a separate Book from the Partnership Book, for the inspection of any Legatee who shall require it, & then to pay to his servant Jeffrey Snape £200. John Clarke, coachman, who has served Testator for 18 years, 45 guineas; horses jobbed at £103 a year since 1765. As to his personal Estate distinct & separate from the 2 Bonds, the Government Annuities, & the arrears of his own Annuity, as follows: Anne Stone, sister, his gold Watch, formerly a Lady's, & the Seals (except the one with wife's Arms quartered), but if she dies to Sarah Stone her daughter. Mary Arabella French, wife's sister, the said excepted Seal, & her sister's Silver Ink Stand, & the Silver Sugar & Tea Canisters with the like quartered Arms in a Shagreen case, & Testator's little Silver Saucepan, & 6 Table spoons. Jeffrey Snape all wearing apparel, Shirts, Stocks, household & other Linen, & everything not otherwise bequeathed except Bank Notes, Cash, 2 gold snuff boxes (presented to Testator by Robert Webb Stone & William John Glanville, nephews aforesaid, to whom he was Guardian, when they came to age), & all papers of all kinds whatsoever. George Savage £100. All residue of personal Estate as follows: To Henry Smith, nephew, £400, & the rest to him in trust to divide equally between Mary Arabella French, wife's sister, Robert Smith & Robert Webb Stone, nephews, 2 reduced Captains of Foot, & William John Glanville, nephew, but to retain a fifth part for himself. Philip Nathaniel De Visme & Henry Smith, nephew, Ex'ors. Richard Jones, stationer, Temple, John Alrain, George Hall, at Mr. Jones's, witnesses.

Close Roll, 17 Geo. III., Part 3, Nos. 22 and 23.

Indenture made the 28th Jan. 1777 between Harry Webb of the parish of St. George's, Hanover Square, Esq., and Nathaniel Webb of Savile Row, St. James's, Westminster, Esq. (brother and heir-at-law and devisee of Robert Webb, late of Wigmore Street, St. Marylebone, Esq., deceased), of the one part, and John Halliday of Queen Anne Street, Cavendish Square, Esq., of the other part, witnesseth that in consideration of 5s. Harry Webb and Nathaniel Webb grant to John Halliday all that plantation in the parish of St. Paul and divisions of Willoughby Bay and Falmouth in Antigua, containing 321 acres 1 rood and 15 perches, bounded E. with the lands of Francis Delap, Esq., S. with the lands of Martin Blake, Esq., Colonel Valentine Morris, deceased, and Baptist Looby, deceased, W. with the lands of John Yeamans, Esq., deceased, and N. with the lands of the said John Yeamans, John Duer, Esq., and Francis Delap, and the two dwelling-houses as now in the occupation and possession of Harry and Nathaniel Webb, and all negroes, slaves, cattle, and stock, which at the expiration of a lease on the 2nd Sep. last, formerly made to Simon Farley, Esq., were or now are on the plantation for one whole year, and Harry and Nathaniel Webb and John Halliday constitute the Hon. Thomas Warner, Esq., Attorney-General of Antigua, and George Savage and Bertie Entwisle, both of Antigua, Esquires, their Attorneys. John Blake, Essex Street, Gentleman, John Lancaster, Bloomsbury Square, Gentleman, witnesses.

No. 22.

Indenture made the 29th Jan. 1777 between Harry Webb and Nathaniel Webb and Elizabeth his wife, of the one part, and John Halliday, of the other part. Whereas Harry and Nathaniel Webb being seised in fee of a plantation called Rockhill otherwise Lucas's in Antigua, with the negroes, in equal moieties as tenants in common, have lately by a memorandum in writing dated the 21st Nov. now last past agreed to sell the same to John Halliday for £13,000 sterling, with interest at 5 per cent. from the 2nd Sep. last, of which £6500, one moiety, was to be paid or secured to be paid to Harry Webb, and the like sum, the other moiety, to Nathaniel Webb as therein mentioned; but John Halliday and Nathaniel Webb have since come to an agreement that John Halliday shall pay at the execution of these presents the said sum of £6500 with interest to Nathaniel Webb; and whereas on the said treaty it was agreed that John Halliday should be entitled to the benefit of the produce and increase of the slaves from the 2nd Sep., he paying all taxes from that time and all incidental expenses for the supply of the plantation and subsistence of the slaves, and also all such supply for the plantation as has been since that time sent out to Antigua by Messrs. Devisme and Smith, merchants in London, to George Savage, Esq., and Harry Webb and Nathaniel Webb paying all up to the 2nd Sep. This Indenture therefore witnesseth that in pursuance of the agreement and in consideration of £6632 13s. 5d., principal and interest from the 2nd Sep., secured to be paid to Harry Webb, and of the like sum paid to Nathaniel Webb in full for the absolute purchase, and for docking and destroying the estate of dower of Elizabeth, Harry Webb and Nathaniel Webb and Elizabeth his wife grant and confirm to John Halliday in his actual possession being all that plantation (as in No. 23) to the use of John Halliday and his heirs and assigns for ever.

R.N., but at present residing in Baker Street (eldest son and heir apparent of Francis Willock), of the one part, and James Weston of Fenchurch Street, Gentleman, of the other part. Whereas Alexander Willock being at the time of making his will and at his decease lawfully seised of the plantations hereinafter described, did publish his last will dated the 19th Oct. 1790, and gave all his plantations, negro and other slaves, cattle, etc., in the Island of Tobago, and all other real estate in the West Indies or Great Britain or wheresoever else to his trustees and Ex'ors, in trust to preserve the contingent uses and estates, and subject to several provisions, to the use of Francis Willock his eldest son and his assigns for life, and immediately after his decease to the use of his first son and to his heirs male, and in default upon several further trusts therein mentioned; and whereas Alexander Willock by a codicil dated the 20th Feb. 1796 revoked the appointment of the trustees and Ex'ors contained in his will, and appointed Langford Lovell, Esq., his friend, then of Antigua, Robert Johnson his nephew, and also his friends Thomas Coles of London, broker, and Ambrose Weston of Fenchurch Street, Gentleman, trustees and Ex'ors in their stead, and gave to them all his estate real and personal in trust (as before); and whereas Alexander Willock departed this life in Dec. 1801 without having altered his will so far as relates to the hereinbefore recited trusts in favour of Francis Willock and his first son, and without having altered the codicil; and 1834, Feb. 18. At Boshire, Frank Gore Willock, esq. Capt. R.N. This officer was a native of the West Indies. He first entered the service under the auspices of Sir Joseph Yorke, and was present in the capacity of Midshipman in the battle of Trafalgar. He subsequently served in the Northumberland 74, in the action off St Domingo; and in 1807 was appointed Lieutenant of the Osprey, which was cast away in Bayo Houa, and it being found necessary to fire her, to prevent her falling into the enemy's hands, he received Lord Mulgrave's approbation for his conduct on that occasion. At the reduction of Martinique he performed the duty of First Lieutenant of the Abercrombie;

he served subsequently on board the Dragon, and from her was appointed to command the Wanderer. In 1811 in command of the Spider he for some time protected the trade of Tortola and the adjacent islands, for his "very judicious and officer-like conduct" in which service he received the "fullest approbation" of Rear-Adm. Sir F. Laforey. In 1814 he removed into the Fox, in which he served during the American war, and was promoted to Post Rank Nov. 25, 1815. After this he was not employed again afloat; though he actually offered to fit out a ship at his own expense, if the First Lord of the Admiralty would honour him by nomination to a command. Impatient of repose, he gave exercise to the activity of his mind in travel. Russia, the Caucasus, Georgia, Persia, parts of Arabia, and the wide territories of British India, were all visited by him; and he was about to return to his native country, when he took his fatal fever at the cove of Muscat, where the Arab vessel touched in which he was sailing from Bombay to Boshire. Capt. Willock was characterised by the genuine virtues of an ocean son,—frank, enthusiastic, brave and humane; these noble and generous qualities, accompanied by occasional eccentricities, gave a warmth and colouring to the most trifling action of his life. ('Gent. Mag.,' 1835, p. 335.)

LORD WILLOUGHBY* TO LADY WILLOUGHBY.

My dearest Friend,

I did, not above a fortnight ago, write at large to thee by the way of Holland, by my governess Catinelie, the carpenter's wife, whom upon her earnest importunity, I gave leave to go home. She performed her trust very carefully and honestly in keeping all things under her charge, but for anything else she was loth to trouble herself. Honest Mary is all my stay now, and I hope will do as well as she can.

* There are several original letters of his in Egerton MS. 2395, Brit. Mus.

I have entertained another coarse wench to be under her, allowing her help enough of negroes, which are the best servants in these countries, if well tutored, and cost little, only a canvass petticoat once a year, and there is no more trouble with them.

Mrs. Chavve, this bearer, who hath promised me to deliver this with her own hand, is one who challenged acquaintance of me upon your score, which caused me to give her pass for her sugar, custom free: she tells me, she waited upon you when you lay in of little Dosey. I do not remember her, nor would not have believed her, but she gave me such a token by naming the child. If I be deceived, if this letter come safe to you, I shall not be much troubled at the cheat, for it is frequent here to have tricks put upon one of such kind.

My Lord Charles Paulet's daughter, I writ to you, of proves no such thing, for she is run quite away, and I think out of the island, for I cannot hear of her, which makes her appear a cheat : she knowing that I had writ into England about her, made her not dare to stay a return of my letter. I did by Celine write so large, giving thee an account of myself, and the state of the island, by some papers, acquainting thee what we had done in order to our self-preservation against that storm which was threatened us from England, by their printed declaration calling us rebels, so as I shall touch no more upon anything of that, only what we have further added since ; which is, to make ourselves strong in men, as well as in words ; and to that end have raised forces, both of horse and foot, which the country pays, and are constantly to be kept in a body to resist any forces that shall come against us. It was occasioned by Mr. Arnold, who came at the time of the Assembly's meeting : he is a very honest man. By him I received two letters, and three from my children ; one more which was superscribed to Mr. Rich. We had a fine passage, being but five weeks upon the way. I could wish to my heart thou hadst been with him ; but I know not how I should be so happy, though thy goodness to me, in saying thou wilt come, puts me in some comfort : for which kind resolution of thine, God in heaven reward thee. He came in a very opportune time, for the terror of his news, that so many ships were coming with men to reduce the island, stirred up the spirits of the Assembly, caused them to desire me to put the island in a posture of war, occasioned the raising of horse and foot, so as we shall be very able to resist them, and send them home again, shewing them the island is not so easily to be won as they are made to imagine it.

And I hope they will reward those runaway bankrupt rogues, who start day no longer here, for fear of a gaol, whereof learned Mr. Bayes is one; having by their villany, done what in them lies to ruin one of the best and sweetest islands in the English possession, or in any others, except the Spaniards, with whom we hear they have made a league, offensive and defensive; and if that be their planting the Gospel, I hope God will never prosper it.

I thank God we are all in good health and good heart, wanting nothing, but those things I so long ago^{ne} writ for; of which I have now so much want as I would give double what they were worth for to have them. I might have been as much beholding to my friends as to have done me that courtesy to have furnished those things; I writing that it was not to be upon any particular account, any merchant would have done it; if not out of England, yet out of Holland, from whence ships come daily in to us. I sent a list to you by two conveyances, which I hope failed not; but however thy letters put me out of hopes of having any return of my desires in that particular.

I thank thee having a care of my credit in Mr. Read's business, in which thou didst me a very great kindness, I am very sorry it was forced to fall upon thy particular; it was none of my meaning it should have done so; for poor soul, to hear of the sadness of thy condition, to be brought to so low a stipend, cuts my heart: but I hope God, who has hitherto kept us up, will still preserve us, and though cruel men may rob, oppress, and steal away what I have, yet I shall find a way to live: and since they began so deeply with me, as to take away all at one clap, and without any cause given on my part, I am resolved not to sit down a loser, and be content to see thee, my children, and self ruined.

There was wthout reparation to be allowed to those that were injured by the contrary party ; and being it is in my own power to help myself, shall I not do it, but sit still, like an ass, seeing the meat torn out of thine and my children's mouths ? No ! I will not do it ; and therefore, dear heart, let me entreat thee to leave off thy persuasions to submit to them, who so unjustly, so wickedly, have ruined thee and me and mine.

If ever they get the island, it shall cost them more than it is worth before they have it. And be not frightened with their power and success: God is above all.

There is an inclosed note directed "the Gentleman," which I am confident, if you will, you may make use of, praying you not to omit the opportunity. I shall send him as much in sugar, when I hear from you that you have made use of this. Be not frightened nor perplexed for me; I am confident yet God will bring us together into these parts, according to my former petitions to him, that we may end our days together in happiness; for I have had a return of my discovery of Guiana, which I writ to you formerly of; and the gentleman which I sent hath brought with him to me two of the Indian Kings, having spoke with divers of them, who are all willing to receive our nation, and that we shall settle amongst them; for which end I am sending hence a hundred men to take possession, and doubt not but in a few years to have many thousands there.

It is commended, by all that went, for the sweetest place that ever was seen; delicate rivers, brave land, fine timber. They were out almost five months; and amongst forty persons, not one of them had so much as their head ache. They commend the air to be so pure, and the water so good, as they had never such stomachs in their lives, eating five times a day plenty of fish and fowl, partridges and pheasants innumerable: brave savanas, where you may, in coach or on horseback, ride thirty or forty miles.

God bless me into life. And if England will be a friend, or that we make them so by tiring them out, either their seamen by the tedious voyages, or the state by the great expense they must be at, which I am very confident we shall, being all so well-resolved to stand by one another to the last man, then I shall make thee a brave being there; for since all is gone at home, it is time to provide elsewhere for a being.

I am very much troubled for honest Jo. Ward, that we should suffer so much for his honesty and kindness to me. Pray you, send for him, and commend my kind love to him, and tell him, that if he will come to me, he shall never want as long as I have it.

Though God is at present pleased to afflict us, and that justly for my sins, yet so long as he gives us health, let us not despair, but do our best; for who knows what a day may bring forth? Do thy best where thou art, playing the game as well as thou canst, and I will do the like here, and when the fleet shall return, and the gentlemen see how they are abused, you may perceive find them more charitable, at least in a more calm humour to be spoke with.

One comfort we have, they can neither starve us with cold, nor famish us for hunger; and why should they think so easily to put us to it then? If a quail should come, I thank God I have some of thy cordial water left still; but I thank my God, I never was more healthy in my life, I want nothing but thy sweet company: that would make time short, and all things easy to me. When once this expected storm is over, and this place settled, so as no more trouble may disquiet it, then shall I with all violence pursue thee with my humble suit and desire for thy company. God keep thee in health. Pull up a good heart, and yet all may be well.

I have no tokens to send my poor children for their kind letters. Mr. Arnold commends Will much, and relates a great deal of discourse he had with him one day, when you were from home. My best of blessings to them all.

For Mrs. Betty, if there be such an inclination in the young lord you mention, let not the present want of portion discourage; I have known unhandsoner than she married as well for nothing; but I shall hope however in a few years to be able to give a portion, though as yet it goes out apace.

As for Frank, I hope you will be careful for her health, in preventing what you fear. What I mentioned to you concerning my Lord Callender, be not so averse, out of an opinion of our too much good fellowship, for he is a noble lord, and an honest man! I had a letter lately from him, and he is resolved to come and plant in these parts of the world.

This enclosed engagement I sent by another conveyance, and renew it again, because I would have it with you, to satisfy your fear of my being delivered up. God but preserve thee, and I cannot do amiss. Farewell, my dearest joy.

The account Mr. Knowles gives me, by his letter, concerning the improvement of Will in his learning, is a great comfort to me; but the consideration of the loss of it again by his leaving of him is as great a cross. He expresseth to me, that because you could not continue his allowance to him, is the cause of his leaving him: if that be all, I should not doubt but, by God's blessing, I may be able to procure that, and shall spare it out of my own belly, if you can procure him to come to you again upon any reasonable terms; for I fear change of masters may do by him as it did by me. Prythee, dear heart, let me hear from thee. If there be any hopes of getting him to thee again, I will strain hard to procure means for the good of my boy. When you have read this letter, pray you seal it, and convey it to my lo—by my brother, to whom I forbear to write, because I will not endanger him more than I have.

[From Barbados, 1651.]

In 1660 William Contset of Barbados made over his estate to one Turner in trust for himself and wife for their lives. Afterwards the writer of this letter coming to Barbados in 1672, was informed that Contset had been prevailed on to make another deed of trust to Christopher Codrington, Deputy-Governor, and Judge Sharpe who drew the deeds had, to please Codrington, instead of a trust for Contset and his heirs, conveyed the estate to Codrington after the death of Contset and his wife, who were very old, who learning it after the registration made great clamour and complaint of fraud. Codrington said, "I know the violent humour of Contset's wife & she had made the poor man out of his wits." Codrington gave Lord Willoughby £4000 for the title Lord Willoughby's son had to the estate by Contset's will, said he was ashamed, he had been purely frightened by Mr. Knight about a month after William, Lord Willoughby, arrived.

1669. Contset had one of the best estates in the island . . . he and his wife were very illiterate people . . . Mrs. Contset, who died last, left it by will to Lieut.-General Henry Willoughby, who on his arrival presently after her death, and intending to sue Codrington, was invited by him to supper, went from Codrington's at nine at night, fell after he came into his lodging into a violent burning fever of his stomach, and died next morning by seven of the clock. Samuel Winthrop, youngest son, by his 3^d marriage, of Gov. John Winthrop of Mass., was b. at Groton Manor, Aug. 28, 1627, came to N.E. with his mother in 1631, & was subsequently a student at Harvard Coll., near Boston.

His father's property became much impaired by the dishonesty of his agent in England, and Samuel left Boston at an early age to seek his fortune. In 1645 he is known to have been in London, in 1645-6 in Tenerife, in 1647 in Barbados & St. Kitts, in 1648 in Fayal & in Holland. In June 1648 he is stated to have mar. in Rotterdam, a Dutch lady, Elizabeth. . . . About 1650 he established himself as a planter in Antigua, but subsequently removed to St. Kitts, where he resided several years, & then re-established himself in Antigua, where he died, it is believed in 1674, though the precise date has not yet been ascertained. About ten years previously he became a Quaker, under the influence of his particular friend, the celebrated Geo. Fox, during the latter's stay in the West Indies.

W^m Coddington of Rhode-Island, writing to Gov. John Winthrop of Connecticut in 1672, mentions a report that the latter's brother Samuel was to be named Gov. of Antigua, & there are other reasons for thinking he might have received this appointment had he desired it but for his death in the prime of life. Some 25 of his letters to his father & brother John are still preserved in Boston, & most of them have been printed in Winthrop Papers, part iv. (Mass. Hist. Soc. Coll., series 5, vol. viii.). They give a very pleasing impression of his character, & abound in references to West Indian affairs. I have never seen an abstract of his will, but it is stated that he devised his estate in New North Sound, Antigua, commonly known as "Groton Hall Plantation," jointly to his 3 elder sons (Henry, Joseph, & Samuel) & his wife Elizth, & that the latter devised her $\frac{1}{4}$ to her yth son Stephen. The said Elizth, wid. of Samuel, is believed to have died in the latter part of Dec. 1675, or early in 1676. Her will is dated Dec. 11, 1675. (Communicated by R. C. Winthrop, jun., of Boston.)

Geo. Heathcote, writing to his kinsman Gov. John Winthrop of Connecticut, under date of New York, March 21, 1667-8, speaks of having recently heard from his (Heathcote's) parents in Antigua, and adds, "I heard thy brother Samuel was Commander-in-chief, and that he said he did intend to give up his Commission, for it was a thing as it were in a manner forced upon him." Geo. Heathcote's father was agent to Col. Middleton at Antigua. (See 2 Proceedings, Mass. Hist. Soc., vol. v., p. 105.) (Ibid.)

Young, Lieutenant-governor of Dominica, and was born in 1742. In 1806 he was appointed Governor of Tobago. Sir William Young was a man of considerable talent and knowledge, and was well known in the first literary and political circles. In Parliament he generally supported the Whig Interest; although his principles may be better known to our readers by informing them that he voted for the Union with Ireland, against the abolition of the Slave Trade, and supported Mr Whitbread in the affair of Lord Melville. Sir William Young has appeared as an author in the following publications:—

1. 'The Spirit of Athens,' 8vo, 1777.
2. 'The History of Athens,' 4to, 1785.
3. 'A Pamphlet on the Amendment of the Poor Laws,' 8vo, 1788.
4. 'The Rights of Englishmen.'
5. 'Letter to Mr Pitt, on the Poor, and Workhouses.'
6. 'Speech on the Slave Trade,' 8vo, 1791.

8. 'The West India Common Place Book.'

(Ibid., p. 90.)

The late Sir Wm. Young, bart. was born in February 1750 (not 1742, as we have before stated); and was nominated governor of the Leeward Islands, etc., during the late Grenville administration. He lately sat in Parliament for Buckingham. He was twice married. Besides the publications we have already noticed, he was the author of a statistical account of the West Indies, and several pieces of fugitive Poetry. ('Gent. Mag.,' p. 294.)

We have much pleasure in contradicting the report of the death of Sir William Young, bart. Governor of Tobago, who was in good health, as appears by letters from himself to his family, at a later date than the unaccountable, and, to them, alarming report, alluded to. (Ibid., p. 494.)

1815, Jan. At Chertsey, Mrs. Oliver Young, sister of Sir Wm. Young, bart. (Ibid., p. 89.)

1815, Jan. 10. At Government house, Tobago, his Excellency Governor Sir Wm. Young, bart. F.R.S. and F.S.A. He was born in 1749, and succeeded his father Sir William in 1788. Sir William married secondly, in 1792, Barbara, daughter of Richard Talbot, of Malahide Castle, Ireland, esq. by whom he had no issue. He represented the borough of St Mawes in four parliaments. (Ibid., p. 373.)

1816. The Father of Sir Wm. Young, the first baronet, was lieutenant-governor of Dominica, where he possessed considerable estates: and his mother was the daughter of Dr Brook Taylor, secretary to the Royal Society. Sir William first obtained a seat in Parliament in 1784, for the borough of St Mawes, for which he was re-elected in 1790, 1796, and 1802, and was returned for Buckingham in 1806. In the following year, he was appointed Governor of Tobago, where he has ever since resided. He was author of a 'History of Athens' and various pamphlets and the 'West India Common Place Book,' etc. (Ibid., p. 632.)

1824, Nov. 3. At Hastings, in his 47th year, Sir William Lawrence Young, bart. He was eldest son of Sir William, second Bart. by his first wife, dau. of Charles Lawrence, esq. On the 21st of Dec. 1805, he married Louisa, 2d dau. of Wm. Tuffnell, esq. of Langley, co. Essex, and had issue. On the death of his father, in Nov. 1811, he succeeded to the baronetcy. ('Gent. Mag.,' p. 573.)

1832, May 9. At an advanced age, Mrs. Portia Young, sister of Sir W. Young, Bart., late Governor of the island of Tobago, and dan. of the late Sir W. Young, Bart. of Delaford, near Iwer, in the county of Bucks. (Ibid., p. 475.)

1870. George Frederick Young, who died 23 Feb. 1870 at Reigate, was first son of the late Vice-Admiral William Young by Ann Spencer his wife, daughter of Robert Curling. He was of the family of Sir Charles Lawrence Young, Bart.; represented Tynemouth and Scarborough in Parliament; was a merchant and ship owner; Vice-President of the Board of Trade 1852; J.P. and D.L. for Middlesex; married in 1814 Mary daughter of John Abbott of Brompton House, Thanet, by whom he leaves three sons and two daughters surviving. The following extracts have been made from such of the records of the earlier wills, etc., as now exist. Most of the old books of wills, etc., are in a deplorable condition; they have as a rule lost their covers, hundreds of pages are missing, and even some folios which are legible are so fragile from former exposure to damp that the paper falls to pieces on being turned over. The early records were always badly housed and kept, as may be seen by the Report made by a Committee of the Legislature in 1777. The later ones are at the present time well preserved, and are bound in volumes which stand in two large iron safes in the Court House.

I have endeavoured to tabulate the earliest series as follows:—

- Liber A. 10 June 1668—1674; fos. 15—228.
- B. 1674—1677; fos. 17—117 and 150—272.
- C. 21 March 1678—4 Jan. 1680; fos. 1—318, complete.
- D. 12 Feb. 1680—May 1681; fo. 8.
- E. 1684—1686.
- F. 1686—1696-7.
- G. 21 June 1693—8 Dec. 1698; fos. 25—336.
- H. 1699—1701.
- I, J. 1702—1704; fo. 12.

- Liber L. 1709—1711.
 M. 1712—1714.

 O. 1716—1718.
 P. 1718—1719.
 Q. 1719—1721.
 R. 1721—1722.
 S. Missing. This vol. existed in 1777.

 W. } Missing. These vols. existed in 1777.
 X. }
 Y. 1729—1730.
 Z. 1730; fos. 57—68.

The second series commenced with Liber A, 1732, B, 1733, etc.

In the succeeding series whole volumes are missing, and I could only discover wills for the following years:—

Feb. 1734—8 Feb. 1737, fos. 88—153; 1738—1741 and 1743, a few folios only; Sep. 1746, fos. 59—64; April 1747, fo. 71; March 1749-50, fo. 181; 1751—53; Book of Wills C, bound in parchment, 20 April 1756—25 April 1766, fos. 1—229; 1759, fo. 46 and 80—89; 1768, fo. 35; 1769, 1770, and 1775; 28 May 1781—24 April 1784, fos. 46—167; 5 May 1785, fo. 17; 1788, fos. 71 and 158—193; 1792, fos. 254—367; 1795, fo. 361; 22 May 1797—Dec. 1801, fos. 16—152; 1805, fo. 29; 4 Oct. 1806—1 March 1820, fos. 47—344; 1822, fos. 362—98; Dec. 1824.

Letter from James Nibbs dated 16 July 1788. Mr. Horsford, the gentleman appointed by the Court, has found a codicil to the will your brother made and left in England, which codicil I transcribe. I have given a retainer to the Council your brother has employed of ten johannies (£20); he recommends not taking letters of admⁿ as it would enable Mr. Hyde to continue his prosecution in Chancery against the estate. Memorandum of the Awful Earthquake.*

On Wednesday 8th February 1843, the very day after the meeting of the Vestry, as before recorded, this Island was visited by a most terrific and destructive Earthquake. At 20 minutes before 11 o'clock in the forenoon, while the Bell was ringing for Prayers and the Venerable Rob^t Holberton was in the Vestry room awaiting the arrival of persons to have their Marriage solemnized before the commencement of the morning Service, the whole Edifice from one end to the other was suddenly and violently agitated. Every one within the Church after the first shock was compelled to escape for their lives. The Tower was rent from the top to the bottom, the North dial of the Clock precipitated to the ground beneath with a dreadful crash, and the East parapet Wall of the Tower thrown upon the Roof of the Church. Almost the whole of the North West Wall of the North Gallery fell out in a mass. The North East Wall was protruded beyond the perpendicular; the Alter piece, the Public Monument erected to the Memory of Lord Lavington, and the private Monuments bearing the names of Kelsick, Warner, Otley, and Atkinson fell down piece meal inside. A large portion of the top of the East Wall fell, and the whole of the South East Wall was precipitated into the Church Yard, carrying along with it two of the East Iron Windows, while the other 6 remained projecting from the Walls in which they had been originally inserted. A large pile of heavy cut stones and masses of Brick fell down at the South and at the North Doors. Seven of the large front Pipes of the Organ were thrown out by the violence of the Shocks, and many of the metal and wooden Pipes within displaced; the massive Basin of the Font was tossed from the pedestal on which it rested and pitched upon the pavement beneath uninjured. Thus within the space of 3 minutes the church was reduced to a pile of crumbling ruins. The Walls that were left standing being rent in every part, the main roof only remaining sound, being supported by the hard wood pillars. Having been constituted a Cathedral Church and Episcopal See by the Mandate of Her Most Gracious Sovereign Queen Victoria, as announced in the Official letter of His Excellency the Governor in Chief, Sir C. H. Fitz Roy, K.H., dated 10th Nov. 1842, it was the intention of the Members of the Vestry at their next meeting, proposed to be held on the 27th inst., to have entered into a Contract for improving the Chancel and elevating the Stone work of the Tower, completing the same with four Minarets in a manner suitable for a Cathedral. The said Vestry of St John's holding now their next meeting this 24th day of February 1843 under a Tent, and beholding the destruction of the Cathedral and Parish Church by the late Calamitous Earthquake (which indeed has either rent or laid waste all the stone Buildings in the Island), at the same time gratefully acknowledging the merciful interposition of the Most High in the remarkable preservation of human life, have agreed to have this Record made of the appalling Earthquake of the 8th inst. for their own instruction and for that of future generations.

"Come, behold the works of the Lord, what desolations he hath made in the earth." "Be still, and know that I am God." Psalm xlii., v. 8, 10. R. Holberton, Archdeacon of Antigua and Rector of St John's.

The new Cathedral* was opened for service 10 Oct. 1847, having cost nearly 40,000 l. The rector is p^d £400 st. yearly.

1850. Great disputes arose because the clergy wore a surplice in the pulpit; the curate's salary was stopped in consequence.

1825. 28 sq. miles, 12,300 inhabitants, S. W. Harman, rector; A. W. McNish, curate; 1 church, 800 sittings. (Bishop Coleridge's charges.)

* The corner-stone of the Cathedral was laid in 1845, and the building was completed in 1848. (Church Calendar for Diocese of Antigua.)

CHURCH PLATE.

On a large silver salver there is a representation of our Lord and the twelve Apostles at supper. The marks give the English Hall mark, the date of 1715-16, and the mark of the silversmith John Fawdony. The following inscription runs around the plate:—

Donum Domini Johannis Otto
Bayer ad Templum Divi Johannis in Antigua.

There are also two silver cups and small plates all dated 1698-9, and inscribed:—

In usum Templi Divi Johannis in Antigua
Gulielmus Jones Parochia hujus olim Rector Donum Dedit.

OLD WEST INDIAN CHURCHES.

SIR,—I read with the interest of an old West Indian, and which may be shared by Canadian Churchmen, the following reference to the Cathedral in my old island of Antigua, in that excellent repository of colonial news The Colonies and India, of the 1st January.

“Old Cathedral Candlesticks.—A most interesting relic of antiquity has just been restored to the Cathedral of St. John (Antiguo). There are probably very few churches in the West Indies which possess any silver nearly two hundred years old. Two very massive candlesticks were given to St. John's Church somewhere about the beginning of the last century, for the giver of them, Mr. Peter Lee, died in the year 1704. They bear the inscription “Donum domini Petri Lee ad Templum Divi Johannis in Antigua.” The candlesticks continued in the possession of the church till 1848. They were seen by Mrs. Lenerghan, and are mentioned in her book “Antigua and the Antiguans,” vol. i., p. p. 220, 221. In January 1848 the vestry ordered the silver candlesticks and the large brass chandelier to be sold and the proceeds applied to the organ; there is no further record in connection with them.”

It is fortunate the utilitarian ideas of the churchwardens of 1848 did not result in their destruction. Referring to the above work “Antigua and the Antiguans,” a copy of which is in my library, it is further stated in describing the cathedral “the communion service plate is very handsome, the large salver measuring eighteen inches in diameter, was presented to the church by John Otto Baijer, Esq., about the year 1724. It displays a representation of the Lord's Supper, the figures in beautiful basso relievo, and bears the following inscription: ‘Donum domini Johannis Otto Baijer, ad Templum Divi Johannis in Antigua.’ The two smaller salvers and the cup are inscribed as follows: ‘In usum Templi Divi Johannis in Antigua Gulielmus Jones Parochialis hujus olim Rector Donum Dedit.’”

It is now many years since I left the West Indies to become a resident in Canada, but I am reminded by the above of several old churches there, the service books of which were impressed with the royal arms and inscriptions signifying that they were the gift of Queen Anne, in whose reign, 1704 to 1714, the relics alluded to were presented by old Mr. Lee, whose descendants were in Antigua in my early days, and I believe are still residing in the old colony.

Yours truly,

SAMUEL B. HARMAN.

Nothing however | prevented his Listening to the Call of his Country as often | as she became involved in War | Promoted by his Sovereign in the Year 1803 to the | Rank of Brigadier General in the West Indies | where for | some time he held the Chief Command. MISCELLANEOUS NOTES.

FULHAM PALACE MSS. (COLONIAL).

These papers consist of the correspondence which was carried on by the Bishops of London with the various Governors of the North American and West Indian colonies and the clergy. They are at present unsorted and the different colonies much mixed up, but a proper arrangement is in contemplation. From a few of the bundles which I had an opportunity of looking through, I was able to collect some notes about Antigua, but the most valuable paper amongst them was a complete transcript of the parish register of St. George's, Nevis, from 5 April 1716 to 25 March 1724. Doubtless in the great mass of documents other transcripts may be found.

1711, April 19. The Bishop of London writes to Governor Douglas about the Escheat of Mr. Osborne's estate in y^e parish of St Marie's in Antigua, asking him to settle it for a glebe to the minister.

1712-13, Jan. 17. The original subscription list for building a new church in St Philip's parish. (See Vol. I.,
p. 87, for information on this matter.)

1716, May 14. Letter from William Lavington, Esq., to the Bishop about the same, enclosing an original petition signed by Isaac Grace, rector.

1716, April 18. Governor Walter Hamilton to the Bishop of London : "Mr. Charles Porter (who is now at my house) I am giving a Presentation to for the Parish of Falmouth in Antigua."

1717, Sep. 20. Charles Porter writes to the Bishop that he arrived a year and a half ago, that living is very dear, & his salary unpunctually paid.

1717-18, March 14. Governor Walter Hamilton to the Bishop about Mr. Field's absence from St John's, & is sending this letter by "Your kinsman Mr. Willett." (This last named was probably one of the Willetts of St. Christopher's.)

1719, July 15. Governor Walter Hamilton to the Bishop. Rev. Mr. Leslie whom I have presented to St Paul's, Falmouth. Mr. Samuel Sanders officiates in the room of Mr. Jefford, absent in Great Britain. Mr. Grace, who had formerly a presentation to a parish here, which he left years ago, & then filled up by Mr. Orr. Parishioners of St John's are uneasy at the long absence of Mr. Field.

1720, July. The Bishop writes about the heavy accusations by the Archbishop of Dublin against Mr. Metcalfe, the curate officiating at St John's, who is to be at once deprived.

1728, Dec. 1. The following list of clergy is sent to the Bishop :—

St John's. Rev. James Field, absent.

St Peter's. Rev. Samuel Sanderson, A.M. Oxon ; ordained by Edw^d, Bishop of Gloucester, in 1696.

St Philip's. Rev. Samuel Orr, A.M. Glasgow ; ordained at Fulham in 1710.

St Mary. Rev. James Knox, A.M. Glasgow ; licensed by the Bishop of London 1715.

St George's. Rev. Henry Husband, A.M. Oxon.

1729, April 10. Henry Husband writes to the Bishop that St Philip's is vacant by the death of Rev. Samuel Orr.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS TO VOLUMES I., II., AND III.

VOLUME I.

Page xiii. The following account of the settlement of St. Christopher's has been taken from "The True Travels and Adventures of Captain John Smith into Europe, Asia, Africa, and America, from the year 1592 to 1692." (Churchill's 'Voyages,' vol. ii., chapter xxv.)

THE BEGINNING AND PROCEEDINGS OF THE NEW PLANTATION OF ST. CHRISTOPHER, BY CAPTAIN WARNER.

Master Ralph Merifield and others, having furnished this worthy Industrious Gentleman, he arrived at St. Christopher's, as is said, with fifteen Men, the 28th of January 1623, viz., William Tested, John Rhodes, Robert Bims, Mr. Benifield, Sergeant Jones, Mr. Ware, William Ryle, Rowland Grascook, Mr. Bond, Mr. Langley, Mr. Weaver, Edward Warner, their Captain's Son, and now Deputy Governour, till his Father's return, Sergeant Aplon, one Sailor and a Cook: At their arrival, they found three French Men, who sought to oppose Captain Warner, and to set the Indians upon us; but at last we all became Friends, and lived with the Indians a Month, then we built a Fort, and a House, and planting Fruits, by September we made a crop of Tobacco; but upon the nineteenth of September came a Hericano and blew it away, all this while we lived upon Cassada Bread, Potatoes, Plantanes, Pines, Turtles, Guanes, and Fish plenty; for drink we had Nicnobby. The 18th of March 1624, arrived Captain Jefferson, with three Men Passengers in the Hopewell of London, with some Trade for the Indians, and then we had another crop of Tobacco, in the mean time the French had planted themselves in the other end of the Isle; with this crop Captain Warner returned for England in September 1625.

In his absence came in a French Pinnace, under the command of Monsieur de Nombe, they told us, the Indians had slain some French Men in other of the Charibbe Isles, and that there were six Peryagoes, which are huge great Trees, formed as your Canoes, but so laid out on the sides with Boards, they will seem like a little Gally: Six of those, with about four or five hundred strange Indians came unto us, we bad them be gone, but they would not; whereupon we and the French joynd together, and upon the fifth of November set upon them, and put them to flight: upon New years Even they came again, found three English going about the Isle, whom they slew.

Until the fourth of August, we stood upon our Guard, living upon the spoil and did nothing. But now Captain Warner arriving again with near an hundred People, then we fell to work and planting as before; but upon the fourth of September, came such a Hericano, as blew down all our Houses, Tobacco, and two Drums into the air we know not whither, drove two Ships on Shoar that were both split; all our Provision thus lost, we were very miserable, living only on what we could get in the wild Woods, we made a small party of French and English to go aboard for Provision, but in their returning home, eight French Men were slain in the Harbour.

Thus we continued till near June that the Turtles came in 1627, but the French being like to starve, sought to surprize us, and all the Cassado, Potatoes, and Tobacco we had planted, but we did prevent them. The 26th of October, came in Captain William Smith, in the Hope-well, with some Ordnance, Shot and Powder, from the Earl of Carlisle, with Captain Pelham and thirty Men; about that time also came the Plov, also a small Ship of Bristow, with Captain Warner's Wife, and six or seven Women more.

Upon the 25th of November, the Indians set upon the French, for some injury about their Women, and slew six and twenty French Men, five English, and three Indians. Their Weapons are Bows and Arrows, their Bows are never bent, but the string lies flat to the Bow; their Arrows a small Reed, four or five feet long, headed some with the poisoned Sting of the Tail of a Stingray, some with Iron, some with Wood, but all so poisoned, that if they draw but blood, the hurt is incurable. The next day came in Captain Charles Saltonstall, a young Gentleman, Son of Sir Samuel Saltonstall, who brought with him good store of all Commodities to relieve the Plantation; but by reason some Hollanders, and others had been there lately before him, who carried away with them all the Tobacco, he was forced to put away all his Commodities upon trust till the next crop; in the mean time he resolved there to stay, and imploy himself and his Company in planting Tobacco, hoping thereby to make a Voyage, but before he could be ready to return for England, a Hericano happening, his Ship was split, to his great loss, being sole Merchant and owner himself, notwithstanding forced to pay to his Governour the fifth part of his Tobacco, and for fraught to England, three pence a pound and nine pence a pound custom, which amounts to more than threescore pound in the hundred pound, to the great discouragement of him and many others, that intended well to those Plantations. Nevertheless he is gone again this present year 1629, with a Ship of about three hundred Tuns, and very near two hundred People, with Sir William Tufton Governour for the Barbadoes, and divers Gentlemen, and all manner of Commodities fit for a Plantation. Captain Prinn, Captain Stone, and divers others came in about Christmas; so that this last year, there hath been about thirty Sail of English, French, and Dutch Ships, and all the Indians forced out of the Isle, for they had done much mischief amongst the French, in cutting their Throats, burning their Houses, and spoiling their Tobacco; amongst the rest Tegramund, a little Child, the King's Son, his Parents being slain, or fled, was by great chance saved, and carefully brought to England, by Master Merifield, who brought him from thence, and bringeth him up as his own Children. It lieth seventeen degrees Northward of the Line, about an hundred and twenty Leagues from the Cape de tres Puntas, the nearest main Land in America, it is about eight Leagues in length, and four in breadth; an Island amongst 100 Isles in the West Indies, called the Caribbes, where ordinarily all them that frequent the West Indies, refresh themselves; those, most of them are Rocky, little, and Mountainous, yet frequented by the Canibals; many of them inhabited, as Saint Domingo, Saint Mattalin, Saint Lucia, Saint Vincent, Grenada, and Margarita, to the Southward; Northward, none but Saint Christopher's, and it but lately, yet they will be ranging Marigalanta, Guardalupo, Deceado, Mount-serat, Antigua, Mevis, Bernardo, Saint Martin, and Saint Bartholomew, but the worst of the four Isles possessed by the Spaniards, as Porto-rico or Jamaica, is better than all of them; as for Hispaniola, and Cuba, they are worthy the Title of two rich Kingdoms, the rest not respected by the Spaniards, for want of Harbours, and their better choice of good Land, and profit in the main. But Captain Warner, having been very familiar Captain Painton, in the Amazons, hearing his information of this St. Christopher's; and having made a year's trial, as it is said, returned for England, joyning with Master Merifield and his Friends, got Letters Patent from King James to plant and possess it. Since then, the Right Honourable the Earl of Carlisle hath got Letters Patents also, not only of that, but all the Caribbe Isles about it, who is now chief Lord of them, and the English his Tenants that do possess them; over whom he appointeth such Governours and Officers as their affairs require; and although there be a great Custom imposed upon them, considering their other charges, both to feed and maintain themselves; yet there is there, and now a going, near upon the number of three thousand People; where by reason of the rockiness and thickness of the Woods in the Isle, it is difficult to pass, and such a snuff of the Sea goeth on the Shoar, ten may better defend, than fifty assault. In this Isle are many Springs, but yet Water is scarce again in many places; the Valleys and sides of the Hills very fertile, but the Mountains harsh, and of a sulphurous composition; all overgrown with Palmetas, Cotton Trees; Lignum vite, and divers other sorts, but none like any in Christendom, except those carried thither; the air very pleasant and healthful, but exceeding hot, yet so tempered with cool breaths, it seems very temperate to them, that are little used to it; the Trees being always green, the days and nights always very near equal in length, always Summer; only they have in their Seasons great Gusts and Rains, and sometimes a Hericano, which is an over grown, and a most violent storm.

In some of those Isles, are Catel, Goats, and Hogs, but here none but what they must carry; Guanes they have, which is a little harmless Beast, like a Crocodile, or Aligator, very fat and good Meat; she lays Eggs in the Sand, as doth the Land Crabs, which live here in abundance, like Conies in Boroughs, unless about May, when they come down to the Seaside, to lay in the Sand, as the others; and all their Eggs are hatched by the heat of the Sun.

From May to September, they have good store of Tortoises that come out of the Sea to lay their Eggs in the Sand, and are hatched as the other; they will lay half a peck at a time, and near a bushel ere they have done, and are round like Tennis-balls; This Fish is like Veal in taste, the Fat of a brownish colour, very good and wholsom. We seek them in the Nights, where we find them on shoar, we turn them upon their backs, till the next day we fetch them home, for they can never return themselves, being so hard, a Cart may go over them; and so big, one will suffice forty or fifty Men to dinner. Divers sorts of other Fish they have in abundance, and Prawnes most great and excellent, but none will keep sweet scarce twelve hours.

The best and greatest Bird is a Passer Flaminga, which walking at her length, is as tall as a Man, Pigeons and Turtle Doves in abundance; some Parrots, wild Hawks, but divers other sorts of good Sea-fowl, whose Names we know not.

Cassado is a Root planted in the Ground, of a wonderful Increase, and will make very good White-bread, but the Juice Rank Poyson, yet boyled, better than Wine; Potatoes, Cabbages, and Radish plenty. Maize, like the Virginia Wheat; we have Pine-Apple, near so big as an Hartichock, but the most daintiest taste of any Fruit; Plantains, an excellent and most increasing Fruit, Apples, Prickle Pears, and Pease, but differing all from ours. There is Pepper that groweth in a little red Husk, as big as a Walnut, about four Inches in length, but the long Cods are small, and much stronger and better for use, than that from the East Indies. There is two sorts of Cotten, the silk Cotten as in the East Indies, groweth upon a small stalk, as good for Beds as Down; the other upon a shrub, and beareth a Cod bigger than a Walnut, full of Cotten Wool: Anotto also groweth upon a shrub, with a Cod like the other, and nine or ten on a bunch, full of Anotto, very good for Dyers, tho' wild; Sugar Canes, not tame, four or five foot high; also Mastick, and Locust-trees; great and hard Timber, Gourds, Musk-Melons, Water-Melons, Lettice, Parsly; all places naturally bear Purslain of itself; Sope-berries like a Musquet Bullet, that washeth as white as Sope; in the middle of the Root is a thing like a Sedge, a very good Fruit, we call Pengromes; a Pappaw is as great as an Apple, coloured like an Orange, and good to eat; a small hard Nut, like a Hazell Nut, grows close to the Ground, and like this grows on the Palmetas, which we call a Mucca Nut; Mustard-seed will grow to a great Tree, but bears no seed, yet the Leaves will make good Mustard; the Mancinel Tree, the Fruit is Poison; good Figs in abundance; but the Palmeta serveth to build Forts and Houses, the Leaves to cover them, and many other Uses; the juice we draw from them, till we suck them to Death, (is held restorative) and the top for meat doth serve us as Cabbage; but oft we want Powder'd Beef and Bacon, and many other needful necessities.

Nicholas Burgh, and others.

Page xvii. Extract of a Letter from Charles Town, dated 5 Oct. 1728 :—

The Campbell of Bristol, Capt. Goodwin, from Bristol and Cork, was taken on the 27th of August last, as she was going from Barbadoes for St. Christopher's, by a French Pirate of 8 Guns and about 40 Men, 15 of whom were French, 15 Irish and Scotch, and the rest Indians, Negroes, and Mulattoes : She had several Passengers on Board her, whom the Pirate stripp'd ; and after having kept the Ship for about two Days, in which Time they plunder'd her of all that was valuable in her, they let her go, and on the first of September she arriv'd at St. Christopher's. On the 10th of September there was a Tornado at St. Christopher's, when the Campbell put to sea, and was soon after lost on the Point near the Fort on the Island of Nevis. Captain Goodwin came Passenger from Nevis in the Hampshire. On the 14th of October, the Earl of Londonderry, Captain General and Commander in Chief of the British Leeward Islands, arriv'd at Nevis in the Pearl Man of War from Antigua. ('Historical Register,' pp. 11, 12.)

Antigua, October 22.

I wrote to you by Capt. Woodbridge, that Capt. Pitman, Commander of his Majesty's Ship the Pearl, dy'd here the 6th Instant : He is succeeded in his Command by Mr. Knight, the first Lieutenant of the said Ship. On the 13th his Excellency the Earl of Londonderry sailed from hence in the Pearl Man of War to visit St. Christopher's, and the other Islands under his Government, for the first Time, accompany'd by Lieutenant-General Matthews and others. Most of the Ships and Vessels which have arrived here from the Northward have met with very bad Weather, and either lost their Masts, Bowsprits, etc., or damag'd their Cargoes. On or about the 14th Instant, Capt. Miles, Master of the Sloop Mary, belonging to New-London, bound to Nevis, was taken up at Sea, together with two Sailors and three Passengers, in the Latitude of 21, by another Sloop, after they had been 17 Days upon the Bottom of the Vessel ; but about six others were drowned : The Forepart of the Sloop being laden with Lumber, floated above the Water : They lived upon Raw Indian Corn which was stowed. The Lenox Man of War, Capt. Dent, has been supply'd here with Masts and other Necessaries, but will hardly sail for England 'till April. The French at Martinico have fitted out two Sloops in quest of a Pirate, and are to continue cruising three Months, unless they find her sooner. The Sloop Spy, George Wills Master, belonging to Bermuda, bound for Jamaica, was taken by a Spanish Launch within Musket Shot of Jamaica, and carry'd away in July last, as was at the same Time a Sloop belonging to Carolina . . . The Squirrel Galley, Capt. Blines, arrived at Barbadoes the 23d of October, from Whydah in Guiney, from whence she sailed the 28th of July with the Feversham Man of War, with whom she kept Company as far as the Island of St. Thomas on the African Coast, belonging to the Portuguese, where she left Capt. Goodall, the Commander, at the Point of Death, who had been Speechless for some Days before. The Man of War's Third Lieutenant dy'd, and was bury'd on the Coast of Africa.

Antigua, Sep. 29.

An Act is passed for settling on his Excellency the Earl of Londonderry, their General, during his Government there, 3s. 6d. per Ton, according to the Register of each Vessel, clearing with the Produce of that Island, to be paid by the Treasurer ; and for making some other Provisions as therein is specified : And in regard little Benefit will accrue from thence to his Excellency 'till next Year, (the Crop being over for this) they have made him a Present of a Thousand Pounds. 'Tis added, that they have a Prospect of a fine Crop next Season (pp. 14, 15).

DR. WALTER TULLIDEPH'S LETTER-BOOK.

HISTORICAL NOTES.

1784, Oct. 21. We have now extraordinary fine weather . . . it has been very sickly and mortal . . . Mr. John Morrice, Coll^d W^m Painter's wife, and a great many of inferior note are dead, M^r Wyne has laid down his clerkship in the office and M^r Dunbar has made choice of John Fyffe to succeed him without any gratuity. Our Assembly are about a Law to encourage white tradesmen to settle with us, and to lay a tax on negroe tradesmen.

1785, April 5. There is not any vessel gone from this to South Carolina this year yet . . . We have many Irish vessels here at present, beef is like to be very low.

1785, July 23. We have had at least 14 severe earthquakes within these ten days, nor does y^e earth yet seem to be free from motion . . . we have fine rains and the prospect of a large forward crope for next year, altho' y^e blast does much damage in y^e poor land.

1786, Jan. 15. The present circumstances of the Island from the horrid negroe conspiracy and dry weather has reduced us to great inconveniences . . . As for the above plott no doubt it has made much noise in England; to be brief M^r Kerby's head man Court at the head of the Coromantees, and Tho^s Hansons, Jun^r, Carp^t Tomboy, att the head of the Creoles, had for these 12 months past by degrees corrupted most of the negroe tradesmen and drivers, and brought them over att their publick feasts and entertainments and bound them by an oath to destroy all the whites, man, woman, & child; y^e usual form for y^e Coromantees was by a mixture of Grave dirt in rum or beer, which they drank, holding their hand over a white dunghill cock; to the Creoles was added also kissing y^e new testament, and so true were they one to the other that no plain discovery was made by any of them, nor should we ever come to the knowledge of it had not some of them been taken up (even after y^e day designed for y^e execution of their plott) for their impudence of Sundays to the Constables and severely whip't, & some distant hints by over-hearing y^e two chiefs talking of powder & y^e like, y^e frequent feasting, & crowning Court King at a military Coromantee dance to y^e dram called y^e Akim dance, a certain declaration of war. There was a ball to be kept at M^r Dunbar's great house the 11th of Oct^r w^h was y^e King's Coronation day, & Tomboy was to erect y^e seats & lay such a quantity of powder under them as to blow up all the Gentry of the Island while they were in the height of their mirth, then three bodys, each consisting of 300 or 400 men, were to fall in upon three diff^t quarters of the Town & putt all to the sword. We were saved by the Providence of the Almighty thus, the Gen^l had acco^{ts} of M^r Guernier's his father-in-law's death w^e putt him into mourning, and by his order the ball was putt off till the 30th, being the King's birth day; this occasioned a warm dispute between the two chiefs, Tomboy being young & fiery was for falling on directly, but King Court being of a more phlegmatic temper opposed him, & was willing the business should be done with as little loss of their side as possible. About y^e 13th or 14th y^e plott began to be discovered, Court, Tomboy, & one Hercules, a Carp^t, were broke on the wheel, & 9 more burnt . . .

1787, Oct. 3. We have enjoyed exceeding fine weather since the beginning of May, so that our Island has putt on a new face. We are in great hopes of a plentiful crope after Christmas, our negroes very quiet, about 90 of y^e ring-leaders were putt to death & 50 banished.

1788, April 17. M^r John Fyffe is in a very good way being deputy treasurer. Jas. Fyffe is gone down to live with M^r Gerrish at Mountserratt at £60 pr. ann. & found everything.

1788, Aug. 14. Sugars are now brought down with much adoe to 18s. c., cotton 12^d pr. pd., rum fetches 16^d cash.

Nov. 3. The small pox has run through this Island like wildfire, but has been very favourable; we have practised inoculation pretty much with great success.

1789, Aug. 3. Capt. Boscowen in a 20 Gun ship arrived here y^e 27th July with an express to our General, & y^e 28th a declaration was published here granting liberty to make reprisals on the Spaniards, she sailed the same day for Jamaica.

1789, Sep. 1. War has been proclaimed with Spain.

1789, Oct. 16. I shall be obliged to you if you'll send me two or three of the most modern & best books fit for a country justice, for the General & Council have been pleased to conferr that honour on me.

1740, Sep. 2. About the storm, Moncrief's being lost.

1741-2, Jan. 9. Y^e fleet passed here y^e 4th inst. Gov^r Byam's & Jacob Thioub's death.

1742, June 6. Rum fallen to 2/9.

1743-4, Jan. 14. M^r Knowles' arrival here, his laying out £10,000 st. at English harbour.

[End of VOLUME I.]

VOLUME II.

1743-4, March 3. Our General went on board the Commodore about 4 weeks agone & went to Barbadoes, where he was received in a very handsome manner, & had a review of all the Militia there, he returned again two days agone, while he was there a vessell arrived f'm London 27 days passage, by whom the acco^{ts} are that a French Warr is inevitable, y^e 4 large ships y^t was expected here is gone to Admiral Mathews, who 'tis thought will strike y^e blow.

1744, April 10. We have severe drie weather which hath already shortned our crops $\frac{3}{4}$. The Woolwich man of warr arrived lately at Barbadoes f'm the Coast of Guinea, & the day after she left that Island in her voyage hither, she fell in with a Spanish Register ship of 34 Guns & 300 men, they engaged & y^e Spaniard stood eight broadsides before he struck, she is carried into Barbadoes and is said to be worth £100,000 st., there was an 80 gun ship with 1300 men & three other Register ships came out with her, and 'tis said they are now at Martinico; Commodore Warren with all his force went out two days agone to endeavour to meet with them.

May 28. Warr was declared here the 24th inst. against France. Sugar hath been up at 28s. & 30s. Some French prizes are brought in here with bread & flower from Old France, & our Legislature intend to purchase them for y^e use of the Public to humble our Merchants who want to raise flower to 20s., they have this 29th laid an Embargo to prevent the exportation of provisions of all sorts to Leeward.

Sep. 15. We have only two Privateers belonging to this Island, who have destroyed two French Privateers, & therefore have done signal service to trade. Daniel Hill, Gov^r Thomas' overseer at Winthorpes, died about 3 weeks agone.

Nov. 18. M^{rs} McKinnen's death. Winthorpes being settled by Gov. Thomas of Phil., & mill building this year.

1744-5, Jan. 9. Commodore Warren who hath not been here above 20 days hath already taken two of y^e best French privateers, & run another ashore, a Danish sloop loaded with provisions off y^e harbours of Martinique, & retaken an English Brig^t belonging to North America, he hath been out these ten days again, & we expect he will not return without bringing something in with him. 70 pr. c^t Exchange.

1744-5, Feb. 28. The Lynn hath lately sent in two Outward bound Frenchmen & Capt. Douglass in the Mermaid, a Bourdeaux man, & a Brig^t fm Cape Britton. Admiral Daverse sailed from hence ab^t ten days ago; while he stayed here the Weymouth, a fine 70 gun ship that came out for Mr Warren, was unfortunately lost by the carelessness of the pilot upon the reefs of Sandy Island, a great loss to these Islands. Mr Knowls was on board, and Admiral Daverse at an anchor in our Road.

1745, May 15. The French are now so much superiour to us by sea that our men of warr have ever since been laid up in English Harbour. We have been working at English Harbour $\frac{1}{2}$ pr. cent. of our negroes these 12 months past, and there was an unlucky accident hapned there sometime ago; a quantity of damaged powder was carelesslie put into a hut without any watch upon it, by some means it was blown up and killed above 20 white people and several negroes.

May 19. A fleet of Jamaica ships past this Island in 30 days from Plymouth, by whom we are advised that one 70, one 60, and one 50-gun ship were ordered directly for this station, and they are expected hourly under Commodore Lee.

Aug. 13. Mr James Stevenson keeps his health & is gone into partnership with one Dr Sam^l Young, a good natured countryman.

Oct. 5. Admirall Townsend arrived here this day 14 days with 8 sail of the line; there came with him 3 store-ships for English Harbour; he went under sail yesterday and stood to the Southward with all his squadron, but whither bound is a secret.

Admiral Townsend with all his squadron sailed from hence y^e 4th of Oct^r and blockaded Martinico ever since; the 31st of said month as he was cruizing a few leagues to leeward of Port Royal 43 sail of vessells came in sight, & as he had been informed by a Dutch sloop the day before that there was 8 men of warr with them, he prudently ordered his vessells to form into y^e line, by which he lost two hours, but when they came nearer & found there was only two large ships, he then gave the Signall to his best sailing vessells to give chase, which they did and took 15 sail, sunk 5, burnt 8, & 8 run ashore; they had a 36 gun frigate was blown up, their 80 gun ship named the Magnanima was on a rock 40 hours, but got off, & she with the Ruby, a 60 gun ship, & about 5 sail of y^e Merchantmen gott into Port Róyall harbour. . . . The Admiral sent home the Otto sloop with an account of this victory, & we had a rejoicing for it here yesterday; he sent 3000 prisoners ashore to encrease their distress.

1745-6, Feb. 19. Admiral Townsend sailed hence with his squadron about 16 days ago for Cape Breton to the best of our judgement, and the 17th instant the Commodore sailed from hence with his squadron assisted with six privateers, and stood to the Southward to look out for a fleet of homeward bound Martinico merchantmen that were to sail the 16th under convoy of one 80, a 60, & 20 gun vessells.

1745-6, March 9. Out of the prizes brought in here by Mr Townsend one large ship is taken into the service of y^e Crown & made a 20 gun ship, the rest loaded chiefly for Europe. Several privateers fitted out by merchants at Philadelphia & New York were cruising about. Admiral Townsend was within 5 days sail of Cape Breton where he mett with a violent storm, whereby his ships suffered so much that he was obliged to bear up for this Island, & came in here 8 days ago.

1746, May 22. Our North America trade is intirely cutt off by y^e great numbers of privateers, & y^e King's ships being very inactive, which hath raised all kind of lumber & provisions very high.

VOL. III.

Nov. 25. The danger to windward is not now so great, owing to the Leostaff privateer, fitted out by the merchants in London to cruize to windward of Barbadoes & these Islands. She was formerly a man of war, mounts 24 guns, & 200 men; she with Capt. Dennis & Coll^l King's two privateers have lately taken 10 or 12 privateers & 3 row galleys. A smart engagement hapned in sight of Monk's Hill three days ago between a ship & snow. We think they were the Leostaff & a stout French privateer snow well manned, & sent out on purpose to take Capt. Tyrrell in y^e Lime, because he is a vigilant officer; however it be the snow was taken & went to windward, & y^e Leostaff carries all prizes to Barbadoes, where the Island advances the head money & waits till y^e government can repay them.

1746-7, March 18. We don't expect our fleet till some time next month, under the command of Commodore Legg, who relieves the present. I wish he may protect trade better. Capt. Broderick in the Dreadnought hath taken one & demolished another, very stout privateers.

1747, May 31. Commodore Lee's tryall will hardly begin these four weeks, & on Aug. 22 Commodore Lee comes home in the Suffolk still under suspension. Mr Legg had appointed six Captains to trie him.

1748, June 25. An express arrived here with the King's Proclamation for a Cessation of Arms.

1748, Nov. 23. Last night the Admiral Osborne gave a handsome ball for the entertainment of the gentlemen & ladies of this Island, & there was a fine appearance, indeed this is leaving us with a better grace than some other Admirals have done before, & a suitable return to an elegant entertainment & ball we gave him soon after his arrival.

1749-50, March 20. Sugars from 27s. to 32s. Rum 2s. 6d.

1750, May 14. Our great Man goes in company with this vessell. His son Daniel was married last Tuesday to M^{rs} Lyons, the daughter of George Byam and widow of Henry Lyons's son, and come in this ship.

1751, Sep. 6. Our Island is likely to be ruined & deserted by the imprudence of people running in debt, & the severity of the merchants. Dr Husband is gone off to St^l Croix much in debt, many have gone in like manner, but what is worse a great number of the industrious midling people are gone there in an open manner this day, no less than 24 with their family & effects are gone off.

1751, Sep. 17. On the 8th inst. from 7 o'clock till 3 in the morning hap'ned here the most violent storm that was ever known in the memory of the oldest man living, many dwelling houses, windmills, & other works destroyed or much damaged, few escaped. . . . our canes being twisted or torn in pieces, many of our vessells are lost, those loading with sugar were all on shore, but were happily got off again; y^e losses in buildings £100,000, & in our canes double that.

1752, May 11. We are obliged to send to Montserrat for water to drink & send our horses to drink at the creek; we have had little or no rains since Christmas; this severe drought succeeding the hurricane hath occasioned a very short crop this year.

1752, Aug. 19. I wrote the 10th inst. that Gen^l Mathew was dying, & the 16th that he departed this life the 14th at 10 o'clock. The General's son goes home in Burton.

1752, Dec. 25. To Richard Oliver, who has offered him a share in the "Langford."

1755, Jan. 20. It hath been very sickly . . . we have lost many of the midling & lower class of people, of the soldiers about 30. Upon the death of Coll^l Gunthorpe the General was pleased to press me again to take my seat in Council, which I accordingly did last month, & Thos. Jarvis hath been since appointed another, Halliday hath filled mine, & think W^m Dunbar will that of Mr Jarvis's place in the Assembly. I dined with his Excellency New Year's day, I think, who received me very kindly. Coll^o Martin was there the same day; M^r Thomas was blooded that day therefore did not see her, but saw the rest of y^e ladies, but not George. The General goes to Leeward the 31st inst.

1755, Feb. 24. M^r Otto was sworn into the Council last meeting & stands next to Coll^o Lesley our President; at same time was Coll^o Byam who is the next above me, M^r Oliver & M^r Jarvis below me. There is a mighty cock fight to be here the 21st March between S^t Kitts & this Island, which brings many of the Leeward people up & prevents his Excellency going down till that is over.

April 29. I have lost 100 hhd's, at least by y^e hurricane, ratts, & heavy rains. Our foolish affair of cocking & gaming hath drained us of our money; 'tis said the S^t Kitts gentry carried away above £4000 cash. I am afraid it is too true.

1755, Dec. 8. Commodore Frankland sent in here two French Guineamen, one from Angola with 500 slaves, the other from Papaw with 300. Nath^l Booth was agent & sold them very well last week.

1756, March 2. Our Warwick, Capt. Shuldum, of 60 guns, was cruising about 15 leagues to windward of Martinico; she was unluckily taken & carried in there; we have now only one 50 gunship & a sloop, but expect a fleet dayly.

1757, March 4. Capt. Watkins of the Blandford, having lost his rudder, went into English Harbour; the Admiral was backward in supplying him with what he wanted; the Captain, poor man, wrote perhaps too freely to that great man, he confined him, held a Court Marshall, Capt. Cornish President, was removed from the command of that ship & may be some time before he gets another; this is now going on the 3^d that all our capital ships have been lying in S^t John's Road; the Edinburgh was sent to Jamaica to refit some weeks ago for want of masts & other stores here, the Augusta went down with the last fleet to Jamaica, the Surprise to Windward of Barbadoes, the Saltash, Capt. Cumming, to Windward of us, the Tryal to Leeward attending the General who went down about 3 weeks ago & may be back in 10 days, the Sterling Castle, Anson, Bristol, Woolwich, Winchester, & the Blandford. We have no certainty yet when a Convoy will happen.

1757, April 30. Our Cork fleet is arrived some time past, & we now impatiently look out for our English fleet.

1764, June 8. Lieut. Balingall of the 38th Reg^t sailed yesterday in the Tarne ship of warr with the whole regiment here for Ireland. I had the pleasure to pass the King's birthday* & the next in company of Lord Adam Gordon; he opened our ball with the General's daughter, was most elegantly entertained at noon with good turtles, the best beef, mutton, veal, poultry, the best of liquors; the General treated the Council & Assembly with the King's officers. Lord Adam arrived here 3 or 4 days before & embark^t the next day for St. Kitts, the next evening to meet the man of warr that had his regiment on board in order to proceed to Jamaica.

* George III. was born on the 4th June.

1768, May 10. William Allen a young man, son of M^r Allen, Keeper of the Horse-shoe-inn, in Blackman-street, Southwark, and who as appeared afterward was merely a quiet spectator, being pursued, along with others, was unfortunately singled out, followed by three soldiers into a cowhouse, and shot dead!

A fine large marble tombstone, elegantly finished, was erected over the grave of Mr. Allen, junior, in Newington

Churchyard, Surrey. On the four sides are the following inscriptions. North side:—

Sacred to the memory of

WILLIAM ALLEN,

An Englishman of unpotted life and amiable disposition, Who was inhumanly murdered, near S^t George's fields, the 10th day of May, 1768, by Scottish detachments from the army.

His difconsolate parents, inhabitants of this parish, caused this tomb to be erected to an only son, loft to them and to the world in his twentieth year, as a monument of his virtues and their affection.

(South side, nine lines; east side, one line; west side, two lines.)

On the same monument is the following inscription:—

Here also lies interred,

Who survived a few months the cruel death of her beloved brother.

She died December the 7th, 1768, aged 23 years.

ST. DUNSTAN'S IN THE EAST, LONDON.

Over against the pulpit, on one of the pillars in the middle aisle, is erected a white marble table, with the following inscription :—

Here lieth the Body of Richard Cary, Esq ; who departed this Life the 25th of January, | 1726, aged 78 Years. He was the 2d Son of Shershaw Cary, of the City of Bristol, | Esq ; by Mary, his Wife, eldest Daughter of John Scope, of Coffle Combe, in the | County of Wilts, Esq ; by Mary, Daughter of John Hungerford, of Cadnam, Esq ; | Here also lie the Bodies of Jane his Wife, Richard their Son, and Jane their | Daughter ; Martha, his only surviving Child, married Robert Elwes, junr. of the | County of Hertford, Esq ; who erected this Monument in Honour to his Memory. (Seymour's 'Survey of London,' vol. i., p. 298.)

The Carys were a very ancient family long resident in Bristol. Mr. H. F. Waters has printed several of their wills and pedigrees in the 'New England Hist. and Gen. Register,' which he very kindly shewed me. From these, from Wadley's

Bristol Wills, and from information supplied by Mr. D. G. Cary-Elwes of Conway, Florida, the following short Pedigree has been drawn up :—

* Of the children of Richard Cary and Jane Wright : Jane married 11 Nov. 1712 Henry Long, and after her death he married Margaret Webb, who, surviving him, married Edward Chester of Bygrave, co. Herts, Esq. Her will was proved P.C.C. 1735. Richard Cary, jun., was born 21 Feb. 1685, and was Captain in Alexander's Regiment of Foot and a bachelor in 1715. Joseph Cary, the other son, was born 31 Oct. 1688, and died a bachelor at St. John's July 1705. Martha Elwes became her father's heiress, the Egton Estate (? in Yorkshire) having been purchased about 1732 by her husband (as her father's Ex'or) of the Earl of Sussex for £38,000, and this was sold by their descendant in 1869 for £180,000.

It is to this lady that I am indebted for these Duer Papers. (See a pedigree of Van Cortlandt, Philipse, Robinson, etc., in Burke's 'Landed Gentry'.)

The Misses Duer of Chichester, England, daughters of Roland Duer, declared that the name was originally spelt D'eure. John Duer, Gent., commoner of Christ Church, married at seventeen Elizabeth Eyre, a relation of Mr. Duffer, a lawyer, at Engfield, Essex.* Returned to retrieve his affairs in Antigua. Had by her a son and a daughter. The latter died at Bellair,† near Exeter, where Mr. Duer lived twelve or fourteen years. Mr. Duer's second wife was a descendant of Mr. Roland Frye of Antigua, by whom he had eight children: Roland, Frances, Theodora, Henrietta, Elizabeth, William, and John.

Mr. Duer was educated at a school in Codrington,‡ Beds. His estate is 3 or 4000 per annum. He now lives at Fulham, having retrieved his affairs . . . estates, and laid up fortunes for his younger children. (Written probably in 1750.)

William Denning or Dunning of Antigua, born April 1740, emigrated circa 1760 to New York. He had relations who moved to Nova Scotia, one of whom was a Mrs. Odell.

LETTER FROM SIR GEORGE ROSE, M.P., TO WILLIAM DUER.

Duke Street, Westminster,
April 12th, 1778.

DEAR WILLIAM,

During three years that the unhappy Differences have prevailed between the two Parts of this Empire, neither I nor any one of your Family have heard from you, nor indeed of you except by the publick Prints, & it is nearly as long since I have written to you. While the Contentment was violent I did not attempt a Correspondence because I did not conceive it could be attended with any good, but upon a supposition that there will now be a free Intercourse I cannot neglect to tell you we are all well, & to express to you my hopes that as the Concessions made by this Country are ample, & what those on your side of the water seemed to wish, such an end may be put to the business as may restore you to a communication with your Family & friends. I will not now enter into Particulars of Family matters; you may however suppose that there is one here for whom you must have the most anxious Concern, who has been as great a sufferer both in mind & circumstances, owing to the late occurrences, as any person whatsoever in America, & whose happiness can only be restored by the event so much wished for. I have already told you we are all well; I mean by that all those you left here, & a little boy named William who you never saw. George goes to Westminster immediately. Your Brother John is still at Antigua, & Sam is going on remarkably well at Dominica. This will be delivered to you by Mr. Eden, one of the Commissioners sent from hence, in whom you may repose entire Confidence. I can only add my hearty prayers that the Negotiations may terminate in securing lasting peace & happiness to both countries, which every good & honest man must wish whatever part he may have taken or opinions he may have held. Dora joins in love to you, your other Sisters are not at present with us, & my determination to write to you was sudden. Your Uncle Frye is dead; he left the Bansted & his other Estates in Surrey to your Uncle William, with remainder to Rowland Frye; the two Devonshire Estates & his personal fortune to William to dispose of as he pleases, & £100 to each of his Nephews & Nieces.

I am, Dear William,
Your affectionate Brother & faithful Friend,
GEORGE ROSE.

* ? Enfield, Middlesex.

This will corrects the tabular pedigree, but it still leaves it in uncertainty. There is no proof that Mary Wharfe's first husband was Thomas Dunning; it is much more likely that she was mother of Anna the wife of Robert Dunning.

"The only way I can account for part of the Hodge family settling in Philadelphia is that when Henry Hodge died 1694-5 at Antigua he left a young family, and his son Henry being thrown with the people called Quakers, who were numerous at that time at Antigua, Tortola, and Barbados, became convinced and joined their Society, or perhaps his mother was a 'Friend'; he then removed to Philadelphia, to be where they were free from persecution.
The first record I have of him in Philadelphia is from the Philadelphia 'Society of Friends' Monthly Meeting Book'
(Deaths and Burials), viz.: 'france Hodge wife of Henry 11 mo. [old style Jan.] 11th, 1715.' He was a prominent merchant, and often acted as attorney for parties in Antigua, especially for Jonas Langford. The brief of title to one piece of real estate he possessed on what is now Clinton Street is as follows: '1728, 1st May, Deed to Henry Hodge for lot on North side of Pine St East of 11th St' [this property extended through to and across the present Clinton Street]. Henry Hodge died intestate leaving five children by his first wife, Knight Hodge, Henry Hodge, Margaret Rawle (wife of William Rawle), Frances Paschall (wife of John Paschall), and Mary Fisher, widow, and one child by his second wife, Thomas Hodge. 1734, Oct. 26 and July 27, deeds, Knight Hodge and Susanna his wife and Henry Hodge to their [step] mother Hannah Hodge. 1736,
April 19, will of Hannah Hodge mentions her son Thomas Hodge. Henry Hodge on Oct. 3, 1727, was elected one of the Common Council [Alderman] of the City of Philadelphia.
Among other family MSS. is the following: 'Release John and Frances Paschall to Thomas Hodge of Kingessing [in Philadelphia Co.], yeoman,' unto a certain legacy left to said Frances Paschall by Christopher Knight her grandfather, deceased, of Antigua, and also to the estate of her father Henry Hodge, deceased . . . Aug. 2, 1741—Signed John Paschall, Frances Paschall, and witnessed by George Wood and Joseph Fordham. Henry Hodge married for his second wife Hannah Scott, widow of Abraham Scott, also widow of John Scott; her maiden name was Lambert;

she was of New Jersey. The entry in Philadelphia Monthly Meeting Book [this is an extract of the full entry]: 'Henry Hodge of Philad^a, merchant, and Hannah Scott, of the same place, widow, at Philad^a Meeting 7th mo. [Sep.] 12th, 1717.'
I have no knowledge of any heraldic seal in the family.

"Children of Henry Hodge.

1. Knight Hodge, married at Philadelphia Friends' Meeting on 5th mo. [July] 25th 1728 Susannah Bickley, dau.
of Abraham Bickley of Burlington, New Jersey.
I believe he died in 1747 (Register of Wills, Philadelphia). Letters of adm'on granted 1747 (Book F,
p. 83). I do not know whether he left issue or not.
2. Henry Hodge married Elizabeth . . . Letters of adm'on granted on the estate of a Henry Hodge of Philadelphia 1754 (Book F, p. 530). The following entries are from Christ Episcopal Church Records, Philadelphia:—

Baptized.

- 1738 Oct. 4 Hodge, John Knight, s. Henry and Elizabeth, 2 wks.

Buried.

- 1738 Oct. 7 Hodge, John Knight, son of Henry.
1742 Dec. 25 Hodge, Henry, son of Henry.
1752 July 23 Hodge, John.
1759 Nov. 20 Hodge, Knight, son of Abraham.

[There are a couple of marriages, but I doubt if they belong to the same family.]

- 1743 May 29 Hodge, Susannah, and John Williams.
1754 Feb. 25 Hodge, Elizabeth, and Joseph Bond.

3. Margaret Hodge, married at Philadelphia Friends'
Meeting on 6th mo. [Aug.] 29th 1728 to William Rawle, son of Francis and Martha Turner Rawle.
They left numerous descendants, several of whom attained to positions of prominence.
4. Mary Hodge, born 1st mo. [March] 8th 1709 [this date is fixed by a piece of sample work with it on, now in the possession of the family], married at Philadelphia Friends' Meeting on 3rd mo. [May] 30th 1728 to John Fisher, son of John Fisher and Sarah, the latter deceased at the time of the wedding. Her husband died in 1740, and she married Jonathan Paschall. According to the will of John Fisher, proved at Philadelphia April 16, 1740, they had two sons and two daughters.
5. Frances Hodge, born 4 mo. [June] 15th 1710; died in Philadelphia 1st mo. [Jan.] 8th 1781; married at Philadelphia Friends' Meeting 2nd mo. [April] 25th 1728 Dr. John Paschall, son of Thomas Paschall and Margaret Jenkins Paschall his wife. Left numerous descendants. The Paschalls emigrated from near Bristol, England, to Pennsylvania in the fall of 1682.
6. Elizabeth Hodge died 1719, I believe unmarried. The entry in Philadelphia Meeting Book of Deaths and Burials: 'Hodge, Elizabeth, 6 mo. [Aug.] 28th 1719. Parents, Henry and Frances, dec'd.' This looks as if you were wrong about Elizabeth marrying Henry Elliott.

"Notes on the second marriage of Henry Hodge:—Records of the Society of Friends, marriages at Chesterfield, New Jersey.—Certificates recorded (one for) John Scott and Hannah Lambert 2nd mo. [April] 4th 1695. Philadelphia marriages.—Certificates recorded (one for) Abraham Scott and Hannah Scott, widow, 5 mo. [July] 10, 1705. Same meeting.—Certificates recorded (one for) as given in my letter of March 8th. In an old family Bible printed in 1715 by John Basket, Oxford, etc., the above marriage is recorded, and the following: 'Thomas Hodge was born y^e

8th day of 8 mo. 1718.' Wills registered at Philadelphia.—No. 3 of 1736, Hannah Hodge (Book F, p. 4). Philadelphia adm'ns.—Henry Hodge, 1731 (Book C, p. 192). Thomas Hodge, 1744 (Book E, p. 39). This is evidently the son by second marriage, I think s.p. Joseph Hodge, 1733 (Book C, p. 246). I do not identify him. The newspaper 'The Pennsylvania Gazette' for March 7th 1731-2 has a short obituary on Henry Hodge, 'a merchant and a man of good reputation.' Some of the family seem to have owned property in Pennsylvania as late as 1843, and they were resident of Antigua for the reason that there are recorded at West Chester, Chester Co., Pennsylvania, the following wills, certified to by the consul for the U.S.A. at St. John, Antigua, April 4, 1843, viz.: Isabella Hodge of Island of Antigua, widow and relict of Christopher Hodge, signed 21 Aug. 1795; proved Nov. 8, 1795 (Liber H, fo. F). Henry Hodge of the Island of Antigua, planter, signed 25 June 1811; mandamus signed 22 Jan. 1824 (Liber C, vol iii., fo. 47). Michael Hodge, Antigua, Dec. 21, 1807, sworn March 6, 1809 (Liber K, vol. vii., fo. 143, also P.C.C.). Langford Lovell Hodge, Island of Antigua, planter, signed Oct. 31, 1811, at Old Warren Cottage, Hampshire, in Great Britain; proved April 14, 1817 (Liber B, vol. ii., fo. 49), at Antigua.

The following additional information has been supplied me by the Rev. Robert Eden Cole, Rector of Doddington, co. Lincoln, and Thomas Bell, Esq., of Dundee:—

Page 98. Thomas Jarvis married Jane Moll. My grandfather G. R. P. Jarvis left Antigua when so young (in 1786, aged 12), and spent so much of his early life in campaigning, that he knew little of his family, and the pedigrees here are very meagre. In one of these this Thomas Jarvis is represented as having married. . . . Delap. G. R. P. Jarvis always said that he was the twenty-first and youngest child of his parents, but I have only a list of eighteen names, one only (another Elizabeth) to be added to your 17; no doubt the rest died as infants.—R. E. Cole.

William B. Jarvis was born 4 Dec. 1759, married 24 July 1793, and died 23 March 1811. Abigail Nanton Weston his wife was daughter of John Weston, who died 3 Feb. 1797, æt. 61. Died on Wednesday Morning the 8th inst. M^{rs} Abigail Nanton Hardman after a very sudden & short illness of only 24 hours. This lady was not only esteemed & respected by all who knew her, but she was most sincerely beloved by her Family & those Friends with whom she was most intimate. The goodness of her heart & the benignity of her conduct rendered her truly amiable, & her loss will ever be felt with the deepest sorrow among her family, for as a parent she was truly affectionate, & as a wife her Death will be remembered with the most heartfelt regret.

On Saturday last departed this life, after a long and painful illness, William B. Jarvis, Esq., for many Years Captain & Master Gunner of Fort James; the many amiable qualities which he possessed endeared him not only to his numerous relatives & friends, but to those strangers who, from the situation he held, so frequently experienced his generous heart & hospitable roof. He was a kind and affectionate husband & father, & a humane Master. His remains were interred on the North side of the Fort, followed by a most numerous & respectable assemblage of the inhabitants of the Island, who seemed to feel with the greatest regret the loss of so worthy & honourable a Member of Society.

Dorset. Inquisition taken at Sherborne in the said county 4 April 7 Charles I. [1631] before William Cox, Gentleman, escheator after the death of William Langford, by the oath of Robert Whetcombe, Gentleman, Richard Coothe, Gentleman, etc., jurors, who say that William Langford was seised in his demesne as of fee of the manor, capital messuage, and farm of Gussage St. Andree in county Dorset. So seised the said William Langford and John Penny by indentures dated 30 Dec. 17 James I. Gulielmus et Maria Rex & Regina, etc. Jane Langford, Maria Langford datm. cumquidam ordo. coram nob. in cur. can. nup. fact. riddit extitit in hec verba Lime vicesimo sexto die Nov. Anno quatro regni Jacobi Regis secundi.* Inter Elizam. Gostlet vid relicti Benj. Gostlet Johem Harrington art. et Hellen ux ejus George Adams et Mariam ux ejus Elizam Gostlet spin Johem Gostlet & John Chetwyn Quer, Janam Langford & Marian Langford, defendants. This cause coming this present day to be heard and debated in the presence of council, learned on both sides, the scope of the plaintiffs' bill appeared to be that on the fifth of Feb. 1661 Benjamin Gostlet made his will, and thereby (after some small leaveings) gave the residue of his personal estate to the plaintiffs, Elizabeth his relict and Hellen, Mary, and Elizabeth his children, to the end that his executors in . . . all convenient speed after his decease, purchase some lands in fee and settle the same to the uses following, viz., one moiety to the use of the plaintiff Elizabeth his relict for her life, and after her decease to the plaintiffs his children and their heirs share and share alike, and the other moiety he willed should be by his executors divided into so many parts as he should leave children, and to come immediately to them and their heirs share and share alike, but under several provisos, and of his will appointed the said plaintiffs, John Gostlet, Chetwyn, together with Richard Thorne and Thomas Stearne, who are both since deceased, his executors in trust, and shortly after died, leaving only issue the said plaintiffs Hellen, Mary, and Elizabeth, and all the said executors undertook the trust, and pursuant thereto by Indentures of lease and release bearing date 30 April and 2 May 16 Charles II., and made between Ellis Langford and Arthur Langford, cousin of the said Ellis, of the first part, the said trustees, of the second part, and the said plaintiff Elizabeth Gostlet, of the third part, they, the said Ellis and Arthur Langford, in consideration of £1200 paid by the said trustees, being the said residue, did by the said Indenture and a fine thereupon levied upon the said trustees and their heirs in trust for the said plaintiff the widow and the said other plaintiffs the children, all that the manor, capital messuage, demeans, lands, and farm of Gussage with the appurtenances in county Dorset, except some small cottages and lands, parcel of the said manor, and a counterpart of the said conveyance was sealed by the said trustees to the said Langfords, and the original deeds deposited in the hands of the said Ellis Langford, and the plaintiffs have ever since quietly enjoyed the said premises, but the said conveyances to the said trustees being left in the hands of the said plaintiff Adams, he, the said Adams, in the time of troubles in the West, to secure the said conveyances put them under ground, where they suffered so great damage by water that the letters thereof were quite wore out and the said deeds not legible. And the said Ellis Langford the vendor being dead, leaving Ellis his son and heir, who is also since dead, leaving only issue the defendant Mary and the other defendant Jane his relict, who have possessed themselves of the said original deeds and also of the said counterpart. And the said plaintiffs the children, being all come to one and twenty years, have consented to sell the premises and applied themselves to the defendants for a copy of the counterparts, and also the said original deeds for the . . . of a purchase. But the defendants, notwithstanding they claim no interest in any part of the said premises thereby mentioned to be conveyed as aforesaid, refused to produce the same. Therefore that the defendants may bring into court the said counterpart, also the said original deeds, that the plaintiffs may have authentic copies to be made use of in law or as occasion shall require, and to be relieved in the premises is the end of the Bill. Whereupon it was . . . the defendants' counsel that the said defendants do by answer confess there was such agreement between the executors of Benjamin Gostlet and Ellis Langford for purchasing the manor of Gussage, with the appurtenances, and such conveyance thereon executed as in the Bill, and confess they have the original deeds relating to the premises in their custody, and also the counterparts of the plaintiffs' deed of purchase which they insist on the keeping of for maintenance of their [title] to the excepted premises in the Bill mentioned. Whereupon and upon hearing all what could be alleged on either side, it is hereby [ordered that ?] said defendants do produce upon oath before Baron William Child, one of the masters of this court, all the deeds and writings which they have or ever had in their custody touching the estate in question or any part thereof, to the end the plaintiffs may have authentic copies of such of them as they shall think fit at their own charge, and that the counterpart of the plaintiffs' said deed of purchase from the Langfords be, at the plaintiffs' charge, enrolled for safe custody, and the plaintiffs are to have such of the original deeds as the said master shall find belong solely to them. And the said master is also to tax the defendants their costs.

ST. THOMAS, MIDDLE ISLAND, ST. CHRISTOPHER.

Arms (but not copied by Mr. N. Darnell Davis).

Here lies in certain hope of a blessed resurrection, William Coventry, late of the parish of St. Thomas, Middle Island, Merchant, who departed this life August the 16th 1734, Aged 53 years. He was a tender and indulgent parent, an upright and a good Christian. His life was regularly sober and truly pious, and God Almighty, who visibly blessed his honest industry upon earth gave him here but . . . etc. To his memory therefore, John Manning, Merchant, who married his only daughter, dutifully subscribes this monument.

In this tomb also is deposited the body of his grandson John Battry (?) Manning, who departed this life, September the 27th 1734, aged one year seven months, and ten days.

'Life of Cardinal Manning, Archbishop of Westminster,' by Edmund Sheridan Purcell, 2 vols. (Macmillan, 1895).

"Henry Edward Manning was born at Copped Hall, Hertfordshire, on the 15th of July 1807. He was the youngest son of William Manning, M.P., and of Mary his wife. His father, who was born 1st December 1763, was twice married. His first wife was Elizabeth, daughter of Abel Smith, banker of Nottingham, and sister of Robert, created Lord Carrington. Of this marriage there were two daughters : Elizabeth, who died unmarried ; and Mary, who was married to Major-General Thomas Carey, of the Guernsey family of that name. About three years after the death of his first wife, Elizabeth, William Manning married secondly, in 1792, Mary the daughter of Henry Leroy Hunter of Beech Hill, Reading. William Manning died in 1835, and was buried at Sundridge, Kent, where Mary, his wife, who was born 4th July 1771, and died 12th May 1847, was likewise buried. Four sons and four daughters were the issue of the second marriage. Henry, the youngest, enjoyed the benefit of having many brothers and sisters. The Cardinal's eldest brother William, born July 1793, died in 1812. His sister Harriet also died in 1826, aged 20. Another sister Caroline, who married Colonel Austen, died in 1893, aged 92."

William Manning occupied Copped Hall, Totteridge, soon after 1792, subsequently purchasing it, but sold it about 1815.

In Totteridge Church are the tombs of the Cardinal's grandfather, who died in 1791, and of his eldest brother William.

"In the parish church of St. Giles, Speen, near Newbury, is to be found the marriage register of the Cardinal's grandfather, William Manning, and Elizabeth, daughter of William and Mary Ryan of St. Kitts, West Indies :— 'Elizabeth Ryan, baptized on 6th November, 1732, at the parish church of St. George, Basseterre, St. Kitts, married at Speen, Berks, 1st October, 1751, to William Manning.' Elizabeth Ryan was the owner of two estates in St. Kitts, and soon after the marriage, her husband, Mr. William Manning, founded the great West Indian house, afterwards known as Manning and Anderdon. It is said that he first started in business at Bristol, where he became acquainted with Isaac Disraeli, the father of Lord Beaconsfield. Subsequently he was established as a West Indian merchant at St. Mary Axe, London, and lived at Billiter Square, City.

"On his father's death in 1791, William Manning, the Cardinal's father, succeeded to the business, which was carried on in [3] New Bank Buildings, City, at a later period, in partnership with Mr. John Anderdon, and made a handsome fortune in the palmy days of West Indian prosperity. In those days the West Indian interest was a factor in the political world ; accordingly William Manning entered Parliament as member for Plympton Earle in 1790. In 1807 he was elected member for Evesham ; he represented afterwards Penryn, and supported West Indian and commercial interests in the House of Commons for about thirty-nine years. He was highly respected in the City ; was for forty years a director of the Bank of England, and was governor in the years 1812-13. Mr. Manning sold his estate at Totteridge in 1815 and purchased Combe Bank in the parish of Sundridge, 3 miles from Sevenoaks. The depreciating value of West Indian property subsequently led to his financial ruin and bankruptcy in 1831. He died on the 17th of April 1835, at his house in Lower Gower Street, and was buried on the 24th inst. in the same vault with his daughter Harriet in Sundridge Church. The Cardinal married on 7th Nov. 1833 at Lavington, Caroline, 3rd dan. of the Revd. John Sargent and granddaughter of Mrs. Sargent of Lavington Manor ; she died in July 1837 s.p."

1813, Dec. 12. Fell gallantly in an action near Bayonne, Lient.-col. Samuel Coote Martin, 1st foot-guards, eldest son of the late Wm. Byam M. esq. of Whiteknights, Berks. The following is an extract from the letter of a brother officer: "Colonel Martin commanded the piquets which were attacked at day-light, on the 12th of December, by the Enemy in vast force. He repulsed them with great skill and gallantry; but at the conclusion of the contest he received a ball through the heart, which closed his honourable and virtuous life without a groan, deeply lamented by officers and men. He had greatly distinguished himself in the battle of the 9th." To his surviving parent, widow, and four infant children, his loss is indeed severe. (Ibid., p. 701.)

The following notes have been contributed by Mr. Edward Payson Payson, Counsellor-at-Law, of 150 Devonshire Street, Boston, Mass. :—

Samuel Martin of Green Castle, Antigua, who married Lydia Thomas, had three sons :—

i. Samuel, the progenitor of the present English branch.

ii. Josiah, who married Mary Yeamans, as to whose early life I am uninformed. At Long Island he built a house, "Rock Hall"; was Aide-de-camp to the Royal Governor of the colony of New York in 1757; Member of the Governor's Council 1759—62; one of the Lords of Trade to the King for the trial of pirates; and died 21 Nov. 1778 at Rock Hall, aged 79; his wife died 30 Aug. 1805. Their children were :—

1. Elizabeth, married her cousin Josiah, afterwards Royal Governor of North Carolina.

2. Samuel, Physician, at Rock Hall, who gave his parole in £500 with sureties not to oppose the Whigs in 1776, and died 21 April 1804.

3. Alice, buried at Hempstead 10 Aug. 1815.

4. Rachel, married Thomas Bannister of Long Island.

5. Frances.

6. William (from Heralds' College pedigree: "a captain in 60th Reg. of foot, unmarried 1791"). (Information is particularly desired as to his descendants.)

7. Charles Yeamans. (See pedigree.)

iii. William Thomas, who married Penelope Clark July 1728, was educated at Trinity College, Cambridge; M.D. 1728; died early; administration to his widow P.C.C. July 1735, leaving a daughter, who died young, and one son William, mentioned in will of his grandmother Lydia, and his stepfather Governor Edward Byam, born in All Hallows' Parish, Tower Hill, near London, 10 June 1733; intended for the University and his father's profession, but his death prevented, and he was educated at St. Paul's Classical School; afterwards in business in London; married Elizabeth, daughter of Captain Galpine, 1762; emigrated to Boston 1783; Citizen of Mass. by Special Act of 1787; Member of the General Court (Legislature) of Mass. 1792—98; Charter Trustee of Bowdoin College 1794—1813; died 15 June 1814; his wife died 1829. Children :—

1. William Clark, died s.p.

2. Samuel, married Hannah, daughter of Colonel John Morrill, and their children all died unmarried except Penelope, who married Edward, eldest son of Rev. Dr. Edward Payson of Portland, Maine; and Hannah, who married James W. Tobey. Each left descendants.

3. Nathaniel, married Rhoda, daughter of Erastus Foote; and of their children Edward Byam married Sarah, daughter of Captain Norris; Erastus married Sarah Dallum; Emily married Henry Bennett, first President American Bible Society; and all these left descendants.

The line from Dr. William Thomas Martin will be found partially recorded in Heralds' College, London. The above facts as to Josiah come from parish records and historical manuscripts of the State of New York. Much of the same information is contained in a MS. left by Penelope, daughter of William the emigrant. Of Governor Josiah, son of Samuel and cousin of William the emigrant, there is a good deal of memoranda in American histories.

MEMORANDUM OF JOSIAH MARTIN.

From Martin pedigree, Heralds' College, 1791: "II. Josiah Martin of Long Island, near New York, and also of Antigua, died many years ago; married Mary, daughter of . . . Yeamans of Antigua, living 1791." By Yeamans' pedigree (Sumner's 'History East Boston,' p. 231) Mary was daughter of William, a son of John Yeamans, Lieut.-Governor of Antigua.

Josiah is styled "Major" in the will of Governor Edward Byam dated 1734, and in the records of St. George Church both "Major" and "Colonel." He was President of the Council of Antigua for some years (1 Oliver). He emigrated to Long Island, America, about 1730 (?), where, in the midst of his retainers, he lived many years. He built "Rock Hall," near Far Rockaway, one of the still surviving manorial houses of that time, now the seat of the Hewlett family, containing his supposed portrait. In 1760 a house is advertised "near Rock Hall" (Hewlett Mem.) A Lieut. Josiah Martin was in Hale's 5th Conn. Regiment in Louisburg Expedition of 1745 (N.E.H.G.R. 24, p. 373). Josiah's name is frequent in the records of church of St. George's Parish, Hempstead, Long Island, from 1732, viz. :—

Baptized.

1732 Mar. 25 Mary daughter of Josiah and Elizabeth Martin.

(Mem.—Probably these names should be reversed, since Mary was wife of Josiah. See Martin pedigree later.)

1740 Oct. 14 Samuel son of Major Josiah and Mary Martin.

Before entries of 1745: "Samuel Martin and Alice Martin confirmed October 31."

1750 Mar. 12 Rachel daughter of Col. Josiah and Mrs. Mary Martin of Hempstead.

1754 Jan. 4 Frances daughter of Josiah and Mary Martin.

1757 Sep. 8 William son of Josiah and Mary Martin.

Clowes Mem. says a daughter married William McNeil. The Martin pedigree gives a son Charles Yeamans.

In 1751 Josiah subscribes £20 for an additional gallery.

In 1757 he was commissioned Aide-de-camp to the Royal Governor of New York (Calendar of New York Historical Manuscripts, English, 1644—1776, p. 672; a copy of an instrument endorsed "Draft of Commission for Aide-de-camp," ibid., vol. 84, p. 63).

From 1759 till 1761 or 62 he was Member of the Legislature or Governor's Council of the colony of New York, first sitting 25 June 1759 under Governor James De Lancey (Journal Legislative Council of New York, p. 1371; New York Civil List of 1878, p. 19). He was one of the "Lords of Trade to the King" for the trial of pirates as a Member of His Majesty's Council for the province of New York (New Jersey Archives, vol. 9, p. 282).

The record of his death is "Died November 21, 1778, at his seat at Rockaway, the Hon. Josiah Martin, aged 79." (Hewlett Mem.) In Rev. Mr. Moore's 'History of St. George's Church' he is confused with his nephew Governor Josiah, who married his daughter Elizabeth, passed some time at, and sent his family from North Carolina to, Rockaway, and died in London in 1786.

His wife Mary died 1805 according to St. George's burial records: "Mrs. Mary Martin of Far Rockaway, August 30, 1805."

Of their children :—

1. Elizabeth, married Lieut.-Colonel Josiah Martin (her cousin), afterwards Governor of North Carolina. From St. George's Parish Records appear the baptisms :—

Baptized.

1762 April 19 Mary Elizabeth daughter to Samuel (Josiah ?) and Elizabeth Martin.

1768 Mar. 16 Alice daughter of Col. Josiah Martin and Mrs. Elizabeth Martin. Sponsors, Dr. Samuel Martin, Madam Mary Read, and Rachael Martin.

1771 June 21 Samuel George Thomas son of Josiah Martin, Esq., Governor of North Carolina, and Elizabeth Martin.

1775 Sep. 6 Augusta daughter of his Excellency Josiah Martin, Esq., Governor of North Carolina, and Elizabeth Martin.

From Martin pedigree: "Elizabeth, daughter of Josiah Martin, ob. at Long Island October 1778; m. Josiah Martin, late Governor of North Carolina, and sometime Colonel in the army; ob. 13 April 1786; bur. at St. George, Hanover Square."

2. Samuel, mentioned in Sabine's 'Loyalists' as having given his parole in 1776 in the sum of £500 with sureties not to oppose the Whigs; was a Physician; lived at Rock Hall; and is recorded as Vestryman of St. George's Parish 1770—1797, and frequently a Delegate to represent the church in convention, and as one of a Committee to protest against use of church as a granary by the troops; and under Burials: "Doctor Samuel Martin of Far Rockaway, April 21, 1806."

3. Alice. From St. George's Burials: "Miss Alice Martin of Rockaway, buried in ch. yd. Hempstead August 10, 1815." From Martin pedigree: "Samuel and Alice both living at Long Island and unmarried 1791."

4. Rachael, married Thomas Bannister, as appears in St. George's Records, thus: "1780, July 26, Baptised at Hempstead, Josiah Martin, son of Thomas and Rachael Bannister of Hempstead. Sponsors, Dr. Samuel Martin, Edward Winslow, Esq. (Muster Master-General), Mrs. Mary Martin." From Martin pedigree: "Rachael, mar. Bannister of Long Island, both living and have issue 1791."

5. Frances. No further information. Not given, as are the others, in Burke.

6. William. From Martin pedigree: "A captain in 60 Regt. of foot, unmar. 1791," i.e. at age of 34.

7. From Martin pedigree: "Charles Yeamans Martin of Antigua, mar. but s.p. 1791." From Burke: "Died issueless."

Clowes Mem., Hewlett Mem., speak of a Martin who married a Major McNeil of the British Army, and whose descendants are still in Queen's County.

I have lately learned that University of Pennsylvania Matriculate Catalogue shews "Gov. N. C." being error:—

"Josiah Martin, A.B., gratiae causa 1757, A.M. gratiae causa 1760, b. ; d. ; s. Col.

Josiah Martin, Gov. N. C., and entered May 25, 1754; studied at the Temple, London, Lawyer." I assume he was the Josiah whom your Vol. II. gives as son of Josiah the elder, and died 1762. Also from same, "Gov. N. C." being error:—

"Wm. Thomas Martin, b. ; d. Philadelphia Aug. 28, 1754; s. Col. Josiah Martin, Gov. N. C. and Entered May 25, 1754. He died during his studentship, and Provost Wm. Smith, D.D., preached a sermon in Christ Church, Philadelphia, commemorative of his death." I find the sermon (vol. i., p. 5, 'Works of Wm. Smith, D.D.') prefaced with note of dedication to Samuel Martin, M.P. for Camelford, Secretary to Treasury, etc., as his cousin.

Neither name is among L. I. baptisms. Wm. Thos. Martin, M.D., was of Cambridge as stated by his granddaughter Penelope, as learned from his daughter-in-law in a genealogy left by her, also by his great-grandson John in minutes for publication and in other family papers. I notice that in his son William's certificate to Freedom of London the Wm. is omitted from the Doctor's name, but William records himself as "son of Dr. Wm. Thos. Martin;" and from Vicar-General's office, 22 July 1728, a licence issued for marriage of Wm. Thos. Martin of St. Edmund the King, London, Dr. of Physic, aged above 29 years, with Penelope Clark, etc.

I am just in receipt of a letter from J. W. Clark of the Registry of the University at Cambridge, saying: "William Thomas Martin matriculated as a pensioner from Trinity College 8 July 1721."

Mr. Alderman Oliver arose in his place, and in a short speech, in which he thanked the aldermen for the polite and respectable behaviour always shewn him, desired, for reasons he had already given, and which have been since further strengthened by recent acts, to resign his gown as alderman of the Ward of Billingsgate, which resignation was accepted. Mr. Oliver, before he retired, wished that the court of aldermen might ever meet with that respect which their rank in the corporation merited; adding, that he left that court with an ardent desire, that whatever gentleman should succeed him, and indeed every present and future alderman, would prove themselves by their conduct the honest and faithful guardians of the liberties and franchises of this city.

The court then resolved unanimously, that the thanks of the court be given as follows:—

"Plumbe, Mayor, The first court held on Tuesday, the 24th day of November, 1778, and in the 19th year of the reign of King George the Third, of Great Britain, etc.

"Resolved unanimously, that the thanks of this court be given to Richard Oliver, Esq; late alderman of the Ward "Ordered, that the said resolution be fairly transcribed, and signed by the Town Clerk, and published in the public papers. Rix." ('Town and Country Mag.,' pp. 666-7.)

Captain Byrd, from Cheshire, the first settler, married Mary daughter of Warham Horsemanden, a Kentish Cavalier, and lived on the site of Richmond; became Receiver-General of the King's Revenue, Colonel of Militia, and died in 1704, being succeeded by his son William, born 28 March 1674, died 26 Aug. 1744; admitted to the Bar of Middle Temple, F.R.S., President of Council, Receiver-General, Agent, etc.; 37 years Member of Council.

"Two years after coming into his inheritance—his father died in 1704—Colonel Byrd married Lucy Parke, daughter of the aide-de-camp of the Duke of Marlborough, who carried the news of the victory of Blenheim to Queen Anne. Another daughter was the progenitress of Martha Washington's first husband and of the wife of General Robert Edmund Lee.

"One of Kneller's portraits of Colonel Daniel Parke hangs in the dining-room at Brandon, another in the house of General Custis Lee at Lexington, Virginia. In both he is gorgeously attired in crimson velvet, with embroidery, and with a steenkirk and ruffles of costly lace, wears around his neck the queen's miniature set in pearls, presented to him by her placid majesty in reward for his good tidings, and looks prodigiously well pleased with himself, while the battle of Blenheim is raging in the background."

Mrs. Lucy Parke Byrd died at London in 1716 of small-pox. She left an only girl, Evelyn Byrd; she died at Westover, single, 13 Nov. 1737, æt. 28. Colonel Byrd remarried 1724 Miss Maria Taylor of Kensington.—('Century Magazine' for 1891, vol. xli., pp. 163—178. Article on Colonel William Byrd of Westover, Virginia.)

What is not generally known is that this Emanuel Pigott was really married three times, his second wife being Ann Phair, married in Diocese of Cork 1722; and in "The Index to the Marriage Licence Bonds of the Diocese of Cork and Ross" I find the following, viz.:—

"Aquila Stoughton and Hanna Scott mar. 1670."

COPY OF LETTER ADDRESSED TO "CHARLES REDWOOD, ESQ., COWBRIDGE, GLAMORGAN."

London,
15 Octo. 1829.

SIR,

On my arrival in town last Ev^e I found your letter, and in reply have to state I never knew a Robert Redwood. About the year 1660 Abraham Redwood, son of a Redwood who died in England, went to N. America, where he married. By his first wife he had a son Abraham, my Grandfather, who was born in 1700, & by his second wife another son William, who settled in Philadelphia & had several daughters, all well married there, & only one son by his 2^d wife, born after he was 70, which son is now alive, unmarried, & is named William. My G. Father had three sons, Jonas Langford (my Father), William, & Abraham. My Father had two sons, myself & Jonas Langford, my younger brother, who died 1803 [or 1808—V. L. O.], unmarried. William had no children. Abraham had one son, Langford, who is now alive and at present in the United States, so, you see, for near 200 years there has been no Robert. I believe the head of our branch came from the West of England, all the three first generations having been brought up Quakers, & the whole of the before named were born in Rhode Island, N. America. I was sent to England for Education early in the American War, & have been occasionally in the W. Indies & America since the last time among the Islands in 1794; having many acquaintance W. Indians I am certain I should have heard of any Redwood in any superior situation in the Leeward Islands, certainly no governor of that name, Monserrat having never been a separate government, but always a part of the Leeward Islands Gov., till their division about 30 years ago, when Monserrat was added to the gov^t of Antigua.

Between 20 & 30 years since there was a Phillip Redwood* Attorney-Gen. of Jamaica. I did not know him, but understand he died without children. A friend of mine in the Heralds' Office [Mr. Pulman—V. L. O.] told me he had occasion to examine some very old registers in the Church of St. Mary Ottery, Devon, & he observed the births

* 1810. Lately. Aged 60, Philip Redwood, esq. of York-place, Portman-square, late chief justice of the island of Jamaica, and Speaker of the Hon. House of Assembly. ('Gent. Mag.', p. 287.) His father Stephen Richard Redwood, Esq., was born at Spanish Town 1 Dec. 1726 and died 8 Dec. 1781. (L. Archer's 'M.L.', p. 66, and 'Gloucester Notes and Queries', vol. iii., pp. 234, 358.)

& deaths of several of the name from 16 to 1700. I once knew a Capt. Redwood,* 5 Dragoon guards, whose Father was named Jerimiah,† & from the scripture name it is very probable he may have been descended from the same ancestor. The last of the name I saw was this summer at Taunton, in passing through, but seeing it was an old cloths & rag shop I did not stop to make any enquiries. I shall be happy if the foregoing proves of any service to you; at any rate you will not find a competitor in,

Sir,

Your most obed. Servant,

ABRⁿ REDWOOD.
